

VETERAN FOREMAN SAW FLEET CHANGES

Bennett for Years Had Big Part in Building Battleships.

STILL IS CONSERVATIVE

Tells of Great Good Tanlac
Did Him and Says "I Only Took Two Bottles."

For twelve years William F. Bennett was foreman at the Brooklyn Navy yard, Uncle Sam's hive of industry for the country's defense, where thousands of skilled workmen toil at the nation's vital work. It was from the ways of this great yard that some of our greatest dread naughts were launched. Mr. Bennett had a part in this work and there he saw the evolution of the American navy worked out. Today Mr. Bennett aged 68, is retired, living at 608 Gates Avenue, Brooklyn. He is still the conservative, carefully speaking man of the navy yard days, and so the story he recently told will have added force.

"For a long time," Mr. Bennett explained, "I kept having a pain in my chest, and a full heavy, bloated feeling in my stomach and abdomen. It felt as if I had eaten something that disagreed with me, but I couldn't tell what. My food did not digest, but seemed to sour and lie like a lump. I got so I couldn't eat vegetables at all. I lived on eggs and milk, and lots of times I didn't have an appetite even for that diet.

Besides, I had night sweats and I could not really rest more than an hour or two at night, and then only when I was all tired out. I had to be so tired I just dropped off to sleep. I took lots of medicine and was treated many times, but I just kept on feeling bad. But now," Mr. Bennett continued, "I feel better in every way. I can sleep all night long. I have a good appetite and can eat anything with pleasure because my stomach is easy and does not distress me, but digests my food. I feel so good I make it a rule to walk twenty to thirty blocks each day.

"What did this for me? Why, Tanlac. So many people told me about Tanlac that, though I really did not believe all of it, because I didn't think any medicine could be as good as that, I decided to try it. And I only took two bottles," he added.

Tanlac, the reconstructive, system purifier and tonic, is designed to go to the root of such troubles as Mr. Bennett had. It is designed to create real digestion and assimilation of food that is good and nourishing and so build strength through blood and tissues.

Tanlac, the master medicine, is sold exclusively at Harmon Drug Co., Lexington; Burnette and Whetsell, New Brookland; Harris-Cain Drug Co., Batesburg; Crosson Drug Co., Leesville; Fargle's Drug Store, Chapin; Dr. W. T. Brooker, Swansea; Pellon Drug Co., Pelion; W. J. Cayce, Cayce; A. E. Leaphart, Gilbert; The Lorick Co., Irmo; W. H. Suber, Peak. Price, $1.00 per bottle, straight.

Why Suffer?

Mrs. J. A. Cox, of Alderson, W. Va., writes: "My daughter... suffered terribly. She could not turn in bed... the doctors gave her up, and we brought her home to die. She had suffered so much at... time. Having heard of Cardui, we got it for her."

CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

"In a few days, she began to improve," Mrs. Cox continues, "and had no trouble at... Cardui cured her, and we sing its praises everywhere. We receive many thousands of similar letters every year, telling of the good Cardui has done for women who suffer from complaints so common to their sex. It should do you good, too. Try Cardui. E-77"
