He Speaks of Gethsemane as It Appeared to Him-Sermon from the Text: "Ye Are Bought with a Price."

[Copyright, 1901, by Louis Klopsch, N. Y.] Washington, March St. In this discourse Dr. Talmage shows the Messianic sacrifices for the saving of all nations and speaks of Gethsemane as it appeared to him; text, I. Corinthians 6:20: "Ye are bought with a price."

Your friend takes you through his valuable house. You examine the arches, the frescoes, the grass plots, the fish ponds, the conservatories, the parks of deer, and you say with in yourself or you say aloud: did all this cost?" You see a costly diamond flashing in an earring, or you hear a costly dress rustling across the drawing-room, or you see a high mettled span of horses harnessed with silver and gold, and you begin to make an estimate of the

The man who owns a large estate cannot instantly tell you all it is worth. He says: "I will estimate so much for the house so much for the furniture, so much for laying out the grounds, so much for the stock, so much for the barn, so much for the equipage, adding up in all making this aggregate."

Well, my friends, I hear so much about our mansion in Heaven, about its furniture and the grand surroundings, that I want to know how much it is all worth and what has actually been paid for it. I cannot complete in a month nor a year the magnificent calculation, but before I get through to-day I hope to give you the figures. "Ye are bought with a clearance of our souls was the igno-minious birth of Christ in Bethlehem. Though we may never be carefully looked after afterward, our advent into the world is carefully guarded. 'We came into the world amid kindly attentions. Privacy and silence are afforded when God launches an immortal soul into the world. Even the roughest of men enough to stand back. But I have to tell you that in the village on the side of the hill there was a very bedlam of up oar when Jesus was born In a village capable of accommodating only a few hundred people many thousand people were crowded, and amid hostlers and muleteers and camel drivers yelling at stupid beasts of burden the Messiah appeared. No silence. No privacy. A better adapted place hath the eaglet in the eyrie, hath the whelp in the lions' lair. The exile of Heaven lieth down upon The first night out from the palace of Heaven spent in an outhouse. One hour after laying aside the robes of Heaven dressed in a wrapper of coarse linen. One would have supposed that Christ would have made a more gradual descent, coming from Heaven first to a half-way world of great magnitude, then to Caesar's palace, then to a merchant's palace in Galilee, then to a private home in Bethany, then to a fisherman's hut and last of all to a stable. No! It was one leap from the top sary in Bethlenen and drive away the camels. Pass on through the group of Mary, no food? "None," she says, "only that which was brought in the sack on the journey." Let the Bethlehem woman who has come in here with kindly attentions put back the covering from the babe that we may look upon it. Look! Look! Uncover your head. Let us knoel. Let all voices be hushed. Son of Mary! Son of God! Child of a day! Monarch of eternity! In that eye the glance of a God. Omnipotence sheathed in that Babe's arm. That voice to be changed from the feeble plaint to the tone that shall wake the dead. Hosanna! Hosanna! Glory to God that Jesus came from throne to manger that we might rise from manger to throne, and that all the gates are open, and that the door of Heaven that once swung this way to let Jesus out now swings the other way to let us in. Let all the bellmen of Heaven lay hold the rope and ring out the news: "Behold, I bring you glad tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people, for to-day is born in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord!"

he door of the caravan-

The second installment paid for our soul's clearance was the scene in Quarantania, a mountainous region, full of caverns, where are to-day panthers and wild beasts of all sorts, so that you must now go there armed with knife or gun or pistol. It was there that Jesus went to think and to pray, and it was there that this monster of hell-more sly, more terrible, than anything that prowled in that country -Satan himself, met Christ.

The rose in the cheek of Christthat Publius Lentullus, in his letter to the Roman senate, ascribed to Jesusthat rose had scattered its petals. Abstinence from food had thrown him into emaciation. A long abstinence from food recorded in profane history is that of the crew of the ship Juno. For 23 days they had nothing to eat. But this sufferer had fasted a month and ten days before he broke fast. Hunger must have agonized every fiber of the body and gnawed on the stemach with teeth of death. The thought of a morsel of bread or meat must have thrilled the body with something like ferocity Turn out a pack of men hungry as Christ was a-hungered, and if they had strength with one

What It Would Do.

The sum collected by the internal revenue bureau under the provisions of elected mayor of Mark Hanna's town the war revenue act, from June 13, shows the value of a strong personality 1898, when the set, went into effect, to and the usefulness of convictions. The February 28 1901, was $281,311,515. Honorable Tom is a free trader and This sum of money would have built an single taxer in national politics and inter oceanic canal, opened the arid advocates 3 cents fares on municipal car lands of the west to cultivation by a sys- lines. He has made money out of street tem of irrigation and made navigable railways, but now that he is a millionevery desirable waterway in the country. And who will deny that these inpeople profiting from municipal rail-

They Are Chummy. A Washington dispatch to the Char-South Carolina, who is still in Washing- in Carolina within a short time now.

yell they would devour you as a kid. It was in that pang of hunger that Jesus was accosted, and satan said: Now, change these stones, which look like bread, into an actual supply of bread." Had the temptation come to you and me under those circumstances

ve would have cried: "Bread it shall be!" and been almost impatient at the time taken for mastication, but Christ with one hand beat back the hunger and with the other hand beat back the monarch of darkness. O ye tempted ones! Christ was tempted. We are told that Napoleon ordered a coat-ofmail made, but he was not quite certain that it was impenetrable, so he said to the manufacturer of the coatof-mail: "Put it on now yourself and let us try it." And with shot after shot fired from his own pistol the emperor found that it was just what it pretended to be, a good coat-of-mail. Then the man received a large reward.

I bless God that the same coat-ofmail that struck back the weapons of temptation from the head of Christ we may now all wear, for Jesus comes and says: "I have been tempted, and I know what it is to be tempted. Take this robe that defended me and wear it for yourselves. I shall see you through all trials, and I shall see you through all temptation."

"But," says Satan still further to Jesus, "come, and I will show you something worth looking at." And after a half day's journey they came to Jerusalem and to the top of the temple. Just as one might go up in the tower of Antwerp and look off upon Belgium, so Satan brought Christ to the top of the temple. Some people at a great height feel dizzy and a strange disposition to jump. So Satan comes to Christ in that very crisis. Standing there at the top of the temple, they looked off. A magnificent reach of country. Grain fields, vineyards, olive groves, forests and streams, cattle in the valley, flocks on the hills and vilages and cities and realms. "Now," says Satan, "I'll make a bargain. Just jump off. I know it is a great way from the top of the temple to the valley, but if you are Divine you can fly. Jump off. It won't hurt you. Angels will catch you. Your Father will hold you. Besides, I'll make you a large present if you will. I'll give you Asia Minor, I'll give you China, I'll give you Ethiopia, I'll give you Italy, I'll give you Spain, I'll give you Germany, I'll give you Britain, I'll give you all the world." What a temptation it must have been!

The third installment paid for our redemption was the agonizing prayer in Gethsemane. As I sat in that garden at the foot of an old gnarled and twisted olive tree the historic scene came upon me overwhelmingly. These old olive trees are the lineal descendants of those under which Christ stood and wept and knelt. Have the leaves of whole botanical generations told the the story of our Lord's agony to their successors? Next to Calvary the solemnest place in Palestine is Gethsemane. While sitting there it seemed as if I could hear our Lord's prayer, laden with sobs and groans. Can this be the Jesus who gathered fragrance from the frankincense brought to His cradle and from the lilies that flung their sweetness into His sermons and from the box of alabaster that broke at his feet? Is this Jesus the comforter of Bethany, the resurrector at Nain, the oculist at Bethsaida? Is this the Christ whose frown is the storm, whose smile is the sunlight, the spring morning His breath, the thunder His voice, the ocean a drop on the tip of His finger, Heaven a sparkle on the bosom of His love, the universe the dust of His chariot wheel? Is this the idlers and loungers. What, O Mary, no light? "No light," she says, "save that break or hush a tempest or drown a Christ who is able to heal a heartwhich comes through the door." What, world or flood nimensity world or flood nimensity which comes through the door." What, glory? Behold Him in prayer, the through the skin of His forehead! What an installment in part payment of the greatest price that was ever paid! The fourth installment paid for our redemption was the Saviour's sham trial. I call it a sham trial-there has never been anything so indecent or unfair in any criminal court as was witnessed at the trial of Christ. Why, they hustled him into the courtroom at two o'clock in the morning. They gave Him no time for counsel. They gave him no opportunity for subposnaing witnesses. The ruffians whe were wandering around through the midnight, of course they saw the arrest and went into the courtroom. But Jesus' friends were sober men, were respectable men, and at that hour, two o'clock in the morning, of course they were at home asleep. Consequently Christ entered the courtroom with the ruffians. Oh, look at Him! No one to speak a word for Him. I lift the lantern until I can look into His face, and as my heart beats in sympathy for this, the best friend the world ever had, Himself now utterly friendless, an officer of the courtroom comes up and smites Him in the mouth, and I see the blood stealing from gum and lip. Oh, it was a farce of a trial, lasting only perhaps an hour, and then the judge rises for sentence! Stop! It is against the law to give sentence unless there has been an adjournment of the court between condemnation and sentence, but what cares the judge for the law? "The man has no friends. Let Him die,' says the judge. And the rufflans out side the rail cry: "Aha, aha, that's what we want! Pass Him out here to us! Away with Him! Away with

Oh, I bless God that amid all the in justice that may have been inflicted upon us in this world we have a divine sympathizer. The world cannot lie about you nor abuse you as much as they did Christ, and Jesus stands today in every courtroom, in every house, in every store, and says: "Courage! By all my hours of maltreatment and abuse I will protect those who are trampled upon." And when Christ forgets that two o'clock morning scene

In Mark Hanna's Town. Tom L. Johnson's success in being vestments would have been better ones ways. His stand on this matter alone than the war for which this money has is enough to explain his election along been spent in the far east?—Atlanta with the defeat of all other Democratic serve to be the husband of an attraccandidates -The State.

After a Long Absence. Twenty-nine years ago, when the famleston Post says Senator McLaurin of ily of S. C. Richard, Esq., was residing ton, was at the White House Tues- John, then a boy of 17, ran away from ond time and will this week commerce day afternoon, and had a talk with home, and, until Wednesday, when he his third term as the chief executive of President McKinley about some South came to Bellefontaine to look for his the city. His official plurality over Carolina matters. The Senator stated parents, nothing has been known of his Judge Elbridge Hancey, the R publithat there was nothing in his talk with whereabouts. He has been a soldier of can neminee, is 28 257 votes. The tothe President of public interest. Since fortune, and has lived in California and tal vote of the city is: Harrison 156, the adjournment of Congress the Sena- Mexico during almost all of his lang 852; Hynecy 128,695. In the last tor has been a frequent caller at the White House. It is understood he will was almost overcome to learn of the rison, Democrat, 148,496; Carter, Re several years sgo.

and the stroke of the ruffian on the mouth and the howling of the unwashed crowd then He will forget you and me in the injustices of life that may be inflicted upon us. Further I remark: The last great installment paid for our redemption was the demise of Christ. The world has seen many dark days. Many summers ago there was a very dark day when the sun was colipsed. The fowl at noonday went to their perch, and we felt a gloom as we looked at the astronomical wonder. It was a dark day in London when the plague was at its height, and the dead with uncovered faces were taken in open carts and dumped in the trenches. It was a dark day when the earth opened and Lisbon sank, but the darkest day since the creation of the world was when the carnage of Calvary was enacted.

It was about noon when the curtain began to be drawn. It was the swinging of a great gloom all around the heavens. God hung it. As when there is a dead one in the house you bow the shutters or turn the lattice, so God in the afternoon shut the windows of the world. As it is appropriate to throw a black pall upon the coffin as it passes along, so it was appropriate that everything should be somber that day as the great hearse of the earth rolled on, bearing the corpse of the King. A man's last hours are ordinarily kept sacred. However you may have hated or carlcatured a man, when you hear he is dying silence puts its hands on your lips, and you would have a loathing for the man who could stand by a deathbed making faces and scoffing. But Christ in His last hour cannot be left alone. What, pursuing Him yet after so long a pursuit? You have been drinking His tears. Do you want to drink His blood? They come up closely, so that notwithstanding the darkness they can glut their revenge with the contortions of His counter nance. They examine His feet. They want to feel for themselves whether those feet are really spiked. They put out their hands and touch the spikes and bring them back wet with blood and wipe them on their garments. Women stand there and weep, but can do no good. It is no place for the tender-hearted women. It wants a heart that crime has turned into granite. The waves of man's hatred and of hell's vengeance dash up against the mangled feet, and the hands of sin and pain and torture clutch for his holy heart. Had he not been thoroughly fastened to the cross they would have torn Him down and trampled Him with both feet. How the cavalry horses around their necks and champed the blood! Had a Roman officer called out for a light, his voice would not neighing of the chargers, and the bela voice crashing through-loud, clear, overwhelming, terrific. It is the groaning of the dying Son of God! Look, what a scene! Look, world, at what you have done! I lift the covering from the maltreated Christ to let you count the and write! When the nails went to Christ's temple, that bought your brain, with all its power to think and side, that bought your heart, with all

1865, do you remember that the Great and fell into a sound sleep. Eastern and the Medway and the Albany went out to find it? Thirty times they sank the grapuel 21/2 miles deep cable and brought it to the surface. No sooner had it been brought to the surface than they lifted a shout of exultation, but the cable slipped back again into the water and was lost. Then for two weeks more they swept the sea with the grappling hooks, and at last they found the cable, and they brought it up in silence. They fastened it this time. Then with great excite ment they took one end of the cable to the electrician's room to see if there were really any life in it, and when they saw a spark and knew that a mesnents were lashed together. Well, my friends, Sabbath after Sabbath Gospel messengers have come searching down for your souls. We have swept the sea and we began to rejoice over your re- himself as Mr. Smith. demption, but at the moment of our your soul. We apply the cross of Christ first to see whether there is any millionaire. life left in you, while all around the people stand, looking to see whether the work will be done, and the angels of Ged bend down and witness, and, oh, if now we could see only one spark of love and hope and faith we would send up a shout that would be heard on the battlements of Heaven, and two worlds would keep jubilee because communication is open between Christ and the soul, and your nature that has | nesses. been sunken in sin has been lifted into the light and joy of the Gospel.

"And, shure, they tell me your hoos band's very litherary?"

"That he is, indade." "That he devours ivery thing in the way of a book or a paper that cooms to the house."

"Shure, he does." "And vot in the name of goodness does the poor goat get to ate?"-Yonkers Statesman.

Too Sensitive.

A prominent citizen of Wilmington. had a fight a few days ago with a Philadelphia man who objected to the Wilmington citizen casting admiring glances at the Philadelphia man's pretty wife and her glad clothes. The Wilmington citizen says his wife called his attention to the pretty waist worn by the Philadelphia lady, and the Philadelphia man thought the Wilmington citizen was staring impudently. An unprejudiced judge would say that the tive woman. - The State.

Can't Beat Him. Carter H. Harrison has been re-Newark, Ohio, the youngest son, elected mayor of Chicago for the secleave Washington for South death of his mother, which occurred publican, 107,357; Harrison's plurality, 41,059.

KILLED HIS FRIEND

And Employer With Chloroform While He Blept.

A VERY STRANGE CASE

How a Pair of Villians Plannud to Get the Money

Without the slightest quaver in his well modulated votes and disp sying no outward sign of regret or remorse, Charles Jones, secretary and valet to Wednesday in a New York court under oath that he had ended the life of his mployer and benefacter with obloro form. The confession was the climax of a remarkable recetal in which was laid bare the details of an alleged subtle conspiracy which had for its object the se zure of three million dollars in cash and prgotiable securities and the conversion of three millions in realtye to the alleged chief conspirator. There was a dramatic force in the directness and minute attention to detail with which Jones sproched the tregedythe moment when he covered the face of the sleeping man with the saturated napkin and then waited for him to die. The self confessed murderer told the story of the alleged that from its inrention The capital crime he con: mitted and all the minor off mes that pe ecd dit were, he declar d, at the in stication and direction of Albert T. Parrick. It was Patrick, he sad who o necived the idea of forging a will and late. He looked in the parlor and aw figing transfers and conveyances It Patrick, who was there. Next morning was Pati k who induced two persons he asked who the bald-headed man to wittess the forged signatures. It with the red beard ans. was Patrick who determined that R oo R ce it was a friend of mine should die and it was Patri k who cught to have him killed slowly and hen becoming impatient, determined ujon quick action. And, according to Jones, rema kable as it may seem. Rice Lever knew Patrick during his life time and never saw him but once According to this remarkable con-

ession, Patrick told Jones that the eld man was lasting too long, that he must be put out of the way at once, that Jones should do the work and that there would really be no harm in it be cause Rice had poisoned his own wife their bits and reared and sniffed at years ago and deserved punishment. Jones described his return to Mr Rice's apartments and the discovery o have been heard in the tumult, but louder than the crash of spears, and the wailing of womanhood, and the a na, kin and the fa hiening of it into a conc-shape as directed, he said, by lowing of the crucifiers, there comes Patrick. He detailed the story of the pinning of a small sponge at the point of the cone. Then he told of saturating the napain and sponge with chioreform and holding it over his own nos trils to test its effect. Jones looked straight into the eyes of Assistant Dis trict Atterney Osborne and continued wounds and estimate the cost. Oh, his story without a break, without a when the nails went through Christ's | tremorin his voice. He describes his right hand that bought your hands, approach to the bed with the saturated with all their power to work and lift nankin in his band; of the flight from napkin in his band; of the flight from through Christ's right foot and utes in accordance with Patrick's all Christ's left foot, that bought your leged instruction; at the expiration of the room; of the weary wait of 30 minfeet, with all their power to walk or the half hour he returned and found run or climb. When the thorn went in- Rice dead. He then threw open the windows to free the room from the todor of chloroform telephonet to Patrick plan. When the spear cleft Christ's that R ca was dead sent for a payer cian and then, after expressing his its power to love and repent and pray. grief at the loss of so good and kind When the Atlantic cable was lost in an employer he said he went to bed

Patrick, accused by the being the arch-criminal, listened to the in water. After awhile they found the ally made notes of the testimony. Not even the remarkable wieness on the stand was more cool, calm and col lected than this remarble prisoner Patrick's hand was firm and steady He displayed neither anger, fear nor resentment. When Jones reached the description of the murder of the sleeping man, Patrick merely stroked his beard and leaned back in his chair, apparently slightly bored by the recital of the details.

Charles F. Jones, R ce's valet, when put on the stand said he lad worked sage could be sent then every hat was as storck oper at the Capital hotel, lifted, and the rockets flew and the guns sounded, until all the vessels on met Rice in 1896 and had been Rice's the expedition knew, and the conti- secretary, valet and general utility man. Rice, he said, moved to New York in Sei tember, 1897. Witness first met Patrick in November, 1899. Parick represented him with the grappling hook of Christ's self as a commercial man from Texas Gospel. Again and again we have and wanted to see Rice. Rice was in thought that you were at the surface, bed at the time and Pataick introduced

Patrick at that time, Jones said, had gladness you sank back again into the a long talk with witness. He asked world and back again into sin. To-day whether Rice had a legal representawe come with the Gospel searching for tive in this city and showed himself in quisitive about the affairs of the old

In December, 1899, witness swore, Patrick first approached him about the drawing of a will Jones was to draw the document on his typewriter and get Rice to sign it when his mind was not quite clear.

Jones told Patrick the signing of the will might be arranged but that it would be more difficult to obtain wit-

Patrick proposed they should try to get the witnesses of the will of 1896. Jones afterwards approached Weatherbee, the clerk in Swenson & Sons office to get him to act as a witness. Weatherbee re'used and threatened to take Jones' "head off" if he dared to suggest any fraudulent schemes sgainst

Jones said: "Patrick wanted me to be a witness to the will but I refused I was very anxious to become beneficiary under the will, though. Patrick said this would never do as there would be a suspicion of undue influ ence attached to the will which therefore would not be admitted to pro-

Patrick then said he would arrange for witnesses and mentioned Moyer and Short.

At the afternoon session Jones said Rice had some papers to execute and where he met Short who at Patrick's request had become a commissioner of went to Rice's house and executed the

'Was the will you saw in Patrick's office dated before it was shown to Meyer?" asked Mr. Osborne.

No, it was made in March, but was not dated until June 30. Mr. Patrick told me he destroyed it on the Monday night following the death of Mr. Rice. When the signatures of Meyer and Short were to be taken as witnesses, Patrick told me it would be well to have them use the same ink as was used by Mr. Rice, and I took a bottle of Mr. Rice's ink to Patrick's office. I have not seen that ink bottle since. Continuing Jones said Meyer and Short were at Rice's flat on June 30 to witness certain papers for Rice.

"Did Mr. Patrick ever do any legal work for Mr. Rice?" asked Mr. Os-

"He did not."

"Patrick," witness went on, 'sug-

Witness then went on to say that he Cexas. What did you ge?' "Chloroform and laudaum." "How was the poison sent? "It was sent by express. A small death "As far as I know," Jones said was an evening when Patrick called on me. Rice, against his custom, was up with the red beard ans. I told Mr.

outed on Settember 7th. Jones was harded adeed for indenti fication. He said it was witnessed by Meyer on September 7. D.d Mr. Rice sign any general as signment on that day?"

The witness said Mr. R oe prepared then shown the general assignments transferring all property of Mr. to Patrick. Jones testified that Rice did not sign the assignments.

"Jones, will you state all the conver-Patrick in regard to getting Rice out of the way?" said Mr O:borne. "About the end of August," witness had gotten the laudanum from the drug store at Coney teland. I said I had not but that I had made some other arrange ment to get the poison. Patrick then had some mercurial pill which Dr. Curry gave me Patrick sa d I ought to give them to Rice. I told Patrick I could in his presence. 'Then do so,' Patrick said,, 'it won't do you any harm.' I and then left the bottle of pills on the dresser Rice took some. This brought on a severe diarrhoea, which weakened him, but after te got over this attack method he got Rice to take some mercurial table's which Patrick gave him Yes, and he would never take medcine unless I first took some in his presence All medicine that was sent im I had to taste when he saw it. Jones then related what took place on the day of the death of Mr. Rice "I -a v Patrick at his house," said he. He told me to let him know if Rige grew better. He would then get from his office a bottle of oxalis acid, he said to quicken Rice's nerve.

Patrick gave me the bottle of chloroform. He told me to saturate a tow-el in chloroform and leave it over his face for about 30 minutes. He said Rice would probably laugh, but that I should not be seared as that would only show that the poison was beginning to work and that it would soon be

"I did as Patrick told me. I feturned home, took a napkin and saturated it with ch'oroform. I put it on my own face first and then put it over the face of Mr. Rise and left the room. I walked up and down in the hall sev eral times. The bell rang several times. I did not open the door. Finally after about half an hour I went into Mr. Rice's room. I raised the window, took the rapkin and towel away from his face and placed them both in the range where I burnt them "I sent a hall toy for Dr. Curry, telling him that Mr. Rice was very bad. I went to the telephone to tell Patrick that Mr. Ries was pretty near gone. When Dr. Curry came. Patrick was with him. I told them Rice was dead. Dead! Oh, my Ged, doctor, that is the worst thing that could have happened to me!" said Patrick. Jones said Patrick on the day following took charge of the spartments. On that day, Jones testified, at the request of Patrick, he made out the checks for $25,000 and 135,000 respectively, on Swenson & Sons and the Fifth Avenue Trust company. Jones said Patrick also took charge of $450 in bills and eight or nine dollars in silver from a drawer in the millionaire's writing desk. Jones said Patrick also took away two gold watches

An Election Row. United States District Attorney Ro seir, while at precinct No. 4 of the Jones took them to Patrick's office twenty fifth ward, St. Louis, Wednesday was wounded in the left arm by a stray request had become a commissioner of deeds for the State of Texas. Short Mr. Resier had challenged the vote of one of a crowd of twenty or more negroes. An officer started with the alleged repeater to a patrol box. The prisoner's friends closed around the officer, fired forty or fifty shots for the purpose of intimidation, and released the prisoner. After the negroes had escaped, it was found that Mr. Rosier had been wounded, not seriously, however.

Takes the Oath.

asked Mr. Os

"Did Mr Rice sign any will on June 30, during the time Meyer and Short were in the apartment?" 'He did not. I was there all the time and I did not see him sign any will. Had he signed one I would have known Jones then testified that somewhat later, at the request of Patrick, he wrote on his typewriter the assignments transferring Rice's property to Patrick "Parrick asked me," witness continued, "whether I did think old Rice was iving a little too long for our purposes. I said I thought so. Patrick suggest ed we put him out of the way. I suggested Dr. Curry, but Patrick said Dr. Curry would not do anything of the gested that Jones get laudaum from a drug store at Coney Island for the ; ur-procured posion from his brother in package containing the poison came I think, by the American Express pose of posioning R ce."

'Did you sign a receipt?' Jones testified that he delivered the poison to Patrick about three weeks Jones then went on to testify that Patrick had never been introduced to Rice up to the time of the latter Rice never saw Patrick but once. This Mr. O borne then referred to the as ignments transferring the property of Mr. R.ce to Patrick, whic's were exe

"He did not."

sation that took clace between you and tributed to the teachers: replied, "Parick asked me whether I sistants. told me to give Rice sapolio as that would break him down. I told Patrick I coud not do that, but I told him I not do so without taking, them myself tock some of the pills in Rice's presence the mercury seemed to do him good.' Witness also said that by the same Would Rice take anything you

Rice got better and about noon wanted to get up. He talked cheerful ly about going down town and seemed much improved. Jones said he could not get Rice to take the oxalic acid. He then telephoned Patrick to meet him at lunchcon at a restaurant on Sixth avenue rear Fiftieth street.

"I met him there," Jones continued.

and all private papers of Mr. Rico.

The war department Thursday reseived information from Gen. Macoath of allegiance to the United States For Malaria. Chills and Fever THE BEST PRESCRIPTION IS Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic.

The formula is plainly printed on every bottle-hence you know just what you are taking when you take Grove's. Imitators do not advertise their formula knowing that you would not buy their medicine if you knew what it contained. Grove's contains Iron and Quinine put up in correct proportions and is in a Tasteless form. The Iron acts as a tonic while the Quinine drives the malaria out of the system. Any reliable druggist will tell you that Grove's is the Original and that all other so-called Tasteless Chill Tonics are imitations. An analysis of other chill tonics shows that Grove's is superior to all others in every respect. You are not experimenting when you take Grove's-its superiority and excellence having long been established. Groye's is the only Chill Cure sold throughout the entire malarial sections of the United States No Cure, No Pay. Price, 50c.

THE STATE SUMMER SCHOOL

Some Facts About It That Will be of Intesest The following information about the annual State summer school to be held! this year at Converse college, Spartanburg, has been issued by the State superintendent of education:

It is still two months and a half before the opening of the third session of but the lines of work to be offered have striving to subjugge the natives, a ben definit ly determined and most of race so important that at one time its the proposed instructors have been rulers received embassies from the engaged. Already the teachers of the greatest potentates in Europe, that of 10-ed But the news hadgotten out State are making their plans for attending the school, and many boards of Achin is probably the most war rid trustees are taking school looking to den State in the world. For a hundraiding their teachers to attend. Super-years it has known but little peace, all his meals himse f. Witness was intendent McMahan regards the pros- first with one land, then with another, pects of the school as most satisfactory and furnishes the following information which will be given in greater detail in the aunouncement of the courses of instruction soon to be issued and dis-

Free hand drawing will again be of the Chicago institute, four lady as render of the natives.

A course in South Carolina history of years a well organized invasion of and one in general history will be given European troops is worthy of some by Prof. R. Means Davis of the South attention. The country is situated in Carolina college. That in South Caro the north of Sumatra. It is the only lina history will be particularly "live," State in the island that still remains stressing the personal element in our independent of the Dutch, but, as alpolitics of the past.

reminiscences on South Carolina his population numbers about 328,000. tory will be given by Dr. James H.

The instrustor this year wil organizea chorus, whose entertainments | tear the founder's name and the date will prove the means of amusement as legibly inscribed upon them. well as culture. The grand ofgan in the new auditorium will contribute to one time power that to reduce Malacca land State normal school will continue which were larger than any then used the course so admirably begun last in Europe. The ships carried sixty year in school physics and in manual thousand men, with the King himself training. The latter work (to which a in cammand. large number of teachers were necessarily refused admission last year) he duced more gold than any other counwill be able to plan on a larger reale, as he will bring with him an assistant trained in his methods.

scribed for the public schools by the that the State board. Frye's geography will be Achin. aught by Superintendent Frank Evans the Greenville city schools will give a course in school georgraphy, globe not yet been explored, but from the making, etc., along the lines which seaward two gigantic volcanic meunyear. This course will be futler than feet are visible. ast year and will include certain facts

Prof. Marshall D. Earle of Furman university will teach mathematics, Prof. A. G. Rembert of Wofford will have charge of Latin and Greek. Kindergarten principles and primary methods will be taught by Miss Minnie Macfeat of Winthrop college, and Miss Sarsh Withers of the Chester graded schools. Miss Sarah Chandler of the Spartanburg city schools will of the Columbia schools. Courses in pedagogies and school su aw of South Carolina college and Superintendent W. H. Hand of Chester

Some Facts for Farmers. Present ruling prices for cotton to be it is within the range of possibilities to missioners about this outrage;

$275,000,000. $300,000,000. 9,000,000 bales at 7 sents means $315,000,000

8 000,00 bales at 10 dents means $400,000,000. The smaller the crop the better are the returns per acre.

Spinners are reducing consumption because they complain of slack trade and high prices for cotton. Let the farmer reduce his product accordingly, and firm. in place of the extra amount of cotton let him plant grain, potatoes, vegeta-Arthur that Aguinaldo has taken the bles, watermelons, cane, sorghum and rice where possible Diversification under the terms of amnesty offered by has already abundantly prospered he had paid a high price for potatoes Gen. MacArthur by direction of the southern farmers. Keep it up. -Atlan. which he himself had sold some months

THE PASSING OF A NATION.

After a Hundred Years of Continual ... Warfare Achin Submits South Africa, China and the Philippines are not the only countries where war is in progress. In different parts of the world campaigns of long standing are being carried on daily. Some of them have never been heard of in this country; others have been forgotten. Under the later head comes Achin, he State summer school for teachers, where for years the Dutch have been

England included. but principally with the Datch. The end of this protracted war is, however, believed to be within sign at last. During the last three years the Dutch have won repeated victories. Batoeilik, the strongest fortified garrison of the Achinese, is hard pressed, and its taught by Prof. Jas. William Pattison fall is expected to result in the sur-

A race that can resist for a number ready forshadowed, its independ-A course of conversational personal ence appears to be now doomed. The Before its decline, which commend ed early in the eighteenth century, Dr. J. I. McCain of Erskine college Achin was in close touch commercially will teach English grammar with spe-oial reference to Buehler's grammar that London merchants directed their recently adopted by the State-board for liest, efforts toward securing trade in use in the public-schools. Courses in the findies. Queen Elizabeth sent con-English literature will be given by Prof. St. James Cummings of the Citadel. The effort to introduce into the pub. I also corresponded with the regining lie schools the teaching of sight sing | monsrch, who lived in such luxrious ing will be continued by continuing to style that he had mine handred state offer the teachers the opportunity to elephants. To this day there stand be themselves instructed in this art, near the gate of the King's palace s. The instructor this year will be Dr. R. couple of brass cannon of extraordinary H. Peters of Converse college. As size. They were a present from James heretofore, the musical director will I to the ruler of Achin. They still

So considerable, in fact, was Achin's Prof. W. C. A. Hammel of the Mary-than five hundred ships, a hundred of it fitted out an armada of no fewer

Moreover, at one time, Achin protry in the east, excepting perhaps Japan. One chronicler fixes the annual output at 512,000 ounces. For Prof. J. V. Lewis of Clemson col- liftyeight years female sovereigns relege will teach physical geography, igned, and the foreign residents in using Tarr's book, which has been pre- Achin believe, thought erroneously,

The Achinese employ minted money, of Spartanburg cits schools; and including a gold coin stamped with Superintendent S. L. Hughes of Arabic characters called "mas." Great stretches of the interior have proved so, practical and popular last tains rising to a height of about 11,000 Though ones powerful enough to of history related to the geography drive the Portugues out of the island and to have a fleet and an army that were the envy of lager countries. Achin has slowly crifted into the limbo of forgotten S ates, and now appears destined to disappear from the map altogether. After the Railroad Commission.

T. Larry Ganti, who is now a contributor to the Spartanburg Herald, llustrate primary methods with a class | says: So far as our state railroad comof small children. Nature study will mission is concernel, it is a fraud of the oe in charge of Miss Sarah C. Thurston first water. Unless a chauge is made in its memberships, the commission had better be abelished. When I ran my pervision will be given by Prof. Ward saw mill near Isman, I was made by the commission to pay more than one third the money I reserved for a cargraded schools Mr. James L. Hughes, load of lumber for simply hauling it 11 inspector of schools of Toronto, Can-miles. I furnished the timber and out da, will protably give a week's course and hauled the logs from the woods to my mill. I then carried the lumber two miles and a half to the railroad on wagons and had to both load and unload it on and from the cars. All the railroad did was to couple up that car and elivered in the fall months will not drag it Il miles, and as I have already ustify more than 6 to 6 1 2 cents for stated, the road took more than onethe farmers. It generally happens that third of the gross proceeds, of my lumwhen so much cotton is coming to mar ber for this slight service. I complain-ket in the fall months prices shrink, so ed more than once to our board of comsee 4-cent cotton again this fall, if the nothing was done, and I finally had to present tendency of prices be maintain-ed. Farmers should always remember only pay the salaries of our board of railroad commissioners, but they are 11,000 000 bales at 5 cents means furnished free transportation; and I am told the members are often given 10,000,000 bales at 6 cents means Palace cars stocked with liquid and other retresements with trained servants to wait on them to cavort ever

A Good One.

The Danville Register tells a story of a Page county, Virginia, farmer who lost his knife white barreling potatoes having sold his crop to a New York Next seed time he thought he would get something extra, so ordered his seed potators from a Michigan firm. When he opened the barrel, he found his long lost knife, and also found that April Fool Hoax.

Reperters have been to'd of an April to have been one of the best in years. The big smokestack for the new mill is up. It is very tall and imposing Mr. Sam T. Denning, who is at work in Granite vitle, procured a suit of old clothing, stuffed it care uily and, during Sunday night, caused it to be susperded from the top When the population started to work on the morning of April 1 they saw what appeared to be a man hanging from the chimney top The figure was perfectly gotten up Sensation ran high for a couple of hours, when the figure was cut down and the hoax exand for two days peo ple tramped in from the outlying sections to see who had been hanged or who had hangd him alf from the big an okestack.

Augusta Herald.

War Everywhere. War feeling is intense in Japan. It threatened in Russia and Germany. But actual war exists with Great Britain and the United States. While there is uneasiness in several of the South American States that may lead o hostilities. This is the most lamentable condition for the beginning of a new century which many of the statesmen and philosophers expected would be the inauguration of universal peace. There is no need to despair, however for there is a tremendous revulsion against war. That is hopeful for the peace of Christendom .- Newport News

Saw Mills, Corn Mille Car Ri Pea 1 Bonters, Planers and Matchers, Swing Saws,

Rip Saws, and all other kinds of wood working machinery. My Sergeant Log Beam Saw mill is the heaviest, strongest, and most efficient mill for the money on the market, quick, the that the Queen of Shebs was Queen of accurate. State Agent for H. B. Smith Machine Company wood working machinery, For high grade engines, plain slide valve-Automatic, and Corliss, write me: Atlas, Watertown, and Struthers and Wells.

V. C. BADHAM, 1326 Main St., Columbia, S. C.

Ginning Machinery, Saw Mill Machinery, Planing Mill Machinery.

Brick Machinery,

Engines, all Types; Boilers, all Kinds. These are our Specia lties and we have the most complete and best lines to offer.

W. H. Gibbes & Co.,

MACHINERY and MILL SUPPLIES

OF EVERY DESCRIPTION. COLUMBIA, S. C.

OSITIONS! Positions!! Pledge to secure our graduates posi-tions backed by $5000. Courses unex-celled. Good board cheap. Enter an Open to both sexes. Send now fo

> COLUMBIA, S. C. H. Newberry, President.

COLUMBIA BUSINESS COLLEGE,

free catalogue. Address,

WANTED. The address of a few INTEL GENT YOUNG TEACHERS W schools have closed for the se Address, B. W. GETSINGER, Box 105, Spartanburg, S. (