

WISELY FEATHERED NESTS

SOLVING WAR PROBLEMS TAUGHT PEOPLE THRIFT

Country Urged to Keep Benefits Gained Through Lesson of Saving Learned Last Year.

Fellowship in the fastest growing society in the United States is open to everybody. In every state in the union it is gaining members daily, since it is a society in which the good of the country is served as well as that of the individual.

From all walks of life its millions of ever increasing members come. No one can be a member and keep the pledge he takes without receiving lasting benefits and aiding the United States of America to maintain the proud place it has already attained—the peer of any nation that has ever existed.

When the treasury department of the United States began the attempt to solve the financial problems that beset the country as it was entering the war, the United States was a debtor nation. Only on understanding that it is the greatest creditor nation in the world today can one realize what an achievement has been won. Without a direct tax on the people money has been raised to pay for the successful termination of the war, and this cost more than $20,000,000,000. Beside this enormous amount of money there is now more money in the banks than before.

This, of course, was done through the Liberty Loans, principally. But these loans have ceased, and those at the head of the nation's finances are seeking to clinch the lesson already learned, and are urging the permanent establishment of War Savings Societies.

The Treasury Department is doing a service for the small investor in accepting so small an amount as twenty-five cents and giving the same security that the holder of a $10,000 Liberty Bond enjoys—the entire resources of the United States of America. Could anything be more safe?

CAN CHOP OVERHEAD

We joined with glee to celebrate the birthday anniversary of Washington, who, when a boy, chopped down his father's cherry tree, and later, though but still a youth, surveyed the trackless forest waste, and always practiced simple truth in every project he embraced. Then when the Revolution broke out George stepped bravely to the fore and threw aside our foreign yoke, and saw us safely through the war. No adjectival flourish here could tell in full his epic life, but this we know and hold it dear, he won our nation's primal strife; he fought, he built, he sagely taught, he loved this land of liberty, and what his sacrifice then bought is handed on to you and me. To him we owe unyielding debt, to keep our nation's honor bright, and emulate him so that yet we travel holding Freedom's light; we cannot all chop cherry bark, but we can chop the "overhead," and, cutting out some costly lark, buy W. S. S. instead.

A thrifty man is safe from worry. Buy wisely, save intelligently, and invest in Thrift and War Savings Stamps.

Spend wisely, avoid waste, save intelligently, invest in Thrift and War Savings Stamps—and success is already yours.

War Savings Stamps—a loan to Uncle Sam, who returns your money at the end of five years plus four per cent interest, compounded quarterly.

SAID EVERY SOLDIER KEPT TRENCH SHOVEL

Engineer After Viewing Battlefield Makes Interesting Commentary—Could Find Everything But One Trophy He Wanted.

An eminent engineer recently returned to Washington after traversing on government business much of the western front. He went over the battle area before the army salvage corps had removed the signs of conflict.

"I saw pretty nearly everything there," he said. "Lots of rifles, bayonets, machine guns, helmets, soldiers' packs, water bottles, and even handkerchiefs and socks all over the ground."

"I didn't want any of them. Because I'm an engineer, I'd set my heart on a trench shovel. I'd seen thousands of them back of the lines, but I wanted one from the battlefield. I looked and looked, without finding one lying around loose. Wherever there was a shovel, the man who'd used it was lying beside it."

"Then I understood. The soldier, dislodged from a position, might lose his pack, his extra clothing, even his rifle, in his escape, but he never let go his shovel."

"He knew he had to have it, to dig himself in again."

War Savings Stamps are trench shovels for digging in against adversity.

CARRY ON!

Uncle Sam is releasing from his service the men who went "over there" to free the world from autocracy. Thousands of soldiers are daily receiving their honorable discharges; they pocket their pay, bid farewell to their comrades and salve forth—civilians.

There is one army, however, which must not be demobilized. That is the army of War Savings Stamps buyers. More recruits are needed to carry on the campaign of readjustment which follows the signing of the armistice.

The army of fighters has achieved its purpose.

The army of savers must remain in "action."

"Carry on" to a lasting peace under the banner of W. S. S.

WORLD'S GREATEST POWER.

I am the World's Greatest Power.
I am the difference between success and failure.
I am little in size.
I am little in cost.
But—
I am mighty big when the time comes to use me.
I am always ready for use.
I am the best friend in need you can have.
I am always worth all that you pay for me.
And—
I increase in value every month you keep me.
I am the safest investment you can make.
I am for sale everywhere.
I am wisdom, thrift and safety combined.
I am worth money at any time.
Because—
I am issued by the United States Government.
I am cashable upon ten days' notice at any postoffice.
I AM A WAR SAVINGS STAMP.

Weeds and thriftless habits take the same treatment. Thrift Stamps are the tools which will mow down the latter.

SENATOR WILLIAMS
DISCUSSES RACE ISSUE

Mississippi Senator Lays Blame for Trouble on Criminal Blacks.

Washington, Sept. 29.—Race clashes, Senator Williams, Democrat, Mississippi, declared in the senate today, were all due to attempted outrages on white women by negroes. It was too far fetched, he said, in answering Senator Borah, Republican, Idaho, to attempt to connect the league of nations with race riots.

"I will go in the pathways of peace as far as any man, I would be willing to arbitrate almost anything except outrages on a white woman by black or white. I would surrender him as a criminal beyond the pale to the first crowd that came to get him," he said.

"The conduct of the criminal at Omaha deprives me of all inclination and power to say one word against the crowd that captured the criminal and punished the crime. Race is greater than law, now and then, and protection of woman transcends all law, human and divine."

"This miserable beast in Omaha paid a just debt for his crime. When it comes to violating innocent women, it is no time to go to court. But here we have men pleading for law and order while helpless women are being treated by beasts as they please, and yet these same men don't want any international law."

JUST WHAT DID SHE MEAN?

The young primary teacher had been continually annoyed by Bobby's mother ever since he had entered school. Nothing suited her. At first it was the hours, then the arrangement of Bobby's seat, and finally, after a score of complaints about everything imaginable, she began to come to school to criticize the teacher's methods and books used. "Now, these readers are not nearly so interesting as the ones we used to use," she said. "Couldn't you get some of those old books and use them to supplement these?" she asked.

"I don't know whether I could find any," hesitated the little teacher.

"But you will find the stories so much more interesting that you will be paid for your effort in hunting them," insisted the woman. "How I did love those stories! There was one about a little red hen. It—"

"I don't believe that would interest my children now," interrupted the young teacher. "You see, the hen grew up."—Indianapolis News.

THIS GREENWOOD WOMAN GRATEFUL

Declares She Found Tanlac Fine Medicine

GIVES THE DETAILS

Says This Medicine Made Her Feel "Entirely Well and Strong."

Mrs. Ola Anderson, of 116 Smythe St., Greenwood, S. C., declared she "found Tanlac to be a very fine medicine for a generally broken down condition and nervous prostration." In a statement she gave some time ago in endorsement of Tanlac. "I had suffered from a general break down and nervous troubles of a very aggravated nature for some time," continued Mrs. Anderson, "and I was so nervous and irritable I could hardly stand it."

"My appetite had left me and I was very weak. I managed to keep going, though, and I did my housework the best I could under the circumstances, but I never felt like doing anything."

"I finally decided to try Tanlac for this condition and I took two bottles. The Tanlac gave me a good appetite right away and built up my whole system and restored my strength. I felt a great deal better in every way when the second bottle was gone, and I quit taking Tanlac. The medicine relieved my nervousness, and when I took the last dose I felt entirely different and strong and was again able to do my housework well. I am glad to praise Tanlac, for I found it to be such a fine medicine."
