On the 2nd. inst. Mr. J. W. Davis (not the preacher) was presented by his good lady with a fine boy. May the youngster grow up into as good a man as his father is about as well as we could wish him.

Council Again Completed.
Mr. C. R. Lewis was unanimously nominated on Tuesday to fill out the unexpired term in the city council, which position was made vacant by the death of our lamented friend, Mr. S. B. Latham.
Mr. Lewis has served us before in the capacity of Alderman, and no one stands higher in the esteem and confidence of the community.

Under New Management.
The City Opera House will hereafter be under the management of Messrs. W. J. P. Weeks and W. R. (not W. H.) Zemp. These gentlemen promise the people numbers of attractions during the season, and have already booked six companies for various dates. We bespeak a liberal patronage for Messrs. Weeks and Zemp.

To My Old friends And Patrons—Greeting:

Gallery Again Opened.

Satisfaction in work and prices fully guaranteed. Gallery on Main Street, one door North of The People's office.

—Read every line in our advertisements from now on. There is meat in every one of them. Always mention The People.
—We love a good liar when we know that there is no malice in his deviation from the truth, but we have no use for the fellow who deliberate votes a ticket different to that he has solemnly pledged himself to us or anybody to vote. That kind of voter will stab you in the back.

PERSONAL.

—Mrs. J. E. Alexander and daughter have returned from their visit to Florence.

—Mr. C. H. Deal, Jr., of Concord, N. C., spent Sunday with his uncle's, Mr. C. H. Deal's, family.

—Mr. J. Kelly Nelson of Sumner spent a few hours in the city on Friday of last week with his father's family.

—Rev. Jabez Ferris of the Camden Baptist Church returned home last week and filled his pulpit on Sunday. He is looking well.

—Miss Lela Johnson has returned to her home in the Marshall section after spending a pleasant week with the family of Mr. G. M. Turner.

—Dr. I. H. Alexander is doing about as well as could be expected considering the nature of his illness which requires a tedious period of time to cure.

—Mr. Jesse Gardner, the urban carrier of the Bethune R. R. No. 1 mail was in the city on Saturday looking after the organization of the Kershaw County R. R. Carriers.

—We had the pleasure of meeting our new clothing &c. merchant, Mr. Nathan Levy the other day. He appears to be all of a brother of his brother, Louis, a friend of long standing, and we take pleasure in introducing him in this manner to our subscribers and the trading public.

—Mr. M. Baum has returned after summing it on the Jersey coast. He is looking well, says he is feeling well, and we believe him. It is with regret that we feel obliged to give him only forty years longer to live, but in that brief space he can be a power for good to the people, and The People.

—Mr. P. T. Villepigue has returned to his home apparently much improved after a season spent at Saluda, N. C. We mean improved in health of course, for mentally and morally P. T. is all right.

—Col. Geo. Bell Timmerman was an interested student of our primary bulletin board on Thursday last. He expresses himself as thoroughly satisfied with the result in this county in his race for Solicitor.

—Our good friend, J. Walter Brown can be found with The Hub. We are in daily expectation of a large sized ad. from this new concern. Advertising pays, especially in The People.

—Mr. T. S. Myers is again in God's country, having deserted the village of Cheraw, and taken a position with Mr. Genseheimer in his mammoth furniture emporium in this city. We are glad to have "Buster" with us again.

—It is with pleasure that we announce that Miss Daisy Young is now with Hirsch Bros & Co where she will be pleased to meet and serve all her old friends and to make new ones. The young lady is slightly related to us, so a trade with her is naturally a trade with us.

—We have all kinds of good words to say about Reubert, Timmerman, Trantham, Williams, Hough, McCastill, Rabon, Russell, Dixon and Sowell, and we wish that all the people could vote for them all in the second race. As they cannot do that, we hope that they will vote for the best men.

—A marriage of interest was that of Dr. A. A. Moore Jr. to Miss Agnes Vredenburg of New York last week. The happy couple will make a honeymoon tour through Europe.

—Those who want 9c. and better for their cotton will read with some interest the ad. of Mr. C. C. Vaughan in this issue.

—The friends of Mr. W. J. P. Weeks are glad to have them with us again. We hope that they enjoyed the honeymoon trip much, and the return home more.

—Master Joel Hough has left us to resume his course of study at Clemson.

—Mr. S. O. Goodale, of Patricks, S. C. was in the city on Tuesday. He is a handsome fellow, and bearing the name he does, we were naturally attracted to him.

—Our beautiful little friend Miss Helen Geisenheimer has returned from a much enjoyed visit to Orangeburg.

—Miss Carrie Hough is now visiting friends and relatives at Moss Miss. We wish her a pleasant time, and a safe return.

Desirable Plantation For Rent or Sale.

The One Day Cold Cure.
Kermeth's Chocolate Laxative Quinine for cold in the head and sore throat. Children take them like candy.

BREVITIES.

—A primary election, as at present conducted, is a monumental farce. We were told that it was instituted for the purpose of securing a free and untrammelled opinion by the majority of the voters, intelligently expressed. Does it accomplish that purpose? Yes. Nit.

—"THE HUB" A hub, properly oiled will make a number of revolutions during one and many seasons. Investigate the new one in Carrisons old store. The parties running it are alright.

—Lots of Machinery, and parts are sold in this section throughout the year. Why haven't we an ad. or so running along that line so as to show people where they can get what they need?

—We never put on airs, but read this paper. If you do not like it, we will feel inclined to convict you of an error of judgment as to what constitutes good reading.

—When the people have an opportunity to test the claim of anyone that they have a good thing, it is their duty to test that claim. Nathan Levy says he has it.

Poisoning Dogs.
We note through the columns of a contemporary that a number of dogs have been poisoned recently in the community. As our comment on this act, we will say that any man who will poison a dog will steal, and if he has a grudge against you, will commit murder to satisfy that grudge, always provided that he can strike the blow in the back.
