METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH—Rev. Thomas Phillips, pastor. Services, morning and evening. PRESBYTERIAN—Rev. Mr. Norris, pastor. Services, first Sunday evening, and the second and fourth Sundays, morning and evening.

The passenger trains on the S. C. R. R. will pass through Orangeburg as follows: Day, from Charleston, 9 48 a. m. " from Columbia, 7 30 p. m. Night, from Columbia, 11 53 p. m. " from Charleston, 2 20 a. m.

TOWN CHIEF.

OFFICE HOURS AT ORANGEBURG DEPOT. From 8 o'clock A. M. to 2 P. M. From 3 o'clock P. M. to 6 P. M. Goods received and delivered only in office hours.

OFFICE SCHOOL COMMISSIONER. ORANGEBURG COUNTY. March 12, 1875. Teachers and all other parties who hold legitimate school claims against this county, due prior to November, 1873, will please report them immediately at my office, for registration. THOMAS PHILLIPS, School Commissioner.

The intense heat has cooled the base ball fever somewhat.

This is the tenth week of the drought.

Fishing parties are now very much in vogue.

A new morning daily paper has just been started in Columbia called The Register.

We notice Mr. J. S. Albergotti hard at work getting the R. R. store in order for Monday's work. He proposes to have iced lemonade, with or without a "fly in it."

O. S. C. B.—A call meeting will be held at the fair building next Tuesday evening, at eight o'clock.

By order of the president J. E. N., act'g Sec'y.

A little daughter of Samuel Dibble, Esq., has been quite ill, with fever, but we are gratified to learn that she is improving, and is now considered out of danger.

Locals are scarce, and we hardly know what we shall do another week, unless the News and Times comes to the rescue, with some "incendiary" remark.

Dr. Webster and lady left for the North last Thursday. We wish them a safe trip and a pleasant visit among their Northern friends. A few draughts of the bracing, invigorating air of New England is something that we pant for in vain.

J. Felder Meyers is improving slowly under the skillful professional care of Dr. Logre and the assiduous attention of his friends. We would call attention to his card in this issue. We trust he will soon be able to be about.

SUMMER TRAVELLING.—The South Carolina Railroad Company, as is their custom during the summer season, are now offering at reduced rates straight and excursion tickets to all points North, South, East and West. Persons who contemplate travelling should consult the company's advertisement.

The crops in this section are so badly hurt by the long drought that even a good season for the next month will not save them. Not more than half a crop is expected.

A few drops of rain on Thursday was all we have had for weeks. But fortunately this drydrought is confined to certain localities, and is not general throughout the county. Showers to the right of us, and showers to the left of us, and showers all around us, have repeatedly excited our hopes for the refreshing rain only to be disappointed. Wells are failing, and if this dry drought continue much longer we shall all "dry up and blow away." Already our devil begins to look like a squeezed sponge.

Hon. A. B. Knowlton, left last night for a trip to the North, where he expects to remain for about a month. If this weather continues much longer there will be a general stampede for the North.

The most disastrous fire which has occurred in Charleston since the memorable conflagration of 1867, occurred last Saturday. Loss estimated at $200,000. The fire began in the grocery of Mr. Henry C. Everhardt. Origin not known.

The final game of the series between the Oranges of this place and the Crescents of Bamberg, was won by the latter last Tuesday. Our boys have been unfortunate as several of the first nine were prevented by sickness from taking part in the game. We understand that only four of the first nine played in this game.

Duncan, Sherman & Co., one of the largest banking firms of New York has failed. The outlook is very ominous of a financial panic this fall. Those who have much of the root of all evil should husband it with great care. A financial drought will follow that which is now ruining the crops.

Monday is expected to be great day to Orangeburg, and we trust the day will be signified by no exhibition of lawlessness. Our city authorities should take measures to have an efficient police force on duty; but we are sure the best thing that could be done would be to close all the bar-rooms. Let the love of peace and order triumph over any desire for gain at their expense.

On Monday evening, Mr. John Goodwin, a respected citizen, about 38 years of age, living about fifteen miles from Branchville on the Waterboro' road, was struck by lightning and almost instantly killed.

Monday is expected to be great day to Orangeburg, and we trust the day will be signified by no exhibition of lawlessness. Our city authorities should take measures to have an efficient police force on duty; but we are sure the best thing that could be done would be to close all the bar-rooms. Let the love of peace and order triumph over any desire for gain at their expense.

The communication of Hon. A. J. Ransier we commend to the thoughtful perusal of our readers. It was received at so late an hour that we are unable to comment upon it as freely as we would like.

Mr. Ransier takes a truly sensible view of the situation, ignoring, like Congressman Lamar, of Mississippi, all distinctions on account of color, and stands upon the solid basis of equal rights for all American citizens. The sentiments of Mr. Ransier should receive the hearty endorsement of all true men, and are destined to be triumphant when this senseless color twaddle has involved its advocates in disgrace and obloquy.

GET THE LATEST FASHION!—Great changes—beautiful designs are just out. "Smith's Illustrated Pattern Bazaar" is just out, and it is full of the most brilliant illustrations of imported Paris and Vienna styles.

Smith's Bazaar is the acknowledged "authority" upon everything relating to styles, those of our readers who have not subscribed for it ought to at once while they can do so, and get the large premium now offered. Send only one dollar and ten cents to A. BURDETTE SMITH, 914 Broadway, New York City, and he will mail his "Bazaar" to you for one year without postage, and give you One Dollar's worth of such patterns as you wish to select from his book.

FREE as your premium, or he will give you your choice of one of his beautiful chromos. Smith's Bazaar is worth much more than he asks for it without the premium he offers.

THE ETIWANS.—The following letter was handed us by Mr. J. S. Albergotti, President of O. R. B. Club, and fully explains itself. It speaks well for both clubs, and shows a friendly and gentlemanly rivalry which is in glaring contrast to what often accompanies such contests. If this is to be a match in courtesy as well as skillful playing, we hope the rivalry will long continue, and both clubs come off victorious.

TO THE ORANGE BASE BALL CLUB, ORANGEBURG, S. C.

GENTLEMEN—The Etewan Base Ball Club of Charleston, desire to return their sincere thanks to the citizens of Orangeburg, and especially to the Orange Base Ball Club, for the courteous and hospitable reception, and generous treatment, tendered them, on the occasion of their recent visit to their beautiful town. They admit, without exception, that it was by far the pleasantest game of ball, in which they have ever been engaged, rendered so by the gentlemanly courtesy of their opponents, and the presence of the ladies of Orangeburg. They sincerely hope that at an early day they may fully reciprocate the attention, and in quite, if possible, the hospitable treatment of their kind opponents.

Very Respectfully, SIMON HYDE JR. Sec'y. Etewan B. B. C.

A LIBERAL OFFER.—The St. Louis Literary Gem is a large eight-page literary and family paper, devoted to editorials, sketches, poetry, sentiment, wit, &c. &c. Every person sending us 50c., will receive the paper for one year, and as a premium, we will send by mail, post paid, one of our "Gem" premium packets, containing 12 sheets writing paper; 12 envelopes; one penholder; one lead pencil; one blank book; two steel pens; and a gift of ladies' or gents' jewelry. The articles are of good quality, and cannot be bought at retail for the price of both paper and packet—in fact, the price is often worth more than 50c. Any person sending a club of four and two dollars, will receive the paper and packet free. Remember, the paper a whole year, and premium (with elegant prize) for 50 cents, (and six cents for postage.) subscribe now. Address "LITERARY GEM," St. Louis, Mo. Agents wanted.

THE SOUTHEASTERN ADVOCATE.

There is soon to be a paper entitled as above, issued from this office, and published in the interests of the M. E. Church in this portion of our work.

Since the unwise removal of the Charleston Advocate, our work has been enlarging and extending in this section, and demands multiplying for a local organ. The Charleston Advocate was for two years published in Charleston. It was during this eventful period in the history of our cause in the South, one of the most important auxiliaries of our work. Its removal left a vacant place here which has not since been filled. It is an old saying, "that blessings brighten as they take their flight." This was emphatically true in reference to our dapper for this coast. Many were taken by surprise at its sudden removal and were anxious for its return. If we had been as fully advertised of the wants and wishes of the people in this section, before the transfer of that paper to Atlanta, Ga., as we were after it was done, it would never have gone from us. The Methodist Advocate is a good paper and ably conducted, but it is too distant from the Atlantic coast to meet our local wants in this section. Our work on this coast differs in some particulars from our work in the section of Atlanta, or the valley of the Mississippi. Its peculiar phases cannot be met by those who live at a distance from us, and are not conversant with the exigencies and demands of this section. The people will have greater interest for

Their Own Paper, that lives and sympathizes with them than can be awakened for one coming to them from a distance, and managed by comparative strangers.

It will be larger than the FREE CITIZEN, will be Issued Bi-weekly, at the low price of ONE DOLLAR A YEAR Payment in advance.

Some of the ablest writers of our church in this section will contribute to its columns. Methodist Ministers of the M. E. Church, traveling and local are agents for this paper. Let those who read this notice act at once in getting up a list of subscribers.

All communications for the Advocate should be directed to us, at this place, A. WEBSTER, Orangeburg, S. C. Aug. 1874.

"Unquestionably the best sustained work of the kind in the World."

Notices of the Press. The ever-increasing circulation of this excellent monthly proves its continued adaptation to popular desires and needs. Indeed, when we think into how many homes it penetrates every month, we must consider it as one of the educators as well as entertainers of the public mind. For its vast popularity has been won by no appeal to stupid prejudices or depraved tastes. Boston Globe.

The character which this MAGAZINE possesses for variety, enterprise, artistic worth, and literary culture that has kept pace with it, if it has not led the times, should cause its readers to regard it with justifiable complacency. It also entitles them to a great claim upon the public gratitude. The Magazine has done good and not evil all the days of its life. Brooklyn Eagle.
