

HOUSEHOLD HINTS.

STUFFED EGGS.—Cut some hard-boiled eggs in half, mince the yolks with capers, anchovies and truffles in due proportions, and a little tarragon; add pepper and salt.

HERBALISTIC REMEDIES.—In former days, if a member of the household became indisposed, the family-head, under instructions from the gray-haired dame, went to the forest or the field, to gather herbs or berries, from which were quickly made invigorating extracts, which ere many days brought the patient safely around, and saw the family gathering once more without a missing member.

APPLE SNOW.—Peel, core, and quarter a dozen Spitzenberg apples, and stew them gently, with a cup of water, white sugar sufficient to sweeten, and a little cinnamon; when reduced nearly to a pulp, turn into a dish.

FRENCH COFFEE.—French coffee is much talked of and the general supposition is that the peculiar French quality is in some filtering process, or in the way the element is extracted from the berry.

FRUIT CAKES.—To one teaspoonful of cold boiled rice put one of flour, one egg, one tablespoonful of corn-starch, teaspoonful of salt, and sour milk or buttermilk enough to make a batter;

TEA CAKES.—Rub a quarter of a pound of butter into a quart of dried flour, then beat up two eggs with two teaspoonfuls of sifted sugar and two teaspoonfuls of yeast; pour this mixture into the middle of the flour, adding a pint of warm milk as you mix it.

MACCARONI WITH CHEESE.—Take half a pound of large macaroni, cut it into convenient lengths, and place it in a saucepan with plenty of fast-boiling water, add salt to taste, and let it boil rather less than half an hour.

ROLLS (FRENCH).—Take half a pint of yeast and a pint and a half of warm milk, add sufficient flour to make it the thickness of batter; put into a pan, cover over, and keep warm.

CAN'T DO ANY HARM.—We should like to know how many medicines there are that can't do any harm.

DR. A. JOHNSON, one of the most successful practitioners of his time, invented what is now called Johnson's Anodyne Linctus.

ELECTRICITY IS LIFE.—All nervous disorders, chronic diseases of the chest, head, liver, stomach, kidneys and blood, aches and pains, nervous and general debility, etc., quickly cured after drugs fail by wearing Volta's Electro Belt and Bands.

THE PUBLIC are hereby assured, through the columns of this paper, that Parsons' Purgative Pills contain no injurious ingredients, and that they may be administered to children and the more weak and shattered constitutions in small doses, with great certainty of success.

DR. R. V. PIERCE, Buffalo, N. Y., and have been afflicted with salt rheum in the worst form for a great many years, until, accidentally, I saw one of your books, which described my case exactly.
