OFFICE SCHOOL COMMISSIONER. ORANGEBURG COUNTY. March 12, 1875.

Teachers and all other parties who hold legitimate school claims against this county, due prior to November, 1873, will please report them immediately at my office, for registration. THOMAS PHILLIPS, School Commissioner.

—Personal.—Judge T. H. Cooke arrived on Thursday, from Columbia.

—A colored man named Patrick Whaley died very suddenly of heart disease, at Robert Riley's place near Jamerson's last Wednesday.

—Mr. G. Shirer has moved into the new brick store, recently erected by Dr. Barton, where he will be glad to wait upon his old customers.

—One of the trial justices of Greenville county, we are informed is hiring out his convicts to realize his cost. So says the Greenville Daily News.

"STILL HE IS NOT HAPPY."—One day this week, a horse belonging to Mayor Moseley became unmanageable on the street and ran with wagon attached against the fence in front of the office of the clerk of the court. No serious damage resulted.

OUR OUTSIDE.—We hope our readers will do themselves the favor to read the outside of our paper. Timely topics, and other matters of great interest and profit to the readers may be found there. It is not simple trash or silly stories, but good reading matter that is worth the subscription price of the paper. Please read and judge for yourselves.

—The 2nd Game between the Crescents of Bamberg, and the Orange B. C. was played on last Tuesday. On the 6th inning, a violent storm began, when the Umpire called the game, score standing even, 24 each. By arrangement between Pres. Bamberg of the Crescents, and Pres. Albergotti of the Oranges and the next game will decide the contest. The winner of this game winning the match.

OUR SCHOOL FUNDS.—The following is the amount assessed in each school district in our county to sustain free schools, as returned officially by our school commissioner:

Vances, 3 mills; Poplar, 4; Pine Grove, 4; Amelia, 2 1/2; Providence, 3; Goodby, 3; Lyons, 3; Cow Castle, 2; Middle, 2 1/2; Orange 3; Caw Caw, 2 1/2; Branchville, 2 1-2; New Hope, 2 1/2; Elizabeth, 3; Edisto, 1 1-2; Union, 1 1-2; Zion, 3; Willow, 4; Liberty, 1; Goodland, 1; Hebron, 1; Rock Grove, 1.

—We clip the following from the News and Courier of yesterday. A shooting affray occurred at Branchville Wednesday night upon the arrival of the "Down Columbia Night Express," between J. Fetter Myers and Charles Hall.

Immediately upon the arrival of the train at the platform Myers seized Hall, as he was getting out of the car; whereupon Hall drew his pistol and shot Myers in the left thigh, inflicting a painful wound. Myers then fired at Hall, missed him, and hit one of the waiters of the Branchville house in the knee, inflicting quite a serious wound. He pursued Hall who fled at first shot, down the platform, and fired at him a second time, missing him again. It is fortunate that no second bystander was injured, as Myers fired in the most reckless manner. The cause of the difficulty was some financial matter connected with the "Blackville Sun," of which paper Hall is proprietor and Myers editor.

We learn that Mr. Myers is doing well, and the wound is not considered dangerous. The Blackville Sun continues to shine as though nothing had happened.

—General Frank P. Blair expired at St. Louis last Friday surrounded by his family and a few intimate friends. He has been in a precarious state for several months, but under the blood transfusing treatment had begun to grow stronger, and was generally supposed to be steadily improving. During the past few days he has taken frequent rid s, and on Thursday wakened down stairs. His death came suddenly, and will be a painful surprise to his many friends, who had confident hopes of his recovery.

—Collector L. J. Carpenter, of the 1st South Carolina District, reports to the internal revenue office the capture of five illicit distillers, the seizure of four distillers, and the destruction of one still. He says within the past forty days he has seized fifteen distillers, captured one and destroyed a large quantity of illicit whiskey. We are glad to notice that the laws are being enforced against those who engage in this nefarious business, but we hope the good work, will not be confined to the third District.

—Mr. Thomas Albergotti met with quite an accident last Monday, which very fortunately did not result fatally. He was at the depot sitting in his buggy, when the horse suddenly became frightened and ran, and after several leaps cleared itself from the buggy, and threw Mr. Albergotti, who still clung to the ribbons, over the dasher, striking his head against a telegraph pole. Mr. Albergotti was stunned and severely bruised, but is now about again, though he will carry the marks for sometime.

We clip from an exchange the following incident which we judge well represents one's confusion under such circumstances:

"Hosse, what's the matter?" "Mine Got, the sorrel wagon has run away mit de green horse, and broke de axletree of de brick house, what stands by de corner lamp post, across de way from de apple trees; run, Youpey, and stop de telegraph. Mine Got, what a heeples!"

BALL AND BAT.—The admirers of the national game were favored on Thursday with an opportunity of witnessing some fine playing at a match game between the Etiwans, of Charleston and the Orange Club of this place. The game was called at four o'clock, the Oranges to the bat, and, until the close of the seventh inning the odds were in favor of the Oranges; while remarkably fine playing was evinced by both clubs. At the commencement of the eighth inning our boys went to the bat one ahead, and confident of success, but not quite so sanguine when they retired to the field without scoring a run. When, however, the Etiwans went to the bat and scored twelve, things began to look decidedly squally for our boys, and though they did their level best, fortune was against them, and at the close of the game they were beaten by a score of 37 to 26. Messrs. Tom Wannamaker, P. G. Cannon, Willie DeTriville, P. W. Bull, and L. L. Souberoux, deserve especial notices for their skillful playing. The responsible position of catcher in the Orange club was well played, and by playing close to bat the catcher made three very pretty double plays, and allowed but few pass balls. Mr. Tom Wannamaker wears the silver medal for making the best score of the Orange Club.

The game was very close and interesting, and was witnessed by a large number of our citizens. The Orange club labored under a great disadvantage from the fact that two of their best players, Julian Salley and Lewis Wannamaker, were unable from sickness, to participate in the game.

The following is the score: Innings: 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 Etiwans 0 0 3 0 6 2 3 12 7 Oranges 2 3 5 2 2 0 7 0 1 Total 37 to 26.

THE SCHOOL TRUSTEES OF the various townships of this county are requested to meet at my office on the 12th of June, 1875, at 11 o'clock A. ADVERTISEMENTS. MISCELLANEOUS. THE SOUTHEASTERN ADVOCATE

There is soon to be a paper entitled above, issued from this office, and published in the interests of the M. E. Church in this portion of our work. Since the unwise removal of the Charleston Advocate, our work has been enlarging and extending in this section, and demands multiplying for a local organ. The Charleston Advocate was for two years published in Charleston, 1873 and 1874, during this eventful period in the history of our cause in the South, one of the most important auxiliaries of our work. Its removal left a vacant place here which has not since been filled. It is an old saying, "that blessings brighten as they take their flight." This was emphatically true in reference to our paper for this coast. Many were taken by surprise at its sudden removal and were anxious for its return. If we had been fully advertised of the wants and wishes of the people in this section, before the transfer of that paper to Atlanta, Ga., as we were after it was done, it would never have gone from us. The Methodist Advocate is a good paper and ably conducted, but it is too distant from the Atlantic coast to meet our local wants in this section. Our work on this coast differs in some particulars from our work in the section of Atlanta or the valley of the Mississippi. Its peculiar phases cannot be met by those who live at a distance from us, and are not conversant with the exigencies and demands of this section. The people will have greater interest for

Their Own Paper, that lives and sympathizes with them than can be awakened for one coming to them from a distance, and managed by comparative strangers. It will be larger than the FREE CITIZEN, will be Issued Bi-weekly, at the low price of ONE DOLLAR A YEAR Payment in advance.

Some of the ablest writers of our church in this section will contribute to its columns. Methodist Ministers of the M. E. Church, traveling and local are agents for this paper. Let those who read this notice act at once in getting up a list of subscribers. All communications for the Advocate should be directed to us, at this place, A. WEBSTER, Orangeburg, S. C. Aug. 1874. "Unquestionably the best sustained work of the kind in the World."

Harper's Magazine. ILLUSTRATED. Notices of the Press. The ever-increasing circulation of this excellent monthly proves its continued adaptation to popular desires and needs. Indeed, when we think into how many homes it penetrates every month, we must consider it as one of the educators as well as entertainers of the public mind, for its vast popularity has been won by no appeal to stupid prejudices or depraved tastes.—Boston Globe. The character which this MAGAZINE possesses for variety, enterprise, artistic wealth, and literary culture that has kept pace with it, it has not led the times, should cause its conductors to regard it with justifiable complacency. It also entitles them to a great claim upon the public gratitude. The Magazine has done good and not evil all the days of its life.—Brooklyn Eagle.
