Goods received and delivered only in office hours.

—J. C. Pike has bought the place of M. Glover in this town for $7,200.

—We learn that David Shell has bought the Dukes' house.

—We learn that the wife of Judge Cooke is the guest of Senator Andrews.

—The Republicans have carried Ohio, Iowa and Nebraska by large majorities. We hope President Grant will make another speech.

—Locals are scarce this week. We judge, however, it is the calm that precedes a storm. As proof of this see our advertisements of circus and fair.

—Judge Mackey has informed Mr. John W. Walker, sheriff elect of the county of Chester, that the Supreme Court has recently decided that a sheriff elected at a special election holds his office for four years.

—The term of court commencing next Monday is one of unusual interest and importance. We learn that Judge Reed is not to preside, but that Judge Cook will take his place.

It no doubt will afford Judge Cooke pleasure to preside in this his old home and the scene of his former efforts at the bar, but we are frank to say that existing circumstances would with any ordinary man, render the discharge of his duties delicate and embarrassing except perhaps, to one who, like his honor, is bound to administer justice without fear or favor.

'THE GREAT SHOW.—Howes' Great London Circus and Menagerie. A magnificent street display, rare collection of animals, and an excellent circus performance may be expected at Orangeburg Wednesday, October 27.

was but the foretaste of the inimitable performance that was seen later under the canvass. The cavalcade was many squares in length, and was composed of cavaliers, knights and ladies on horseback, Roman Chariots drawn by horses four abreast, a cage full of African hyenas, among which fearlessly sat the negro keeper, Iroquois Indians dressed in their fantastic costumes, painted, and carrying implements of Indian warfare, the five performing elephants and a camel, a number of wagons on which were beautifully painted allegorical pictures, and containing the wild animals belonging to Sanger's English Menagerie.

Economy. — "Straw berries and cream" are far more palatable and conducive to health than either pork or pills.

Flowers are among the very best moral and intellectual teachers. Give them a home, then, in or about the house.

If you invest your money in strong drink, it is the same as turning hungry hogs into a corn field—ruin will follow in both cases.

If you invest your money in tools and leave them exposed to the weather, it is the same as loaning money to a spendthrift without security—a dead loss in both cases.

If you invest your money in a good farm and not cultivate it well, it is the same as marrying a good wife and so enslaving and abusing her as to crush her energies and break her heart.

There is a holy love and a holy rage; and our best virtues never glow so brightly as when our passions are excited in the cause. Sloth, if it has prevented many crimes, has also smothered many virtues, and the best of us better when roused. Passion is to virtue what vice was to Eschylus and to Ennius, under its inspiration their powers were at their height.

A writer in a Presbyterian paper calls upon every honorable man to hang his head for shame, because America pays $22,200,000 for liquor, $10,000,000 for dogs, and barely squeezes out $6,000,000 for preachers of the gospel.

THE SOUTHEASTERN ADVOCATE.

There is soon to be a paper entitled as above, issued from this office, and published in the interests of the M. E. Church in this portion of our work.

Since the unwise removal of the Charleston Advocate, our work has been enlarging and extending in this section, and demands multiplying for a local organ. The Charleston Advocate was for two years published in Charleston. It was during this eventful period in the history of our cause in the South, one of the most important auxiliaries of our work. Its removal left a vacant place here which has not since been filled. It is an old saying, "that blessings brighter as they take their flight." This was emphatically true in reference to our paper for this coast. Many were taken by surprise at its sudden removal and were anxious for its return. If we had been as fully advertised of the wants and wishes of the people in this section, before the transfer of that paper to Atlanta, Ga., as we were after it was done, it would never have gone from us.

The Methodist Advocate is a good paper and ably conducted, but it is too distant from the Atlantic coast to meet our local wants in this section. Our work on this coast differs in some particulars from our work in the section of Atlanta, or the valley of the Mississippi. Its peculiar phases cannot be met by those who live at a distance from us, and are not conversant with the exigencies and demands of this section. The people will have greater interest for Their Own Paper, that lives and sympathizes with them than can be awakened for one coming to them from a distance, and managed by comparative strangers.

It will be larger than the FREE CITIZEN, will be Issued Bi-weekly, at the low price of ONE DOLLAR A YEAR Payment in advance.

Some of the ablest writers of our church in this section will contribute to its columns. Methodist Ministers of the M. E. Church, traveling and local are agents for this paper. Let those who read this notice get at once in getting up a list of subscribers.
