

NEBRASKA JUDGE Endorses Tanlac

Praises Remedy Because of Great Benefit It Gave Him

Would Help Others

Says He Soon Gained Twenty Lbs.
in Weight by Taking Great Remedy.

One of the latest additions to the long list of prominent men who have endorsed Tanlac is the name of Judge B. F. Whittington, judge of the Rolston court, of South Omaha, Neb. In relating his experiences with the medicine Judge Whittington said:

"The results I have obtained from Tanlac seem wonderful to me. Before I began taking Tanlac my health was broken down in many ways. My liver was all out of fix. I was habitually constipated and bilious. I was so frightfully dizzy most of the time that I would not stoop over for fear of falling, and my kidneys were out of order. I had fearful pains in the small of my back. I could eat, but my food did me no good. Sleep failed to rest me and I felt tired and worn out all the time. I had been in this condition for a year and was becoming badly worried, as nothing seemed to help me.

"I had fallen off twenty pounds in weight as a result of my trouble, but I have gained it all back by using Tanlac, and I have never felt better in my life. I felt like a new man before I had finished the first bottle. I have taken five bottles and I do not have an ache nor a pain now and I am feeling great. I eat like a farm hand, sleep like a log and get up in the morning feeling fine. I gladly give this statement for what it may be worth to others who are trying to find relief.

Tanlac, the master medicine, is sold exclusively at Harmon Drug Co., Lexington; Burnette and Whetsell, New Brookland; Harris-Cain Drug Co., Batesburg; Crosson Drug Co., Leesville; Eagle's Drug Store, Chapin; Dr. W. T. Brooker, Swansboro; Felton Drug Co., Felton; W. J. Cayce, Cayce; A. E. Leaphart, Gilbert; The Lorick Co., Irmo; W. H. Suber, Peak. Price, $1.00 per bottle, straight.

SWEET CHOCOLATE CARRIED UNDER FIRE

Chocolate Furnished by Y. M. C. A.
Arrives Just When It
Is Needed

With the American Armies in France, Jan. ... Praising the men of Company D, 108th Machine Gun Battalion, 28th Division, Howard R. Keister, a Y. M. C. A. man of Dunnellon, Fla., tells how, when without food, they sent the sweet chocolate which he secured for them to an isolated platoon, which was under severe fire, across the Vesle river at Fismes.

It was during the heavy fighting eastward from Chateau Thierry, that the men of the 108th Machine Gun Battalion got ahead of their supplies, and the sweet chocolate which the Y. M. C. A. managed to get to them, was specially welcome.

The battalion reached the Vesle river on its advance. There the German line held. Men were thrown across the river by various units to keep in contact with the enemy. There was terrific fighting all along the line. A platoon of Company D was hurried over to help in holding the narrow strip that had been taken at great cost by the American soldiers. It was surrounded on three sides by the Boche, who tried every means in his power to dislodge them—gas, shells, machine gun fire and snipers. It was a difficult matter to get food over to them for men with supplies had to cross the river which was exposed and under heavy fire.

FIGHTING PARSON GETS WAR CROSS

John Clifford Wearing Y. M. C. A.
Uniform, Proves Himself
Real Hero

New York, Jan. ... There have been many war heroes, but there is certainly no more conspicuously heroic figure than John H. Clifford, Baptist minister in time of peace, but real fighter in time of war, who has been awarded the Croix de Guerre for extraordinary heroism in action.

John Clifford, as a Y. M. C. A. worker, braved the red wrath of war. He has been in the firing zone as much as the bravest infantryman and was decorated for a most unusual exploit. He was one of three men who braved incessant enemy shell fire while rescuing Col. Albert W. Catlin, commanding officer of the Sixth regiment of Marines. The trio carried the colonel to safety on a stretcher.

Forty Five Years of Success in Curing
of
PERUNA

Not a cure-all, but a rational remedy for catarrh and all inflammation and congestion of the mucous membranes.

Catarrh attacks the mucous linings, in any organ, in any part of the body. It is not, as some imagine, confined to the nose and throat, although nasal catarrh is the most common form and afflicts many people.

Unchecked catarrh soon breaks down the tissue and destroys the organs or part. Evidence of the ravages of catarrh are all around us. Without desire to frighten anyone, we say: "Guard yourself against catarrh as you would against the direst plague. Fortify your system. Take Peruna."

INSPIRING WORDS FOR THE SICK FROM THOSE WHO KNOW.

A Good Medicine in the Family.

I had a bad case of LaGrippe and could get no relief. Peruna cured me. It is a fine medicine. We often use it in the family and find it good.

FEELS LIKE A DIFFERENT PERSON.

Peruna has cured my stomach and I feel like a different person. I only took twelve bottles of Peruna and can eat anything without distress, something I have not done for fifteen years.

I recommend Peruna to everybody suffering with catarrh of the stomach.
