

Here's Where The Women Will Find The Christmas Gifts Men Want

THIS may be a little early for Christmas wishes but not for Christmas buying. And it's in buying and giving such gifts for men as are to be found here that you women are going to find the happiest part of your Christmas. That's the reason we want to help you to buy. This is a men's store, but that means service for you women just as well---in fact, unusually good service right now in buying gifts for men---the things they want and in the quality you want for them.

MAKE EVERY DAY A RED CROSS DAY.

TO OUR SUBSCRIBERS.

To those who have not paid up in advance. It is just as easy once you get ahead to stay ahead, besides it is not a hardship on either the publisher or subscriber; but makes both feel better. We have just completed the round with the County Treasurer and feel grateful to those who have paid up and in advance and certainly expect all to do so, as we cannot carry subscribers unless they comply with government restrictions requiring all to pay up in advance or be dropped from the roll.

A GOOD LUMBER BUSINESS.

One day last week it was the privilege and pleasure of the writer to pass through and inspect the Lumber Yard of Fallaw Lumber Co. 716 Divine Street Columbia S. C. They carry all kinds of lumber, ruff and dressed, of every conceivable dimension---and are prepared to fill all orders correctly and promptly. Their business extends not only in the city but anywhere in this and other States. Mr. E. A. Fallaw, the business manager, is a native Lexington man experienced and clever to a fault. He buys and sells ruff and dressed lumber by the wagon or car load, in any quantity, small or large. He has with him as clerk and book-keeper, Mr. Thos. W. Sharpe, one of the bright and clever sons of the late W. H. Sharpe of Edmund.
