

JERSEY JUSTICE.

Three Men Convicted of Murder Get Thirty Years. Another Fifteen Years. The Old-Father of One of the Men Lay Dying as His Son Was Being Sentenced.

Walter C. McAllister, Wm. A. Death and Andrew J. Campbell, who were guilty of murder in the second degree for the killing of Jennie Rosenthal, on Oct. 18, 1895, by the administrator of the law and subsequent rape, together with George J. Kerr, who pleaded guilty to a charge of rape and was brought into the court of oyer and terminer at Patterson, N. J., on Tuesday for sentence by Judge Dixon.

The court house was crowded. In the court room were the father, step-mother and sister of Jennie Rosenthal, the men on the full terms of imprisonment which the law provides, but in the case of Kerr a fine of $1,000 might have been added.

SALOON SMASHED BY WOVEN.

Member of the W.C.T.U. Follow Mrs. Nations's Example. A dispatch from Anthony, Kan., says Mrs. Carrie Nation was outdoors there Wednesday when a band of W.C.T.U. women, headed by Mrs. Sheriff of Danville, Kan., completely wrecked the fixtures in four 'joints,' smashing plate glass windows and mirrors right and left, and turned gallons of liquor into the gutters.

The women were accompanied by their husbands and sons or brothers, who assured protection. No arrests were made and the band will, it is said, start out tomorrow on a tour of destruction through Harper county, which is prolific of saloons.

PASSED THE HOUSE.

Exposition Bill Agreed to by a Large Majority. THE VOTE WAS FOUR TO ONE. And Amendments Attempting to Cut Down the Proposed Appropriation Were Voted Down.

The bill which passed the Senate last week to appropriate $50,000 for a State building at the Charleston exposition passed the House on Tuesday of last week by a vote of 92 to 23. This is the same proportion in which it passed the Senate 4 to 1.

When the exposition bill came up Mr. Baoot offered the senate bill as a substitute for the house bill. This was agreed to, as the wording of the two almost identical and time could be saved by adopting the senate bill, which had already passed the senate.

Mr. Halle of York offered an amendment to the proposed appropriation of $50,000 to $35,000. The building itself will cost $27,000. This bill is to bear the name and to be the property of the State.

Mr. Baoot said the ways and means committee had unanimously passed upon $50,000 as being necessary. The building itself will cost $27,000. This bill is to bear the name and to be the property of the State.

THE YELLER DOG.

The Columbia Record says great fear of the 'yeller' dog and he has prevailed. But the victory will not forever rest with the dog. The newspapers are a unit in urging passage of a law which will make profitable sheep raising possible in this state.

A VERY MEAN MAN.

We are in hearty sympathy with the movement to break the will of a New York millionaire who compelled his wife to wear the same hat nine years and who advised the prohibition of show windows of department stores on the ground that their displays tempted women to extravagance.
