WEDNESDAY, MAY 1, 1918.

WELCOME TO OUR CITY.

The 306th Field Signal Battalion under command of Maj. S. R. Todd arrived in Lexington about 11 o'clock, and was met by a large and enthusiastic crowd of citizens and school children, the High School having adjourned for the occasion and turned out in a body to help welcome the soldiers to Lexington. A committee of ladies had prepared lemonade, which was served from T. L. Harman's cotton platform by a bevy of pretty Lexington girls. Appropriate words of welcome were spoken by T. C. Callison and Solicitor George Bell Timmerman, to which Maj. Todd gracefully responded on behalf of the battalion. This battalion is composed of a bunch of fine young fellows and should be made to feel at home in Lexington. The Dispatch-News welcomes them to our midst and, speaking for the town and community, extends to them the best of everything we have, during their stay among us.

Death of Capt Owen Daley

Capt. Owen Daley a prominent and beloved citizen died suddenly at his home in the city of Columbia Sunday last in the 86th year of his age. For more than 18 years he was chief of police of that city and was an honest, upright man. As an officer and citizen he was popular with every one who knew him. He was a brother Mason and true to the principles. A brave and gallant Confederate soldier member of Capt. Meighan's company C. Richland Cavalry, Easley's Battalion, serving under Colonel Martin, Gens. Hampton and Butler on the battlefields of Virginia. It was my privilege as a comrade to be with him "in the saddle" around Richmond, and in the Shenandoah and Louisa valleys, and on one occasion across the Potomac into Maryland and Pennsylvania on a foraging expedition for flour and forage, then in "No Man's Land," back to Winchester, serving with him as a close friend and comrade until discharged, being then under age.

Now when, one by one, our dear old friends and comrades are called over the river "to rest under the shade of the trees," it is said indeed and a reminder that we, too, will ere long, hear the last taps and will have to answer at roll call to join those who have gone before.

Capt. Daley was buried with Masonic honors and brother members of Camp Hampton U. C. V.'s attended in a body. His remains were interred at St. Peter's Catholic church, Columbia, Monday afternoon.

ARTILLERYMEN GET CORDIAL GREETING

One hundred and thirty trucks from Camp Hancock (Augusta), comprising the field artillery and carrying some 2,000 Pennsylvania soldiers in khaki passed through Lexington Tuesday morning enroute to Camp Jackson where they spent the night, returning to Camp Hancock today. The soldiers attracted general attention and wild shouts greeted the men as they passed through. The regiment pitched camp at Batesburg Monday night where the people of the ridge gave them a cordial greeting.

A LEXINGTON MAN'S EXPERIENCE.

Can you doubt the evidence of this Lexington citizen? You can verify Lexington endorse ment. Read this: R. F. Powell, Main St., Lexington says: "I had a lot of trouble about eleven years ago with my back and kidneys. My back ached all the time and I couldn't stoop over without being in terrible misery. I had a too frequent desire to pass the kidney secretions and this bothered me a great deal. I took different medicines but they didn't do me a mite of good. I tried in every way to get relief. Finally I got Doan's Kidney Pills and they helped me from the start. Several boxes completely cured me of all that trouble. I haven't been bothered since." Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Powell had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfgs., Buffalo, N. Y.

GROCCERS HELP IN 50-50 PLAN

POST CARDS IN STORES.

Explain New Wheat Ruling to Thousands of Customers—Insures Greater Food Saving.

Groccers of the nation have accepted enthusiastically the 50-50 basis for the purchase of wheat flour and are doing their utmost to explain the new regulation to the housewife. This ruling by the U. S. Food Administration requires each purchaser of wheat flour to buy one pound of cereal substitute, one kind or assorted, for every pound of wheat flour. It was necessary to restrict the use of wheat flour in order that the allies and our fighting forces abroad might be assured of an adequate supply of wheat to meet their vital needs. This supply must come from our savings because we have already sent our normal surplus.

Wheat saving pledge cards were forwarded by the Food Administration to all retail food merchants, and these are being signed and posted in stores throughout the country. This card states, "We pledge ourselves loyally to carry out the Food Administration program. In accordance with this order we will not sell any wheat flour except where the purchaser buys an equal weight of one or more of the following, a greater use of which in the home will save wheat:

"Cornmeal, corn flour, edible corn starch, hominy, corn grits, barley flour, potato flour, sweet potato flour, soy bean flour, feterita flour and meals, rice, rice flour, oatmeal, rolled oats and buckwheat flour."

Some confusion has resulted on the part of the consumer in construing this "50-50" ruling to mean that an equal amount in value of substitutes must be purchased with wheat flour. This is a mistaken idea. The ruling states that the consumer in purchasing flour shall "buy at the same time an equal weight of other cereals."

One exception to this ruling is concerning graham flour and whole wheat flour, which may be sold at the ratio of three pounds to five pounds of wheat flour. This provision is made because approximately 25 per cent. more of the wheat berry is used in the manufacture of these flours than standard wheat flour.

Another exception is that concerning mixed flours containing less than 50 per cent. of wheat flour, which may be sold without substitutes. Retailers, however, are forbidden to sell mixed flours containing more than 50 per cent. of wheat flour to any person unless the amount of wheat flour substitutes sold is sufficient to make the total amount of substitutes, including those mixed in flours, equal to the total amount in wheat flour in the mixed flour. For instance, if any mixed flour is purchased containing 60 per cent. wheat flour and 40 per cent. substitutes it is necessary that an additional 20 per cent. of substitutes be purchased. This brings it to the basis of one pound of substitutes for each pound of wheat flour.

A special exemption may be granted upon application in the case of special by-product flours and low-grade flours containing flour where the necessity is shown.
