—Mr. J. Sumter Rhame has gone to Charleston to attend the Charleston Medical College.

—Mr. Jno. F. Jenkins returned last Saturday from a short trip up North.

□—Dr. S. Baruch is on a short visit to Mr. Mannes Baum.

—Mr and Mrs. David R. Williams and family have returned from their summer trip to the mountains.

—Mr. H. I. DePass, formerly of Camden, is in town.

—Mr. Mandeville and wife are in their winter home on the Hobkirk Hill, again.

—Mr. Fairly Arthur, who for some has been at work in Columbia, is in Camden again.

—Mrs. T. S. Myers, of Cheraw paid a flying visit to Camden on last Friday. We hope to have her with us permanently within a few weeks.

—Prof. J. C. P. Williams, of Ridgeway, was with us again last week, and seemed to enjoy our narrative of Jo. and Ike Bowers. See the point?

—Our good friend and cousin, Mr. J. S. Gardner, paid up his policy the other day. He is one of the most substantial citizens in upper Kershaw.

—Our good friend, Mr. E. E. Andrews, of Spartanburg, paid us a pleasant call on Saturday. He is a valued subscriber, and his life is insured for one year.

—Rabbi Jacob Simenhoff of Charleston was a welcome visitor at our office on Monday. He came up to perform the rite of circumcision for the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Eichel.

—The many friends of Master Henry Workman will learn with pleasure that he is rapidly improving. He is undergoing a course of treatment in Atlanta for that slight deformity of the leg from which he has suffered almost from his birth.

—Mr. R. L. Barstow has returned from Cape May, N. J. fully armed and equipped to make things lively for poloists and such other foeman as he may find worthy of his steel in the sporting world. We are glad to see him back.

Notary Public Work.

We do not want any of our friends to think that because we are editing The People, we cannot find time to do anything for them in the line of Notary Public work, from tying up a couple to the Queen's taste, to writing a love letter for any love-sick swain or swainess.

Our outside qualifications consist of the ability, and authority to write and probate any legal paper from a title to real estate, down to a simple affidavit. Call on us for anything in our line.

BREVITIES.

—The Victor Spring bed is receiving favorable comment from all those who have purchased one or more from Mr. Geisenheimer. They are cheap and always please.

—The People's restaurant is doing a fair business, but can generally scrape up enough of first-class victuals at short notice to make the average eater feel that he ought to be a Camden Alderman even if he is not one already.

—If you enjoy night-horses, you do not want the Victor Spring bed. If you do not, you do. See Mr. Geisenheimer and examine the bed.

—That culvert in front of the Camden Hotel is gradually, very gradually materializing. The only evidence, however, that we may secure the fulfillment of the promise to give it to us is one brick, and that, we are inclined to believe, was shied at a stray rat by some boy after 9 o'clock at night when all well regulated boys are supposed to be at home, either studying their lessons, or in bed.

—To see is to believe, to feel is to know. One night spent on a Victor Spring bed will make you not only believe, but know that it is the best.

—Mr. D. Wolfe reports a good trade for the season so far. We do not ascribe all of it to his ad. in The People, for Mr. Wolfe gives you honest value for honest money. A little more thrown in sometimes does not throw Dave into a fever, as object is no money to him.

—Delays are dangerous. The Victor Spring Bed Company may go under. Then where are you if you haven't one or more? You are simply not in it.

—We call particular attention to the two ads. of Messrs. Schenk & Co. They have special bargains in buggies, wagons and road carts, and as for overalls, we just want the working people to go and see them.

—Nathan Levy is certainly a Looker. His watch, picture and free shoe shine offer are all drawing cards, especially when advertised in the right kind of a circulating medium. We are one of those.

—It reminds us of Forepaugh's circus to see the crowd in front of the Gilt Edge at 3 o'clock on every Saturday. Everybody wants that five dollars, but only one gets it. The other fellows say —A hub sometimes revolves slowly, but The Hub, as revolved by Messrs. Baruch and Brown, is a good proposition. Call there when in the city, and go away satisfied with the good bargain you got.

—Col. A. D. Kennedy's new line of farm supplies is a revelation to farmers and others engaged in farming operations in this and adjoining counties. Do not go anywhere else for what you want in that line until you see him.
