At 12:30 o'clock this (Thursday) morning it was estimated that the total deaths from the heat in the last six days in Greater New York was 600.

During Tuesday night and Wednesday the deaths in Newark directly attributed to the heat, numbered 51, the highest number of the spell. In Ho boken there were 19 deaths. Patterson, which had been comparatively free from deaths, ran its number up to 116 for the 24 hours ending Wednesday night. Jersey City escaped with 2 New Brunswick scored 4 fatalities and Elizabeth 6. A dozen other places contributed one each to the total so that the grand total for New Jersey will be in the neighborhood of 100 for the day. The highest temperature was 94 at 12:30 p. m. At 8 o'clock Wednesday night it was 80 degrees.

No backward step would be taken but whether it did or did not it would be the same with him. He had said the question was not whether they should win but whether they should do what was right. He would do the right and abide the consequences. The Democrats' duty was to advocate principles The result would be beyond the party. If the blood was bad and a boil came they would keep coming until some thing was taken to cleanse the blocd. He said in conclusion. "I am fight ing on, not so much to win, for I would rather die fighting for right than win fighting for something clse.

Race Riot.

Reports reached Denver, Colorado Thursday of a serious race riot which has just broken out in the mountains of Campbell country bet ween negro and white miners. The trouble started at a negro dance where a fight was in progress neas Lafollette, a mining town. The town marshal was sent for and tried to arrest the negroes with a posse of five men. The negroes opened fire on the officers and the officers returned to town. About 20 men returned to the scene and opened fire on the negro cabin. There were about 15 negroes in the house. They returned the fire but soon made a break for the woods. In the running fight that followed three negroes are said to have been fatlly shot and a number of others wounded.

A Shocking Tragedy.

Raymond Albers, a 14 year-old lad, of Albany, N. Y., Friday evening shot and killed Emanuel Koehler, a boy of 12, and then hanged himself. The boys were playmates and according to statements of neighbors they had quarrelled some days ago. Albera is the son of Albert Albers, a well known painter, and Keehler is the son of Rev. John T. Hotel Burned.

Information received at the general offices of the Hot Springs company Richmond, Va, shows the loss of the Homestead hotel Wednesday night by fire was complete. The fire started in the bakery shortly before midnight. The blass spread rapidly by reason of the poor facilities of the fire department. The guests were promptly notified and escaped, many in their night clothes most of them losing their jewels and trunks. There were several narrow escapes. Many prominent and wealthy guests were in the hotel at the time. The loss is about $300,000, largely covered by insurance. Wealthy cot-

Married to Save the Pig.

In order to save the life of a pig Hiram Johnson and Miss Matilda Parkinson, Wilkesbarre Pa., were married last week by Alderman Conchan, of Wilkesbarre, whose reputation as a Solomon is thereby enhanced. Miss Parkinson appealed to him the other day for justice. She said that Hiram Johnson. who owned a farm next to hers at Hud son, had stolen the pig from her. She also said that they had known each other for years and were always good friends. When the 'squire sent for Johnson he said the pig was his and he could prove it. As neither would yield Alderman Conchan had the hearing Thursday. Each arrived with several witnesses who swore the pig belonged to one or the other, and, as the evidence of each side was of equal weight, the alderman made a decision worthy of his reputation. He said the pig should be killed and then divided equally. Both Miss Parkinson and Johnson objected strenuously that the pig was not old enough to kill, and besides it was a dear little pig, etc. There was no settlement in sight, and the 'squire suggested smiling-ly: "Why don't you marry and cold the pig in the family? You are old the pig in the family? The sugenough." Each is over 50. The suggestion pleased them. They went into a corner, talked it over, and came out hand-in hand and blushing. The alderman married them and they took the pig home.

Sad Picnic Ending.

There was quite a sad ending to the otherwise pleasant gathering of citizans of McCormick S. C. at Searl's Mill to hold an old fashioned Fourth of July pionic. The two little boys of Mrs. P. F Creighton, aged respectively 9 to 11, had gone in bathing some little distance down the river away from the crowd. They waded out over their depths, and when Dr. Manley Brown, who was the first to discover them. came upon the scene, they were just sinking for the third time. He called for assistance and immediately sprang into the water. A large crowd quickly gathered and they soon succeeded in finding the younger one of the boys, but the elder one was not found until it was too late to save him. The sympathy of .the entire community goes out to the bereaved mother, who now suffers this second bereavement so soon having quite recently lost her husband. The dead boy was just reaching that stage in life when he could be of some assistance to his mother.

Lynched for the Usual Crime. A negronamed Jim Bailey was lynched near Smithfield, N C., last week for assaulting a white girl. Wednesday at noon Maud Strickland, the 14 year old daughter of a farmer living near Smithfield, went to the field to carry dinner to her father. When returning she saw a negro in the path ahead. Her little sister was with her. The negro told the sister to go on or he would kill her. He caught Maud, choked her and outraged her. Her little sister ran back to her father and told him what had happened. Strickland and his two brothers found that the negro was Jim Bailey and partment and directed to the companies that he was at work in the field. They at Dinver and Pueblo.
