WEDNESDAY Feb. 20th, 1901.

THE TENTH BIRTHDAY OF THE STATE.

It is a pleasure to chronicle the event that heads this sketch. Ten years ago the State first came before the critical eye of modern journalism.

Its usefulness has been, and continues to be, far reaching. Ever ready to commend the right and condemn the wrong, though its judgment fell upon those in high places still it has no peer and few equals in journalism.

A Valentine Party.

A long to be remembered occasion will be the Valentine party of 1901, when there assembled in the handsome parlors of the Cullum House.

Well I guess the house adjourned last Saturday night. The laws are made, the taxes are raised, look farmers and others, we will have it to pay, Unos.

Mine Creek.

Did you ever, I saw the moon toter morning and the locked very strange. I believe they have had a mity fresh on the ocean, so much rain. If not where did all that water go to.

There is nothing like it. Everybody wants the Sheriff's office, how or who will get it. Excuse me gents, I shall not run this time. I leave it to the kiddie muled-men to decide. How is friend J. P. Twinn. I heard that W. B. Forrest had a sick cow and as Pick is a good horse doctor, will sent for J. P. D. he went and while in the lot the cow saw that Pick was a stranger and in the wrong place. She looked at him kinder cross eyed raised her britches shook her head and made for the fence got to it just in time for the cow to Mt him over the fence flat of his back Pick got up and had some mighty wicked thoughts and told that cow what he would do for her if he was in that lot, Willieast Pick if he thought she would die. Pick said, die! you can't kill her, well she died, friend Tom has trimmed around his grave which has a'ded to the looks a few. Quite cool at this setting and it will soon be time to see Irish tables.

Bethlehem Brothers.

We are having some fine weather now. The farmers are rushing to their farms, they have gotten behind on account of so much rainy weather, but we hope for the weather to continue good for awhile.

Mr. F. C. Aldridge, has built him a new buggy house, I guess he will buy him a new buggy, his old buggy won't look well in a new house. Watch him and see, he has traded for a new horse and he now is going to have every thing new.

Our Lexington Letter.

Court convened Monday morning, with a large attendance. On last Thursday night, the young folks of the town, were invited to a Valentine party, at the hospitable home of Mr. & Mrs. W. P. Roof.

Miss Louise Harmon, one of Lexington's fair daughters, who has been visiting friends in Batesburg, returned to this place on Sunday.

Two of Baxter's young men were in our section last Sunday. We are at ways glad to see the Baxter people, especially the girls.

Saluda Valley.

It seems that spring is here giving new life and quite a busy air to everything for the last few days.

The health of our community has greatly improved, and as our young Doctor has nothing to do, he is contemplating matrimony.

We have lately opened up a public road leading from Mr. B. W. Brooks by way of the famous Culbreth Gold mine, intersecting the other main road at or near Crouch's store. This road gives us a direct route to Saluda.

Mr. Lee Crouch, one of Denny's fine young men, is quite a frequent visitor in our midst, and dame rumor says that we will soon carry away one of our fair maidens.

Mr. George Langford, the well known cow trader, thinks of opening up a bank soon in our midst to keep people from having to go so far to get their money.

Mrs. Carrie Paysinger from Saluda, is spending a few days with her niece, Mrs. Effie Etheridge.

The gallant swains and loving lassies of the Valley spent last Thursday evening, (St. Valentine's night) quite delightful in the cozy parlor of the Misses Kamage.

Mr. J. B. Padgett is repairing his house, this looks little suspicious.

Mr. M. L. Riley is on the right road now, if he will only learn a few more words.

Mr. J. B. Matthews spent last Wednesday night with Mr. H. C. Bodie, always glad to have Mr. Matthews come around.

Mr. J. N. DeLoach, wishes to know where he can purchase some Tulip sals. Not at the drug store Jimmie, perhaps you can find it elsewhere.

Prof. H. E. Unger has quite a flourishing school at this place. Eugene is a good teacher.

We are well pleased with our new President, and of course he is tall enough.

Well I guess the house adjourned last Saturday night. The laws are made, the taxes are raised, look farmers and others, we will have it to pay, Unos.

Etheredge Cleanings and Good Roads.

The weather has been flake, but now it is fine. Roads were bad, but have improved.

No sickness and no special news. Our community seems to be unable to get up a marriage. When anything like that takes place we shall let the public know.

Would it not be a good time now to tell what I've been thinking about for a long time? It's about public roads. I do honestly wonder why there are so many water breaks in the roads. I like terraces, but the place for them is in yards and fields, not in the roads.

The 2d inst. was the 46th birthday of Mr. B. L. Coughman. Quite a number of her friends as the invitations were sent out for a hon party only gathered to spend the day and enjoy the many luxuries of that splendid home.

Mr. John Bell Towill, who so efficiently wields the pen for The Advocate, was in our midst on Friday last. We were always glad to see you John, come again.

The next Board of County Commissioners, and their first meeting on last Tuesday, and organized as follows: B. W. Crouch, Attorney; W. A. Edwards, Jr., Clerk; Dr. Jacob L. Trotter, County Physician.

Mr. J. H. Baggott filled his appointment at the Baptist Church, for the first time in about two months. Guntz's Drug Store on the corner of Main and Church streets, is nearing completion.

Pneumonia Can be Prevented.

This disease always results from a cold or an attack of the grip and may be prevented by the timely use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, that remedy was extensively used during the epidemics of La Grippe of the past few years, and not a single case ever been reported that did not recover or that resulted in pneumonia, which shows it to be a certain preventive of that dangerous disease.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has gained a world wide reputation for its cures of colds and grip. For sale by F. B. Gunter.
