

Look out for a flunk in the Cotton Market.

Miss Anna Thomas is visiting relatives in Ridge Spring this week.

Mr. Gregg Riley has been confined to his room with a severe cold.

The Batesburg Institute is in a flourishing condition.

Mr. L. V. Cayton of the Phillips station was here on Tuesday on business.

Mr. H. C. Herlong of the Mr. Wilcox section was in town Monday and gave us a pleasant call.

Dr. W. L. Kneese of Baxter, was in town this morning attending his brother J. Frank Kneese.

Mrs. Norris and Mrs. Tillman of Edgelde have been visiting relatives in town, left for home Tuesday.

Quattlebaums Livery has been moved to Edwards' stables on account of need for larger quarters.

The Gypsies have had full sway with the horse jockeys. We believe such characters should be made to pay a license.

Senator Coughman was in town Monday returning to Columbia. The Senate having adjourned until Monday evening.

We think some of our young people have come to the conclusion that it was never intended for man to live alone.

We are glad to see the improvements being made on our streets. Our mayor is always wide-awake and working for the interest of the town.

Batesburg is becoming a centre for drummers. Not only do they pour in from other towns, but our boys are as gallant knights of the grip, as ever hand-dust spirits.

Large line of fine China Ware to go at cost. Fresh supply of 1900 Garden Seed just received.

Hartley & Quattlebaum.

It troubled with a weak digestion, belching, sour stomach, or if you feel dull after eating, try Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. Price, 25 cents. Samples free at Gunter's drug store.

Our efficient and amiable Postmaster Mr. J. Frank Kneese, has been confined to his room with a severe case of LaGrippe. We are glad to see him out on our streets again.

Mr. J. J. Etheridge, formerly of our town, now a resident of Columbia was on our streets Monday shaking hands with friends and working the interest of the New York Life.

Dr. G. L. Trotter called in to see us Monday. We welcomed the Doctor in our midst as a fellow townsman. The Etheridge people regretted very much to see him leave.

Such little pills as DeWitt's Little Early Risers are very easy to take, and they are wonderfully effective in cleansing the liver and bowels. Gunter's drug store.

Mr. J. M. Holstien, a prominent lumber man of the "famous" Ridge section, called in to see us Monday and asked us to continue to send him the Advocate.

Miss Bessie Plunkett of Graniteville left for home Saturday afternoon. She tended visit to relatives here. Miss Bessie is "one of our own" girls and will always find a hearty welcome awaiting her.

Mr. J. D. Brown of the Piney woods section called to see the Advocate on Tuesday. Mr. Brown is a substantial and progressive farmer. Such men as he constitute the backbone of our country.

Quattlebaums new Livery has moved from the old stand to Edwards' stable, where they are prepared to do all kind livery work.

Good Queen Victoria has passed away. Her life was long and eventful. She died Tuesday afternoon at 6:30. The civilized world will mourn her death. The new king will assume the title of Edward VII.

The merited reputation for curing piles, sores and skin diseases acquired by DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, has led to the making of worthless counterfeits. Be sure to get only DeWitt's Salve. F. B. Gunter, druggist.

Hartley & Quattlebaum have recently purchased a fine Soda Fountain. They intend to run the cold drink business in an up-to-date manner. Call and see the Photograph of their new fountain.

We are glad to see the newly elected President of the Bank, Dr. Timmerman in town. We congratulate the Directors on being so fortunate in securing his services. He being a man with considerable experience in the banking business.

Quality and not quantity makes DeWitt's Little Early Risers such valuable little liver pills. B. F. Gunter.

Cut this out and take it to Gunter's drug store and get a free sample of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, the best physic. They also cure disorders of the stomach, biliousness and headache.

We desire to return sincere thanks to our friend Rev. N. N. Burton for his kind words to the Advocate. We appreciate the endorsement of such men as he, for more than we can express and shall endeavor to be strong in the right as he so kindly advises.

Miss Thomas of the New York Racket Store left for her home Baltimore last week. Miss Thomas has made many friends during her sojourn here and all would be glad to get her at the Racket opening this spring.

When threatened by pneumonia or any other lung trouble, prompt relief is necessary, as it is dangerous to delay. We would suggest that One Minute Cough Cure be taken as soon as indications of having taken cold are noticed. It cures quickly and its early use prevents consumption. F. B. Gunter, druggist.

Fresh Groceries always on hand at B. F. Forrester & Co.

Mrs. L. D. Landrum has been on a visit to her sister Mrs. Timmerman in Columbia.

We are pained to learned that Mr. W. L. Rawl's little daughter Ellen is seriously sick with 'Grippe'.

Call on R. L. Hartley, Refracting Optician.

We want to hear about building the canal without the consent of other nations. We have never heard of such a thing going to the other nations without the consent of other nations, and we would wish the former to follow.

The most soothing, heating and antiseptic application ever devised is DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. It relieves at once and cures piles, sores, eczema and skin diseases. Beware of imitations. B. F. Gunter, druggist.

Mr. D. R. Hartwagner, came in to see us last week and acted the "good Samaritan" in the Advocate office. We are under many obligations to Mr. Huff. All of his kind are welcome to our office.

A Young Man who rooms all by himself; said Sunday, while sick that he was going to change his way of living, and judging from the way he looks it seems that he is going to take unto himself a lovely "Little Bride". We wish him much success in his courtship.

A few mornings ago while coming in town we met uncle Elias Gunter walking, going to his farm. This old gentleman has seen many years come and go and while misfortune has come upon him in his old age, he has by no means despaired, with resolute mind, he will rebuild the home, the fire has destroyed and go on until his summons shall come. May many years be granted this aged patriarch.

Pain preparations often fail to relieve indigestion because they can digest only albuminous foods. There is one preparation that digests all classes of food, and that is Kiod's Digestive. It cures the worst cases of indigestion and gives instant relief. It digests what you eat. F. B. Gunter, druggist.

Mr. and Mrs. E. I. Rawl left for their new home, near Sevier on Monday. These young people have a host of friends here. We regret that Ed's business necessitated his leaving. We shall always be glad to see the light of their countenance. The Advocate will pay a weekly visit to their homes. We wish for their much happiness and prosperity.

This season there is a large death rate among children from croup and lung troubles. Prompt action will save the little ones from these terrible diseases. We know of nothing so certain to give instant relief as One Minute Cough Cure. It can also be relied upon in grippe and all throat and lung troubles of adults. Pleasant to take. F. B. Gunter, druggist.

The Farmers are busy turning the soil for another crop, and judging from the present outlook and the amount of fertilizer being bailed from our town. The first year of the new century will be a prosperous one. So let us hope.

You Know What You are Taking.

In company with Mr. E. S. Rawl, we paid the town of Leesville, a living visit last Saturday afternoon. The people of Leesville, are by no means asleep. On every hand can be seen evidence of thrift and energy. They are heartily doing their best, and have made a firm resolve to make their industries a trade centre. The merchants seem to be busy and full of hope. Several residences are going up. Leesville College is enjoying a large patronage, not only from this immediate section, but the different counties of the State, are well represented in the student body. We heard it estimated, that a new enterprise is soon to be launched which will open much for the town and section generally.

DEATH OF MRS. GANTT.

The many friends of Mrs. L. V. Gantt, were shocked to hear of her death last Thursday. She had been sick for some time; apparently, she seemed to be improving. This being her old home her remains were brought here for interment. The family, have been living in Swainsboro, for the past five years. Mrs. Gantt, had several Brothers and Sisters living here, besides a host of friends who mourn her loss. An estimable Christian lady, who endeared herself to those she came in contact with. She was an efficient member of the Baptist Church. The funeral service was conducted by Dr. A. C. Wilkins, to the bereaved family, we extend our sympathies.

Old People Made Young.
J. C. Sherman, the veteran editor of the Vermont (Mich.) Echo, has discovered the remarkable secret of keeping old people young. For years he has avoided Nervousness, Sleeplessness, Indigestion, Heart trouble, Constipation and Rheumatism, by using Electric Bitters, and he writes: "It can't be praised too highly. It gently stimulates the kidneys, tones the stomach, aids digestion, and gives a splendid appetite. It has worked wonders for my wife and me. It's a marvellous remedy for old people's complaints." Only 50c. at Gunter's drug store.

Shot at His Home.

A white man by the name of Mr. Jas. Goodwin about three and a half miles miles from here was alarmed by the howling of his dog, and ran out to ascertain the cause. He saw a negro standing in the yard and upon asking him his name. The negro immediately drew a pistol and fired, the ball taking effect and going through the left arm. Dr. Trotter was immediately summoned and dressed Mr. Goodwin's wound, and last report he was getting along nicely.

A Prominent Chicago Woman Speaks.

Prof. Roxa Tyler, of Chicago, Vice-President Illinois Woman's Alliance, in speaking of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, says: "I suffered with a severe cold this winter which threatened to run into pneumonia. I tried different remedies but I seemed to grow worse and the doctors upset my stomach. A friend advised me to try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and I found it was pleasant to take and recovered, saved a doctor's bill and suffering, and I will never be without this splendid medicine again." For sale by F. B. Gunter.
