MERCY TEMPERED WITH JUSTICE.

"Justice tempered with mercy" is an often quoted phrase, and it is a sentiment which finds approval in its application to many cases. It is an appeal to the better part of our nature. The exercise of this virtue, however, does not always conserve the highest public good. Mercy tempered with justice is its counterpart and becomes necessary, wisely exercised, to the preservation of peace, good morals and the observance of law. The dispensation of justice often becomes, as it were, a blessing instead of a hardship in bringing individuals to consider the error of their ways and thus save them from greater sins. It is human nature to revolt—to want to go our own way—to have unrestrained liberty regardless of the rights of others. This perversity of nature shows itself in the case of the individual who is brought to trial for a crime. In the treatment of such a case, the court is bound to be firm and to order to inspire respect for the law. It is the duty of the court to have the right to control the conduct of the citizens. We think that the pardoning power of the Governor of the State is frequently used to the detriment of the body social. It tends to take away the terror of the law for the punishment of crime and thus reflects an influence in preventing crime.

It is not so much the punishment of the individual who may commit crime, but the more to prevent the commission of crime by others. The same reasoning applies to the exercise of the functions of our judicial officers and juries. It is said that in some portions of Africa theft is almost unknown, for the reason that if any one is caught stealing, death by hanging is the penalty which is irrevocable as the law of the Medes and Persians. The consequence is, in that semi-civilized country, store-houses, barns and dwellings remain unlocked, secured by the certainty of the hangman's fate, if found guilty. Such would be the case in our own country if the law was as severely and rigidly enforced here as there.

We do not, however, recommend such severity in the administration of justice, but merely mention this to show that laxity in the execution of the laws of our State or any other State or country will be followed by an increase of crime.

Let mercy then be tempered with justice for its restraining influence over the morals and actions of our people. God in his dealings with Israelites, his chosen people, as revealed in His Word, has shown us that He punished sin in these, when He lived because of their disobedience to His Holy Law that they might be brought back to the worship of the true God and to walk in the paths of righteousness. "Righteousness exalteth a nation."

We unintentionally left off the names of several gentlemen, in our editorial comments on the congressional aspirants, who are likely to become candidates for Dr. Stokes' unexpired term. We failed to mention these gentlemen, not from any favoritism, but because our memory served us imperfectly; and now in justice to them and our readers we will give the names of these gentlemen and say what we know about them: hoping in that way to be of some service, to those who read The Advocate, in assisting them to form an intelligent opinion concerning the man best fitted to represent the seventh district. Dr. Crosson is another, from our own county, who has been spoken of,

"Something New Under The Sun"

All Doctors have tried to cure CATARRH by the use of powders, and gases, inhalers and drugs in paste form. Their powders dry up in the mucous membranes causing them to crack open and bleed. The powerful acids used in the inhalers have entirely eaten away the same membranes that their makers have aimed to cure, while pastes and ointments cannot reach the diseased area. And old and experienced practitioners who have for many years made a close study and specialty of the treatment of Catarrh, has at last perfected a treatment which when faithfully used not only relieves at once, but permanently cures Catarrh, by removing the cause, stopping the discharges, and curing all inflammation. It is the only remedy known to science that actually reaches affected parts. This wonderful remedy is known as "SNUFFLES," the GUARANTEED CATARRH CURE, and is sold at the extremely low price of One Dollar, each package containing internal and external medicine sufficient for a full month's treatment and everything necessary to its perfect use.

"SNUFFLES" is the only CATARRH CURE ever made and is now recognized as the only safe and positive cure for that annoying and disgusting disease. It cures all inflammation quickly and permanently and is also wonderfully quick to relieve Hay FEVER or COLD IN THE HEAD.

CATARRH when neglected often leads to CONSUMPTION—SNUFFLES will save you if you use it at once. It is no ordinary remedy, but a complete treatment which is positively guaranteed to cure Catarrh in any form or stage if used according to the directions which accompany each package. Don't delay, but send for it at once, and write full particulars to your condition, and you will receive special advice from the discoverer of this wonderful remedy regarding your case without cost to you beyond the regular price of SNUFFLES, the GUARANTEED CATARRH CURE.
