DEATH OF JOHN M. KNIGHT.
Col. Jno. M. Knight, at one time Grand Chancellor of the Knights of Pythias in South Carolina died in Asheville, N. C. Tuesday. For several months he had been in bad health. He attended the South Carolina Press Association in Charleston against the advice of his physicians, he being a devoted member of that body.

DEATH OF MAMIE SPANN.
Mamie Spann, colored, the wife of Paul Spann, of Batesburg, died at her home Tuesday morning after a short illness.

GRADED SCHOOL NOW OPEN.
The Batesburg Graded School opened Monday morning with all the teachers present. The attendance for the first day was unusually large and each day has brought in new pupils, and the indications are that the enrollment will be larger this session than ever before, which speaks in the highest terms of the efficiency of this school.

A.N OLD SOLDIER'S TRIBUTE TO COL. J. H. WHARTON, CANDIDATE FOR RE-ELECTION AS R. R. COMMISSIONER.

To the Confederate Soldiers, their Sons and Grandsons of South Carolina:

There is a lot being said through the papers and circulars for and against candidates. Let me, an old man, have just a word to say.

I am an old Confederate soldier, a member of James' Battalion, Ker-shaw's old Brigade--God bless every one of them that are living. At Berryville on September 4th, 1861, as a strong young man, fighting for my country, a ball from a gun in the hands of a Yankee entered my left eye and ranged backward; it was never located and for over forty years I have carried this ball with me, and except while asleep, I have never been free from pain. For years I have been dying by inches until the end is almost in sight. Col. J. H. Wharton, also an old soldier, has always been my friend. Today he is furnishing me a house and garden, patches, pasture for my cow, all free of charge, and has been doing so for years. I have been unable to work and have nothing to give except my pension of four dollars per month, and the County Commissioners give me three dollars per month, making eighty four dollars a year. Myself and wife are old, unable to work, and if we had house rent to pay we would often go hungry and cold; but a good man is watching our struggle for life.

We raise our voice and ask the people to support J. H. Wharton. This may be the last time that I will ever be able to vote in an election, but I will know that I cast my vote for a good, true, big hearted man.

Yours,
MACK ELMORE.
Waterloo, August 6, 1906.

Vote for J. Brooks Wingard for the House of Representatives.

PERSONALS.

Misses Annie and Lizzie Axon, of Perry, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Sills, for a few days.

The many friends of Col. J. C. Fort, throughout the county, will be glad to know that he is much better. The first of the week his condition was serious and grave doubts were entertained for his recovery.

Miss Carrie Glenn, who has been in the employ of the firm of J. J. Hawl, until recently, as assistant milliner, has accepted a position with The Advocate, and started upon her duties to-day.

Mr. J. M. Bates left for Eufala, Ala., yesterday morning where he was called by the death of his brother-in-law, Mr. Alexander.

All Batesburg will be glad to know that Miss Myra Glenn will go back to the switchboard tomorrow morning, after an absence of several weeks. Her services have certainly been missed, and it is with great pleasure that we welcome her back.

Mr. U. G. Swearingen, who has been the polite and accommodating operator for the Southern Railway here for the past two years, has resigned, and the place is now filled by Mr. Willie Miller. Mr. Swearingen made a host of friends during his stay here, who regret that he has left Batesburg.

Mrs. C. M. Rhodes and children are visiting friends and relatives at Hampton, S. C. From there they will go to Isle of Palms for a week.

Mr. C. L. Jones spent Sunday with his parents in Aiken S. C.

Mr. L. G. Jones, of Augusta, Ga., was here for a day or two this week visiting his brother, Mr. C. L. Jones.

Hon. J. Brooks Wingard was here Monday.

Mr. J. W. Stribling arrived Saturday to take charge of the Batesburg ginny, which is now owned by the Planters Storage Company. Mr. Stribling is no stranger to the people of this section and his return willadden the hearts of many a farmer, he having had charge of The Batesburg ginny for the past two years.

Miss Clara Harrigal returned to her home at Graniteville Tuesday, after spending a delightful three weeks in Batesburg. Miss Harrigal is a most interesting writer and her pieces in The Advocate will be looked forward to by many of our readers with a great deal of pleasure.

Miss Emma Mason, an attractive young lady of Lynchburg, Va., arrived in Batesburg Tuesday, and will spend sometime with her relatives, Capt and Mrs. W. H. Atwell, at their home on Hartley Heights.

Mr. N. Rogers Bayly spent Sunday in Charleston.

Dr. D. P. LaGrone, of Johnston, was here Tuesday on professional business.

Mr. Willie Gunter, who has been connected with Mr. J. C. Glover as salesman for a number of years has resigned his position to go in business with his father, Mr. Mose S. Gunter.

Mr. Killian Harman attended the burial of his friend, Mr. Rion T. Graham, in Columbia Monday.

The Johnston News-Monitor has the following to say about a young lady from Batesburg:

Miss Ruth Cooner, of Batesburg, is on a visit to the family of her uncle, Mr. M. Q. Norris. Miss Cooner possesses a very sweet and cultivated voice, and on Sunday morning at the Methodist church, she sang very beautifully the selection, "Face to face with my savior."

Mr. Walter J. McCartha spent Tuesday in Columbia.

Col. and Mrs. John Bell Towill have returned, after spending two weeks at Lake Toxaway and Hendersonville.

Mrs. N. A. Bates and Miss Mammie have returned from a two weeks stay in the mountains of North Carolina.

Miss Salome Timmerman has returned from Glenn Springs, where she has been spending sometime.

Mr. N. Rogers Bayly has returned from the North, where he spent a most pleasant vacation.

Mrs. C. D. Hall, of Aiken, is visiting Mrs. Dr. J. Arthur Watson.

Mrs. Claudia Edwards and Mrs. Arthur Booknight, of Leesville, were in town Saturday.

Mrs. Ida Cook and little daughter, of Columbia, spent a short while in town Sunday.

Mr. Clyde Odum, of Johnston, spent Sunday and Monday in town.

Mr. Kinny Hartley went to Augusta Sunday.

Mr. Will Stone and sister, of Delmar, were in town one day recently.

Mrs. R. B. Shealy spent Saturday and Sunday at Trenton.

Rev. Wright, of Florida, preached a very impressive sermon at the Baptist church Sunday night to a large and attentive congregation.

Misses Carrie Mitchell and Ella Lou Able, of Leesville, were in town shopping Tuesday.

Miss Nannie Gunter has returned from a visit to Edgefield and Aiken.

Misses Sallie Bodie and Maud Mack, of Leesville, were in the city Tuesday.

Messrs Albert Jones and Mike Perry went to Ridge Spring Sunday.

Miss Lona Etheredge and brother, Mr. D. E. Etheredge, returned Monday from a week's visit to Washington, D. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Bullinger, of Columbia, were in town one day this week.

Mr. D. E. Gibson, of Johnston, spent several days in town this week.

Mr. Wm. Bodie, of Leesville, was in the city Tuesday.

Miss Bessie Plunkett, of Columbia, is visiting relatives in town.

Mrs. Ida Boatwright, of near Leesville, was in town shopping one day last week.

Miss Maud Crouch spent yesterday at Ridge Spring.

The Edgefield Advertiser has this to say about Miss Nannie Gunter, the talented young daughter of Capt. and Mrs. U. X. Gunter, of Batesburg: Miss Nannie Gunter is gentle, amiable, sweet-tempered, talented and very entertaining consequently she is always the recipient of much social attention when she visits in Edgefield.

Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Jones entertained Thursday evening and Rev. and Mrs. P. P. Blalock on Friday evening in her honor. Both evenings were delightfully spent by a number of music loving friends.

Dr. W. H. Timmerman and his daughter, Miss Salome Timmerman, leave this afternoon for Kissimee, Fla., where Miss Salome goes to teach music this winter.

Mr. E. P. Shealy, of Augusta, Ga., came over Sunday to spend the day with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Shealy.

Mrs. N. Rogers Bayly, of Batesburg, S. C., and Misses Fanny and Mary Bayly, of Lystra, Green Spring, Valley, Maryland attended the Baltimore County Fair yesterday--Baltimore Sun.

Mr. R. Glover Able, a prominent saw mill man and planter, is in the city today.

Mr. B. B. Evans, candidate for the House from Saluda county, spent last night in Batesburg.

DEATH OF MRS C E MOBLEY

Mrs. C. E. Mobley, wife of the late Jeremiah Mobley, of Wards, died at the home of her daughter, Miss D. P. Bodie, in Batesburg, Wednesday morning. Mrs. Mobley was, before her marriage, Miss Mickler, daughter of Christine and Mary Mickler, of the Dutch Fork, Lexington county, and was up to the time of her marriage a resident of this county.

Mrs. Mobley had been in failing health for a year or more, but not until the last six weeks had she been confined to her bed. She was in her 80th year.

The remains were taken to Wards yesterday for burial. The funeral services were conducted from the Methodist church by the Rev. Mr. Aereal, pastor of the Johnston circuit, and Rev. J. R. T. Major, of Batesburg. The interment was in the city cemetery at Wards.

Mrs. Mobley had been a devoted member of the Methodist church for sixty years.

Mrs. Mobley leaves five children as follows, her husband having preceded her to the great beyond 16 years ago: Mr. J. G. Mobley, of Johnston; Mrs. Dr. D. P. LaGrone, of Johnston; Mrs. Charlie Smith, of Gainesville, Fla.; and Mrs. W. A. Crouch and Miss D. P. Bodie, of Batesburg.

LEESVILLE.

Rev. Jabez Ferris, of Batesburg, filled Rev. Bass's appointment at the Baptist church Sunday afternoon and delivered a very fine sermon.

Mrs. Jas. Riser is very ill at this writing.

Mr. E. B. Gunter, of Solvorn, spent Sunday at Dr. L. B. Etheredge's.

Mrs. L. B. Etheredge left Sunday for Aiken to see her mother who is very sick.

Mr. J. A. Ridgell and Miss Georgia Fulmer, of Mt. Willing, spent Monday in town.

Mr. B. B. Hare was in town Monday. His many friends were glad to see him.

Mr. Jno. Crosson and wife left Wednesday for their home in Prosperity, after spending sometime with relatives.

Miss Maggie Hutchinson, of Newberry, and Miss Jessie Caughman and brother were in town Wednesday.

Mr. Lee Etheredge, of Augusta, is visiting friends and relatives in town this week.

Miss Mamie Mitchell, after an extended visit to her parents near Ridge Spring, has returned and resumed her position with C. D. Barr.

Mr. Willie Herbert and sister Miss Annie, of Newberry, are visiting friends and relatives in town.

Rev. O. M. Mitchell and Dr. R. Roof filled Rev. Brabham's appointments at the Methodist church Sunday morning and evening.

Mr. J. P. Matthews, of the Palmetto National Bank, of Columbia, spent Sunday in town.

Mrs. J. P. Bodie spent several days this week with home folks near Columbia.

Mrs. Victoria Shealy left for her home Tuesday, after spending some time with relatives here.

According to previous arrangement despite the very gloomy morning, Wednesday 5th, the members of Luther Chapel Sunday School, of Leesville, gathered at the parsonage and were conveyed to the beautiful Summerland park, which Prof. Shealy had procured permission of the kind and worthy manager, Mr. Mitchell.

At lunch hour we all went to the delightful crystal springs, where we spent sometime in feasting our eyes on surrounding scenery at the same time not forgetting to satisfy the inner man on the muscudines.

We thus spread our dinner under the shade of the poplars and each one seemed to enjoy the fried chicken, sandwiches, pickle, pies and cakes of various kinds, the most, how many, may be sick from it, we cannot tell.

Even after wrapping up several papers for the indisposed ones at home we still found it impossible to consume near all we had with us.

It was an ideal day with cool refreshing breezes and believing that sometime in the distant future we would enjoy another just such a day we hope to gather again at Summerland.

HON. E. J. ETHEREDGE.

REASONS WHY HE SHOULD BE RE-ELECTED--HIS VIEWS, POSITION, RECORD, CHARACTER AND QUALIFICATIONS.

Hon. E. J. Etheredge is asking for the suffrage of the people of Lexington county on good grounds. He has served his county with honor and credit. During the one term he has made many and warm friends in the House where he has made himself felt. When the late lamented Altamont Moses died, Dr. Etheredge was selected over dozens of older members to fill his position on the State House Commission.

During the incoming House he will have prestige which will put him in position to do his people a great deal of good.

His private life is one of clean honor and uprightness; his record is a clear one of which no one can be ashamed.

As to the Dispensary question he and his opponent stand on the same ground--both favoring that institution, differing slightly on the Brice Bill. In this position Dr. Etheredge is standing on an honest conviction--holding firmly to a manly conviction--the right of every honest man.

Geographically Dr. Etheredge should be elected. The Fork has one man elected, Hon. J. M. Epling; the Sand Hills have Hon. W. H. Sharne and Lexington Court House has the State Senator, Hon. D. Frank Eford. Now this end of the county deserves and should demand representation in the person of Hon. E. J. Etheredge.

He has plenty of friends to elect him. Some of these, however, say they will not vote for him because he is a Dispensary advocate. So is Mr. Wingard; but will not these stop to consider that it is a pretty poor friendship which will terminate in politics.

In all fairness to ourselves, to our county and to Dr. Etheredge, we should all turn out and vote for him. We all know him; we all concede that he is honest, true and sincere; that he is competent and qualified. Then why not vote to the best effect?
