

Local Matter.

For Sale.
A fine Cow and calf. Apply for price and description at this office.

Services Next Sunday.
There will be services in the Littleton street church next Sunday morning by a visiting minister. Rev. A. B. Earle, the pastor, is quite unwell yet, but is gradually improving.

Wanted.
To rent or lease a farm of about 100 acres, containing wood, water and some pasture land. Must be located near some good white school. Leave terms and location of land at this office.

To Rent.
Unfurnished boarding house, containing 7 bed-rooms, large dining-room, spacious parlor and kitchen. Lights and water in the house. Irresponsible parties need not apply. Send in your name and address to this office for further particulars.

The Home of the "Kalb" Gem.
We extend thanks to our friend, Mr. J. W. Young, of DeKalb for two fine cabbages, and a splendid specimen of the "Kalb" Gem watermelon, which were left at our office on Friday. See reports crops very good in his section, especially corn.

Wanted.
Each and every one of our readers to patronize home enterprise as represented by The People. Our job work is par excellence, and while some of our patrons of that line have not much of a voice for abating, all of them give willing testimony to the quality and price of our work.

The Day of the Automobile.
The automobile has come to stay. Ours has not, but Dr. J. W. Corbett and Mr. C. C. Moore are the happy possessors of two very handsome machines which are the envy and admiration of all the small boys, with a sprinkling of the big ones, and a holy terror to a few timid horses.

A Card of Thanks.
Twice within this year the heavy hand of affliction has fallen on us, and in each case the resolution would have been almost unshakable but for the deep sympathy and ready help of the good people of Camden. The feeling that we were strangers in a strange land has been dispelled, and every kindness and courtesy is treasured in our hearts, and if fate ever kindly gives us an opportunity shall be returned.
Thanking all, we are gratefully,
Mr. & Mrs. Scott Brown.

Almost A Fire.
Considerable alarm was created at the Workman House on Friday by the discovery of fire in the room of Mr. G. S. Higgins, one of the boarders. Mr. Gay, the clerk, and aunt Tenah were quickly on the spot, and soon had the fire under control. It is supposed to have originated by a rat striking a match in a pile of newspapers in a corner of the room.
We congratulate Mr. Higgins on his slight loss, he being in Atlanta at the time of the conflagration.

Fine Dog Dead.
Our Dog editorial had not been written twenty minutes when our dog reporter brought in the information that Mr. W. E. DeLoache's fine Collie had died in front of the Camden Bank after having several convulsions. It is presumed that the dog was not mad, but had been poisoned.

However that may be, if the dog had been at home, it is probable that he would still be in proper condition to bark at the moon.

Advertising Pays.
An advertisement in a live paper pays at any season of the year. Proof: Last week we advertised for sale, a cow and calf. They are now in green fields and pastures new.
For Rent: A certain cottage. It is now occupied by, we suppose, a happy and contented family.
Found: A pocketbook with money in it. Within two hours after The People appeared, the loser was in possession of her property, after dividing its contents with the editor.
To Rent: Boarding House.
Wanted: More job work at the office of The People. Lots of it same in with more to follow.
For Sale: Stock cow, 7 months old.
Moral: Advertise in The People. We wish to do you good.

Attention Harvards!
The surviving soldiers and sailors of the late war between the States, are hereby notified to meet at the time and place named below, on the first Saturday, the 6th day of August between the hours of 12 m. and 3 p. m. for the purpose of electing one of their number to serve on the pension board for the ensuing year:
DeKalb township, Opera house, Wateree township, Lugoff, Buffalo township, Bethune, Flat Rock township, Westville. W. F. Russell, Ch'm Pension Board, C. C.

County Campaigns.
The following are the dates upon which the county campaign meetings will be held:
Rabon's X Roads, Fri., Aug. 5, Blaney, Saturday, Aug. 6, Bethune, Thursday, Aug. 11, Westville, Saturday, Aug. 13, Camden, Saturday, Aug. 20.

Candidates are reminded that pledges must be filed and assessments paid not later than twelve o'clock on Friday, August 5, and executive committees are requested to send in at once the names of three managers to serve at their respective precincts.

A Midsummer Marriage.
Cupid is supposed to be a rather lazy fellow during these hot Summer days, but that he threw off that tired feeling to some purpose last week was proven on Thursday, the 28th, ult.

On that date Mr. J. S. Brasington was happily united in the bonds of wedlock to Miss Lillie Owens, Justice J. D. McDowell, officiating.

The fortunate groom is one of our earliest paid subscribers, to which fact he may partially attribute his recent good luck, as all good things come to those who read and pay for The People.

The bride is a winsome lady, and it is our sincere hope that the pathway of the couple as trod by them through life, will be strewn with thornless roses.

Stolen.
On or about July 28th, one hundred and fifty (150) pounds of meat. Liberal reward paid if same is promptly delivered at the office of The People, and no questions asked.

Sam and Jake.
Sam's mouth was stretched from ear to ear when he met Jake on last Saturday at the rear of Mr. Geisenheimer's, just in front of Mr. Crosby's ice house. From the street he had just seen Jake beat Bennie out of a piece of ice about the size of an egg, which he had slyly slipped down his back, for reasons which Sam pretty well suspected.

This, together with the fact that he had not seen his friend since the Smokey Hollow Camp-meeting, and was primed for a good talk, had put him in all kinds of a good humor. His first remark, after slapping Jake on that part of the back where the ice was doing the most good, was: "How am dat cider, Jake, wha' dat Mr. Parks hab out in de wood?"

"Luk er heah, Sam, dat was one of dem job wha' dem raskil white boy dat de bode 'low on de ground', put up on dis niggah, an' I doan wan' ter heah no mo' 'bout him."
"Dat's allrite Jake. I no wan' mek yu mad, but wusn't he cider sho nuff? I kno' dat yu go off in de wood after ya fill up on him, ter tek er nup, w'en de Elder wus er hollerin' fer yu ter lead in de singin' of de sockdolerger, but I tink ya jest tired."
"Yes he wus cider sho nuff, but he hab suppin else in him wha' mek um tas' better. Den I wus full of ol' sister 'Cretia fry chicken, w'ich togedder wid de upitfin' ob de sperrit cause' by dat powerful surgent wha' de Elder preach 'bout 'castin' 'side de ting ob de flesh,' mek me tek a little too much ob dat doctahed stuff."
"Wha' yu do den, Jake?"
"Do? I go out in de wood an' lie down by er ol' dead pine, tinkin' I res' up'er leetle, but I didna stay dere long."
"An' cos why, Jake?"
"Cos de Elder tex' kinder git mix up in my wool, an' steed ob castin' out de ting ob de flesh, I fin dat I wus gittin er lot ob sting in de flesh."
"An' how wus dat, Jake?"
"How? How? Wy dat ol' pine wus full ob ancesters, da's how, an' I got er million ob em on me."
"Ancestor! Well dat am er good un. Yu is erbout de big-gis' fool ob er nigger I ebber see. Man, dem wus red bug."
"Ente yu tink I kno' dat, but dat am w'at dat new man dey got at de Wukman House, dat Mr. Jolly call him, an' he soun' better dat way. Well Sam, I is kinder in er hurry today. Dey tell me dat Mr. Robin Zemp hab suppin at he sto' w'at dey call "Witehall" w'at am mity good for anceser bite, an' I is guine try um. —Have you seen Smith? Not John Smith, but Henry A. Smith. He wants to sell you an exact copy of a Government map, 36 x 44 inches with every location accurately shown for 98 cts. A good thing.

—Rev. A. E. Crane, formerly pastor of the Baptist church here but now of Orlando, Fla., is with us for a few weeks. During those weeks, he expects to make somebody happy. See our matrimonial column next week.

—Mr. E. F. York, one of Hirsch Bros. and Co.'s popular salesmen, is off on a short visit to Ramseur, N. C., his old home. Cupid may claim a slight interest in this trip, but York says that he is merely going to see his father and other relatives.

—Col. F. M. Mixon was in the city last week in the interest of Silver Brook Rye. We tried a sample of it several years ago, and it was then all right. The Colonel is one of our ex-State dispensers, and it is said that rebates had no charms for him.

—Comptroller General, A. W. Jones was in the city a few hours on Friday. He was on his return to Columbia after an official visit to Lancaster and Kershaw. We were almost as well pleased to meet him as we are that he has no opposition in his stand for re-election.

Founded.
Dr. F. Leslie Zemp, already pleasantly mentioned in another column of this issue, was the central figure in a FOUNDING at Masonic Hall on Tuesday night, where on behalf of the lodge, Bro. M. L. Smith, in his inimitable manner, presented him with a magnificent Shriners' Badge.

This was a complete surprise to Dr. Zemp, which made the token of love and esteem infinitely more valuable.

Notary Public Card.
See the card of Mr. W. R. Pinckney in this issue. He can do anything in the line of Notary Public work as well as we, or any other Notary except marry folks. There we have him.

Again Remembered.
Our good friends and subscribers, Messrs. W. R. and H. B. Barfield, of Cantey, have our thanks, the first for a fine beet and splendid head of cabbage, and the latter for a bushel (more or less) of horse apples.
We include in this note of thanks, Mr. W. E. Hendrix, of the Beulah section, for a couple of nice watermelons, the sight of which alone would make your mouth water.

Our Firemen.

The Court House.
We had hoped to give our readers the very last information in the court house matter, but as great bodies always move slowly, we will have to keep you a week longer in suspense. In making the remark, we do not wish it understood that we are a great body, even if we are "The People." It applies entirely to the Board of Commissioners, who, having so many desirable sites to select from, are unable as yet to reach a definite decision. Preserve your equilibrium, friends, and await with time and patience what the future will bring forth on this vastly important question.

VOTERS.

For the Legislature.
We desire to announce as a candidate for re-election to the House of Representatives the Hon. M. L. SMITH, subject to the result of the ensuing Democratic primary. No greater tribute can be paid to his ability than the fact that he was a gentlemanly elected Speaker of that body after only one term's service, and we feel justified in asserting that his record is one in which the whole State has an interest and pride.
MANY VOTERS.

We beg to announce the name of the Hon. JOHN G. RICHARDS, Jr., as a candidate for re-election to the House of Representatives, at the ensuing Democratic primary election, and subject to the result of the same. No one has served a constituency more zealously and efficiently than Mr. Richards. He is justly regarded as one of the most conscientious, safest and ablest legislators in the State, and his record certainly justifies the estimate. Kershaw county can do better than bestow her approval on this faithful official by re-electing him to the responsible position to which he again aspires.
MANY VOTERS.

For County Treasurer.
Mr. W. R. Hough having announced his intention not to stand for re-election, we hereby place in nomination a most worthy successor, Mr. W. F. MALONE for the office of County Treasurer. VOTERS.

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for Sheriff in the approaching primary election of the Democratic party. Mr. Editor: Please announce that Mr. J. S. TRANTHAM will be a candidate for re-election to the office of Sheriff, subject to the Democratic Primary.
Friends.

To the voters of Kershaw county: At the earnest solicitation of my friends, I hereby come before you as a candidate for the office of Sheriff of our county. I deem it unnecessary to say anything in relation to my administration of said office during the terms that I served. My record is before you, and I cannot resist the temptation to thank my friends for their support in the past, and pledge myself to do my utmost to fill the position so that they will have nothing to regret if they should elect me, and I pledge myself to abide the result of the Democratic Primary election.
R. B. WILLIAMS.

For County Supervisor.

Editor The People: Please allow us space to suggest the name of Mr. H. M. FINCHER as a most suitable candidate for the office of Magistrate of DeKalb Township. Mr. Fincher is a thoroughly good man of intelligence and capacity more than amply sufficient to worthily fill the office. We hope that he will stand for election.
DEKALB TOWNSHIP.

Many friends to Law and Order hereby place in nomination for re-election Mr. J. D. McLOWERY for the office of Magistrate for DeKalb Township in the approaching Democratic primary. Mr. McDowell, as a Magistrate, needs no comment at our hands. Since he has filled the office, crime of every description has largely decreased, and those who have committed it, when brought before him have been severely punished—the surest method of deterring others from committing similar offenses. You vote for your own interests, friends, when you vote for Mr. J. D. McDowell.
LAW AND ORDER.

For Clerk of Court.
Believing in the old Democratic principle of "rotation in office," we, friends of Hon. G. W. MOSLEY, present, with much pleasure, his name to the voters of Kershaw County as a candidate for Clerk of Court. Mr. Mosley is a tried man, honest and capable, who will give satisfaction to all the people if elected. We respectfully solicit your support of him in the approaching Democratic primary.
