GERMANY ACCEPTS TERMS OF ARMISTICE

Woodrow Wilson Reads the Terms to Congress—Both Sides Lay Down Arms.

Washington, Nov. 11.—Signing of the armistice with Germany was proclaimed today by President Wilson, who also announced its terms at a joint session of congress.

The terms herald the end of the war because they take from Germany the power to renew it.

Just before he went to the capitol the president in a proclamation addressed to his fellow countrymen said:

"The armistice was signed this morning. Everything for which America fought has been accomplished. It will now be our fortunate duty to assist by example, by sber, friendly counsel and by material aid in the establishment of just democracy throughout the world."

Stripped of its malicious power, the military autocracy, it masters driven to exile, stands before the world's court of justice, having subscribed to terms of surrender which probably will be recorded in history as the most drastic and complete ever measured out to a defeated foe.

TEETIE HUTTO.

In remembrance of little Teetie Hutto daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Hutto, was born Oct. 16, 1913, and died Oct. 19, 1918. Making her stay on earth, 5 years and 3 days. She leaves to mourn her loss father, mother and five brothers and four sisters.

One brother and one sister preceded her to the spirit land. Gone but not forgotten sleep on dear little darling Teetie and take thy rest.

God called you home he thought it best. We miss thy kind and willing hand, thy fond and earnest care. Our home is dark without you, we miss you everywhere.

In the cemetery quietly resting in a lone and silent grave. Lies one we love so dearly. Our dear little darling Teetie, we could not serve.

A loved one from us has gone. A voice we loved is still. A place is vacant in our home which never can be filled.

Dear little Teetie thou has left us, for a bright and happier home above. Where precious ones have met thee, And with a saviors love. You like a flower has passed. Away destroyed in all your bloom. You left this world and all your friends.

To moulder in the tomb. But God alone can comfort us. The heart that mourns thee here. And our only consolation is To try and meet you there. Sleep on dear little darling Teetie Thy peaceful sleep in the bed beneath the sod.

Will forever pray that thy soul may be with God. Always faithful loving and true. No more will her song be heard. Now we miss her gentle footsteps. Miss each kind and gentle word. No more in the lonely household. Will her tender voice will be heard. You have gone from us forever. No longer here you could not stay. You have reached a fair region far away, far away.

Go to thy rest dear little Teetie. Go to thy dreamless bed. While yet so gentle undefied. With blessing on thy head. God in his wisdom has recalled. The boon his love had given. And though the body slumber here. The soul is safe in heaven. The Golden Gates were opened wide. A gentle voice said come. And angels from the other side. Welcome our loved one home. Dear loved one we have laid thee in the peaceful grave embrace. But thy memory shall be cherished. Till we see you heavenly face. Heaven now retains our treasure. Earth the lonely casket keeps. And the sunbeams love to linger. Where our dear little Teetie sleeps. Again we hope to meet you. When the day of it is fled. And in heaven with joy to greet you. Where no farewell tears are shed. Written by her heartbroken sister, Ella.

BOOKS FOR SOLDIERS SUPPLIED BY A. L. A.

English Camp Shows the Good Work of That Organization for Our Boys.

Something like 13,500 pieces of stationery are distributed daily among 4,000 enlisted men by Uriah B. Brubaker of Iola, Kas., as librarian at the Y. M. C. A. writing tent, Woodley Rest Camp of the American Expeditionary Forces in southern England. The number of troops at this camp varies from 3,000 to 9,000.

This single detail indicates why it is necessary for the Y. M. C. A., Y. W. C. A., National Catholic War Council and K. of C., War Camp Community Service, Jewish Welfare Board and Salvation Army have to furnish 125,000,000 sheets a month for soldiers' letters.

Hundreds of books are taken out in this small camp, books furnished by the American Library Association and handled by the Y. M. C. A. Most of the demands are for a good class of fiction. Thirty American newspapers are received there daily. One hundred and fifty magazines are in use daily and 400 pieces of athletic equipment furnished by the "X" are put to good use.

INTERESTING LETTERS FROM OUR SOLDIER BOYS IN FRANCE.

Write to Friends and Loved Ones and Tell of Life On the Front Line and of Things that Happen "Over There."

The following letters have been received from some of our soldier boys in France who have been helping the Allies beat the Germans.

Somewhere in France October 12, 1918.

Miss Gertrude Sharpe: My Dearest Sister:

I will write you a few lines to let you hear from me again, I received your nice letter a few days ago and sure was glad to hear from you. I just wonder how you all are by now, fine I hope I am feeling fine today. I have plenty to eat and plenty to wear and live in a log shack, you know that is nice dont you think so. The weather is nice and cool over here now. Have you been to Lexington any time lately? I see Mr. Willard Wingard every day along now. He sure is looking good, he is cooking also. Are people most through gathering around there? I guess you all have had some frost by this time have you not? How is my horse getting along by now? You ought to drive him some. Well as news is not plentiful I guess I had better close for this time.

Please write soon, With love and best wishes to you all, as ever, You, Brother Leo. F. Sharpe

Somewhere in France, October 12, 1918.

Miss Gerstle Price, Dear cousin:

I will today; try and answer your kind letter I received a few days ago and was more than glad to hear from you all again. This leaves me well and getting along all right and truly hope this will find you all the same. You said Uncle Sam had taken your sweetheart away. I feel real sure Uncle Sam needs him worse over here than you do for he needs more soldiers and better soldiers. Excuse dirty paper. Well things begin to look some better. I think we will soon have peace again. We have the Huns on the run. I think when we get them back in Germany we will have peace again, you bet it cant come too soon to suit the boys. There are plenty of good looking girls over here, but there are more cannons and guns than any thing else. We captured a town the other day and there were some people living there who had been prisoners ever since the war broke out. You bet they sure were glad to see the Yanks come in. They hugged and kissed us and I tell you it made me feel sorry to see how proud they were. They said th Huns told them that the Hindenburg line could not be broken, but the Yanks showed hem better. It is a busy time today, we are having good luck and going on. My address is Henry S. E. Price, Co. G. 118 Infantry American E. T. Via N. Y. Well as news is scarce and havent got much to write I guess I had better close for this time, or you will get tired trying to read such scratching. Probably I have said too much already. I will close asking you to speak a good word to some good looking girl for me. Your Cousin H. S. E. Price.

SOMEWHERE IN FRANCE, Oct. 15, 1918.

Dear Father:

I will take pleasure in writing you a few lines to let you hear from me. This leaves me well as could be expected though I have been wounded and have been admitted into a hospital in England. I am getting along fine and hope to be well soon. I hope you all are well and enjoying life fine. I received your letter a few weeks ago and have not had time to answer until now. You may send my mail to the same address. I have not heard from Emma nor Josie since I came over. Tell them to write and let me know what is happening around Red Bank. Where is Bub Alewine is he still there? If he is, tell him I said to write me. I guess grand mother and all are well. I never heard from them at all. Well as news is scarce I will close. Give my best wishes to all. As ever, Your Son, Corp. Nathan W. Shirey.

THE WISE GOES OVERSEAS TO DO HIS BIT IN THE COOK HOUSE. Oct. 4, 1918.

Mr. Sam:

I will go Overseas the 6th. I may go before then, but I want you to put it in the paper for me. I am going to fight for my country and for my democracy. Tell Mr. Rufus to make it snappy for me. I will be back soon, so I can make another chicken stew. Send me a paper when I get in France, so I stop. Elmerby Wise.
