TAKE YOUR FRONT SEAT IN HEAVEN BOYS.

For sitting here and thinking,
Of things I left behind,
And writing down the things,
That are running through my mind

We've dug five miles of trenches,
And cleared five miles of ground
And if there's a meaner place this side of hell,
It sure is still unfound.

But there is still one consolation,
Gather closely while I tell
When we die we are bound for heaven

For we've done our hitch in hell.
We've built a hundred kitchens,
For the cooks to stew beans,
We've stood a thousand guard mounts,
And cleaned the camps latrines

We've washed a million dishes,
And peeled a million spuds
We've rolled a million blankets,
And washed as many duds.

The number of parades we've stood
Would be most hard to tell,
But we'll not parade in heaven boys
For we've done our hitch in hell.

We've killed a thousand Germans,
That tried to steal our cots,
And shooed a million centipedes,
Out of our army socks.

We've marched a hundred thousand miles,
And made ten thousand camps,
And we've pulled a million cactus thorns,
Out of our army pants.

But when our mission's ended,
Our friends will gently tell
When they died they went to
heaven,
For they had their hitch in hell.

When final taps are sounded,
We'll parade the golden States,
Then we'll hear St. Peter tell us,
Loudly with a yell,
Take your front seat in heaven boys
For you've had your hitch in hell.

FOUR HOGS KILLED BY NITRATE OF SODA

J. W. White carried a barrel of soda Monday morning in his truck to his farm down on the south fork of Scotts Creek. When he started he threw a couple of old crocus sacks on the truck that had had nitrate of soda in them. Evidently some of the nitrate got into the slops, for after drinking the slops the six hogs he came sick, and before night four of them died—Newberry Observer.

WALTER'S GLASSES Grace The Face.

The Gentle Art of Selling
Dynamite to Children

There is hardly a surgical operation on a chronic malady that calls for more careful diagnosis than certain forms of the eye trouble that find relief in glasses. In spite of this fact, many persons with serious cases of this nature, place their confidence in the skill of the combination man. A reason for this is hard to find, when the service of a Specialist, whose entire practice consists of the correction of eye troubles, can be secured at the same price that is paid incompetent people. Walter's scientifically fitted glasses give you clear sight and grace the face.
