WEDNESDAY Jan. 16th, 1901.

SALUTATORY.

With this issue THE ADVOCATE greets its readers under a new management in the town of its birth. We shall endeavor with all the power that we can command to merit the support of our people.

Greeting.

The greeting is to the Advocate upon its coming to Batesburg. We are glad to have it issued from our town. We believe it will find original and profitable association here.

THE RE-APPOINTMENT PLAN.

The re-appointment bill has passed both houses of the National Legislature and now lies in the hands of the President for his signature.

THE CHILD LABOR BILL.

The Child Labor Bill now pending in both branches of the General Assembly is worthy of serious consideration. It involves personal rights on the one hand, and the preservation of the health and physical development of the child on the other.

to the such families for the time of probation. To do otherwise would be unparsonable hardship and cruelty.

National Legislation.

In national legislation the republic party will be held responsible for what may be accomplished, whether it be for the general welfare of the whole people or in the interest of the favored few.

Greeting.

The greeting is to the Advocate upon its coming to Batesburg. We are glad to have it issued from our town. We believe it will find original and profitable association here.

Contes.

Something entirely new is being done in the town of its birth. We believe it will find original and profitable association here.

Beat Out of an Increase of His Pension.

A Mexican veteran and prominent citizen writes: "Seeing the advertisement of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, I am glad to say that I have been cured of my cough."

Educational Advantages.

While the educational interest of our town might be said to equal that of the average southern town of its size, yet it is far from what it ought to be.
