

More About Bagging and Ties.
 Mr. Editor: We have had some changes in the wind for the last two weeks, which relates to the purchase of cotton with over six yards of bagging &c.
 Now let us ask you a question or two. Is it a fact that our cotton is being reduced in price enough to give the purchasers say thirty-two pounds to the bale? If so then we lose that much; then we buy the bagging back again, the consequences are that we lose it twice and they, the purchasers make it in the deal.
 Now where are we drifting? It occurs that the farmers interest is withering and must sooner or later fall!
 While the ball has been put in motion, we would like some information as to the justice and equity in this traffic.
 We are not writing this in any hostile or political spirit, as we do not want any office nor would we have any county office in the gift of the people. We only want meat and bread and it justly meted out to us. So we hope the the dealers will let up, give us a chance to work our shoulders, and all will be well!
 FARMER.

 Oct. 17— There was no services at Mt. Zion and Beaverdam churches last Sunday on account of the pastor attending the Kershaw Baptist Association held with Providence church.
 The Pine Grove School was reopened on Monday last with Miss Allie Dundy of West Wateree as principal. Miss Allie taught our school last winter and was much liked by all of the patrons.
 Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Stokes of the Tilers Ferry section was in our community last Sunday.
 Mr. Leonard Reynolds of the Scrock Mill section and Miss Maggie Brannon of Bethune was in our section last Sunday.
 The community at large regret the fact that Mr. C. Stokes will not continue to operate his gin and saw-mill on account of the boiler not being in repair.
 Mr. Stokes is trying to sell out the entire outfit at a reduced price and it is hoped by all that some one will buy the machinery and put it in operation at once as this part of the country is badly in need of a gin.
 Frost has made its appearance at last, but owing to the exceeding dry weather it was light.
 Mr. Jesse L. Myers is now with Mr. C. B. Spradley in the portrait business and may be expected to call upon you (the public) at any time.
