J. C. Pike has bought the place of M. Glover in this town for $7,000. We learn that David Shell has bought the Dukes' house.

We learn that the wife of Judge Cooke is the guest of Senator Andrews.

The Republicans have carried Ohio, Iowa and Nebraska by large majorities. We hope President Grant will make another speech.

Locals are scarce this week. We judge, however, it is the case that precedes a storm. As proof of this see our advertisements of circus and fair.

Judge Mackey has informed Mr. John W. Walker, sheriff elect of the county of Chester, that the Supreme Court has recently decided that a sheriff elect at a special election holds his office for four years.

Economy. — "Straw berries and cream" are far more palatable and conducive to health than either pork or pills.

Flowers are among the very best moral and intellectual teachers. Give them a home, then, in or about the house.

If you invest your money in strong drink, it is the same as turning hungry hogs into a corn field—ruin will follow in both cases.

If you invest your money in tools and leave them exposed to the weather, it is the same as loaning money to a spendthrift without security—a dead loss in both cases.

If you invest your money in a good farm and not cultivate it well, it is the same as marrying a good wife and so enslaving and abusing her as to crush her energies and break her heart.

There is a holy love and a holy rage; and our best virtues never glow so brightly as when our passions are excited in the cause. Sloth, if it has prevented many crimes, has also smothered many virtues, and the best of us better when roused. Passion is to virtue what wine was to Eschylus and to Erasmus, under its inspiration their powers were at their height.

A writer in a Presbyterian paper calls upon every honorable man to hang his head for shame, because America pays $22,200,000 for liquor, $10,000,000 for dogs, and barely squeezes out $6,000,000 for preachers of the gospel.

The best navigation—steering clear of the lacerating rocks of personal contention.
