COMMUNICATIONS. The Advocate will publish readable letters on any subject of general interest, when accompanied with the name and address of the writer.

WEDNESDAY June 12, 1901. Entered as second class matter at the Batesburg Post Office.

The time for Batesburg's municipal election is drawing near, and we wish to impress on our citizens the necessity of united action in this matter. Our town is lengthening its borders and we hope it is also strengthening its stakes as well.

As will be seen from the advertisement in another column, several desirable dwelling lots will be sold at auction, Monday morning. That the lots will not go begging, every one who knows anything of our town, those who may put their money in Batesburg real estate need have no fears, that the bottom will drop out.

Program of the Union Meeting. The upper division of Ridge Association will meet with Leesville Baptist church at 10.00 A. M., June 29, 30, 31, 1900 A. M. Devotions led by E. A. Perry.

The Southern Railway—A 20th Century Road.

The Southern Railway and its broad-minded and energetic officials deserve much congratulation and praise for the improved and efficient train service they have inaugurated on the movement of their fruit and vegetable traffic from this point.

The results attained are all the more commendable in view of the fact that "climatic conditions" for the past several months have tended to limit the shipments of marketable truck from this section.

Our Mine Creek Crank. Hold on, there is coaters and terrapins are thickers or hadhin an yet it rains, i have been lying up a few days and the moon got the run on me and when I found her she was full of water and away up above coater thicker to wards uncle Monks big new ground, what he has planted in corn a cotton so as would have no crab grass to contend with this year, then he hit it, speaking of the moon she was full of water and has been leakin ever since, we have pretty good crop of wheat and oats on a five acre grass, well it stopt raining last year, a people has come to briten up, Tom Rogers saw a ripe blackberry, and pap is cuttin what and you can get good flour at H. Leesville College Commencement. The commencement exercises of the college, closed to-night. On the whole it is considered by many of the best that has ever been held here.

Dr. Dixon started the ball to rolling with his celebrated and renowned lecture "Backbone" Saturday night. It is without doubt, the finest lecture ever delivered at this place. We only wish that a larger number could have heard it.

Monday at 11 o'clock Dr. H. W. Eay of Rock Hill, preached the Baccalaureate sermon. Subject—"The Power of God." It is a very impressive and sublime language; but above all, he impressed them most with the grand truths of the Gospel and its power to save humanity. He also preached Sunday night.

Monday evening the crowd was royally entertained by the young ladies of the Kennedias Society. Miss Claude Haynes gave a recital—"Attention at the Boarding House" which completely captivated the audience.

try, Miss Edna Watt. The essays were delivered elegantly, and the members showed they had given careful thought and study in the preparation of them.

Prof. W. P. Coker—the English teacher, is to be congratulated for the success of the class in composition and rhetoric.

Tuesday afternoon at 4.30 o'clock, the elocutionary contest by members of the Euphemian Literary Society, were held. There were four contestants: Otis M. Mitchell, J. F. McClellan, J. W. Oaner and F. S. Smith.

THE HOME GOLD CURE

An Ingenious Treatment by which Drunkards are Being Cured Daily in spite of Themselves.

No Nxious Gases. No Weakening of the Nerves. A Pleasant and Positive Cure for the Liquor Habit. It is now generally known and understood that Drunkenness is a disease and not weakness.

WIVES CURE YOUR HUSBANDS! CHILDREN CURE YOUR FATHERS! DO NOT WAIT. Do not let your husband or father suffer in pain and misery, and so skillfully prepared that it is thoroughly soluble and pleasant to the taste, so that it can be given in a cup of tea or coffee without the knowledge of Drunkards.

Do you know that out of $25,000,000 paid for canned fruits last year the fruit growers got $3,000,000, the canners the rest. The many growers live in poverty, the few canners are rich. If you want to make money in the fruit business, do your own canning. You do not need a large factory, you need a new T. C. WILSON CANNING MACHINE, 1899 patent, which I am selling.

Wanted! Bring all your tobacco tags—such as Early Bird, Schnapps, etc., to Jas C. Hardin, Batesburg, S. C., and get best prices. Will exchange for same.

I SELL. J. I. GRAIN SEPARATOR & TRACTION AND PORTABLE ENGINES. Parties in this State have given testimonials that the smaller size Separators crush out 180 Bushels Oats per hour and give splendid satisfaction in every way.
