THE RIDGELL PLAN.

We believe that Senator Ridgell has evolved a thoroughly good plan for the improvement of the roads of Lexington County.

We believe, however, that the measure should be so framed as to take into account the possible action of the next legislature providing for a unified plan of state control for the main highways.

The adoption of the State as the unit for building and maintenance need in no wise interfere with Senator Ridgell's plan.

One especially commendable feature of Senator Ridgell's plan is that provision has been made for keeping up the roads after they have been built.

The biggest difficulty we foresee will be the selection of practical road builders for the various townships or other units proposed.

Whether or not Senator Ridgell's plan is adopted by the delegation, the people are expecting something in the way of improvement.

The board of county commissioners were in session practically all day Monday, attending to routine matters, principally approving claims against the county, which amounted to several thousand dollars.

Notice is hereby given that on Thursday, the 27th day of November, 1919, I will apply to George S. Drafts, judge of Probate for Lexington County, for final discharge as administrator of the estate of James Pickett.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS APPROVE MANY CLAIMS

The board of county commissioners were in session practically all day Monday, attending to routine matters, principally approving claims against the county, which amounted to several thousand dollars.

FINAL DISCHARGE

Notice is hereby given that on Thursday, the 27th day of November, 1919, I will apply to George S. Drafts, judge of Probate for Lexington County, for final discharge as administrator of the estate of James Pickett.

SPECIAL ATTENTION SUBSCRIBERS

This is to notify all of the old subscribers due the Lexington Dispatch, before the consolidation at which time there were numbers of balances due G. M. Harman individually, that he will accompany the County Treasurer on his rounds in the county as usual, and will specially expect all those due said balances to meet me promptly, and settle.

Accounts due the paper since the consolidation should be paid at the office or to Mr. Sligh or Mr. Walker, one of whom will accompany the treasurer on his rounds.

orable comment. It was a matter of regret that the exhibit of Charter Oak was not also beside that of Oak Grove. It is hoped that these community exhibits will soon become a striking feature of the state fair.

Hon. D. Frank Efrid, the hard-working and efficient secretary of the fair, deserves much credit for the splendid manner in which the large crowds were handled. He was ably assisted by several well known citizens of Lexington.

PAY YOUR TAXES.

The statement by the county treasurer that the schools of the county are in need of funds should work as a stimulus to the people to meet their tax obligations promptly. With the awakened interest in education we do not believe that the people will allow the schools to lag for lack of financial support.

DON'T FORGET THE NEWSPAPER.

Following the usual custom, The Dispatch-News will have a representative accompany the treasurer and auditor on their rounds for the collection of taxes who will be glad to receive any accounts due by subscribers and will enroll any new subscribers. With cotton selling at around 38 cents everybody ought to be glad to remember the newspaper man, who, though much of the expense of publishing has materially increased, still sends out the paper at the old price.

THE PIG CLUBS.

The showing made by the Lexington county pig clubs at the state fair last week was very gratifying indeed. It is the earnest of further good work and speaks well, not only for the enthusiasm which Mr. Shealy, the county farm demonstration agent, has put in the work, but as well for the fine spirit of the boys and girls who have responded to his invitation to take part in this good work.

OFFICERS OF COUNTY FAIR READY TO PAY PREMIUMS.

Messrs. W. D. Dent, treasurer, and S. J. Leaphart, secretary, of the Lexington County Fair Association, are now ready to pay all awards of premiums at the recent county fair.

At a meeting of the fair association held on Thursday, November 23, the following were named as members of the executive committee for 1920: J. C. Fulmer, E. D. Clarke, J. Ben Shealy, A. M. Wingard, S. L. Hendrix, C. M. Efrid, P. H. Cook, S. L. Rawl, D. J. Caughman, T. P. Meetze, H. R. Dreher, W. A. Wessinger, E. L. Wingard.

The executive committee will meet some time in January to name officers for the association for 1920.

ONE VIOLATION SO FAR OF SCHOOL ATTENDANCE LAW.

Splendid Showing Being Made by Lexington County in Enforcement. The eighty days regular attendance went into effect on last Monday for all schools in operation on that date. Under the law teachers are required to report absences which are not due to providential causes at once, to the attendance officer. Up to Tuesday evening only one case had been reported. This report came from a district which had previously made an unfavorable showing on attendance but all others have complied with the law except the case mentioned above.

FOR LADIES ONLY

During the past two weeks our New York buyer purchased at auction six hundred high grade sample garments, consisting of coats, suits, coats and dresses. In this lot there is some of the finest garments made in the United States. This immense purchase is arriving daily by express and parcel post, and they will melt before the great army of buyers as the "Easter lily" would before a cyclone.

666 has proven it will cure Malaria, Chills and Fever, Bilious Fever, Colds and LaGrippe. It kills the parasite that causes the fever. It is a splendid laxative and general Tonic.—Adv.
