> The State Legislature reconvened vesterday, after a recess from Friday night. Monday of this week being the first Monday of the month, a recess during that time acording to the custom of some years was had.

Last week Representative Wingard of this county, attended the funeral of Senator Nicholson of Edgefield county, having been appointed by Speaker Cothran as one of the funeral escort from the House of Representatives.

The body has been in session now not quite three weeks, and both houses are getting down to the fusiness of the session. The machinery of both houses has been gotten into work ing shape, and the committees are now ahead with the work sufficiently to permit the consideration of vital matters upon the floors.

The House last week passed compulsory education bill, and the measure has now gone to the Ser for action, It provides that nor children between the ages of eight fourteeen shall attend school for ty days at east of each session. I resentative Dreher of this County a member of the Committee on cation which favorably reported this
