

PERSONAL.

—Hon. John. G. Richards of Liberty Hill brightened our sanctum Tuesday night for an hour or so. He is a visitor whom we are always glad to meet.

—We were pleased to meet Mr.—Moore of Savannah this week. Mr. M. is, we think connected with Mr. Smith (Henry A., not John) in the sale of the very excellent State map for which Mr. Smith is agent.

—Mr. T. A. Myers, now of Sumter, paid a flying visit to our city on Tuesday. We suppose that he wanted to note the growth of the new baby.

—Mr.—Gay has resigned his position with the Hotel de Workman, and has returned to his home at Jefferson. All who knew him regret the loss of him

—Our young friend, Miss Bettie Hammond has resigned her position with the telephone company, much to the regret of all who have enjoyed the good service she gave us as central operator.

—Mr. and Mrs. E. Scott Brown have returned to us from their Summer visit to North Carolina. We welcome them back with open arms. They have purchased the Rich property on Main St, and will erect a modern hotel on the site in a short time.

—We had the pleasure of meeting Mr. Brown, the representative of The Victor Spring Bed, the bed that Mr. Geisenheimer is having such a large sale on. Mr. Brown is quite clever, and we want all of our people to call on Mr. Geisenheimer and look into the merits of "THE VICTOR."

BREVITIES.

—When "Exhausted nature seeks repose," what can be more pleasant than to have a "VICTOR SPRING BED" on which to repose your weary limbs? Nothing can equal it. Mr. Geisenheimer has them. Call on him.

—Messrs. Hirsch Bros. & Co. are almost overworked and need more help. Their business has grown mammothly since the commencement of the publication of their ad. in The People. This is as it should be. Let the good work go on.

—Are you dyspeptic? Have you a tired feeling? Are you affected with a cough or cold? Suffer no longer, my friends. Simply go to the Drug Store of Dr. F. Leslie Zemp. He has your medicine. See his ad.

—A good thing is always a good thing. Mr. Geisenheimer has it. Call on him and examine "THE VICTOR SPRING BED." It is the finest, and once you try it you will never deny it, and will be willing to try it again.

—Do not forget that that $5.00 offer of The Gilt Edge still holds. We are not much of a gambler, but do not consider that offer a gambling scheme. If it was P. T. would not play it. We played it last week. Lost of course, but we have not lost heart. There are other days.

—It makes one tired merely to look upon the work that Baruch, the manager of The Hub has to compel his clerks to do in handling the tremendous amount of business the firm is doing. Good values for small money, however always count, and The Hub is said to give them.

Owing to the fact that I will be compelled to employ extra help in order to properly handle the crowds that I expect to patronize "The People's Restaurant" during Carnival Week, all are notified that I will furnish no meals during that week at less than 35 cts. I will feed you well, and invite your patronage.
W. A. Schrock, Prop.

—The business of Schenk & Co., is said to have increased in a phenomenal degree since the placing of their ad. in the people. In wagons, buggies, &c., they report fine sales, and all one has to do is to look at any workman wearing a pair of overalls to know that they came from this firm if the goods appear to be the finest.

Mount Zion Section.

Oct. 31.—The box supper at Mr. E. P. Shedd's on Wednesday night 26th. was quite an enjoyable affair. Owing to the bad weather none but the young people of the community attended and the boys seemed eager to show their appreciation of the "home" girls from the way they bid on the many pretty boxes, baskets and cakes. Mr. and Mrs. Shedd deserve many thanks for their kind treatment to all present. The net profits of the supper was $25.05 which will be added to the sum already on hand and used to purchase a wire fence for the cemetery at Mt. Zion Church.

Mrs. H. T. Myers is visiting relatives in the Tillers Ferry section.

Mr. Leonard Brannon and Mr. Hoag, of Bethune, were in the community on Sunday.

Mr. Rob Lee has accepted a position with Mr. E. Schnadaressi of Camden.

Miss Kate Wilson, of Camden, has been visiting friends in this section.

Mr. J. L. Stokes of The Gilt Edge store, spent Sunday at his old home here.

Miss Beulah Stokes one of our most popular young ladies is spending some time with her sister Mrs. R. B. Ellitt in the Beaverdam section.

Miss Margaret Bruce McDonnell, of Columbia has taken charge of the Beaverdam school.

Messes Cora Myers and Allie Dunn spent several days of last week at Columbia enjoying the many sights of the fair.

Mr. J. M. Hall and sons, Joe and Bunyan, spent several days of last week in N. C.

Mr. C. Stokes has decided to repair his gunnery, and will be ready for business at an early date.

Your scribe attended a box supper at Sandy Grove church on Saturday night last, but owing to the large amount of "booze" the crowd was indulging in, we with several others were utterly disgusted. We do not see any excuse at all for a young man with ordinary intelligence to lay aside his self respect at any time, but when it comes to using the church for a place of sport and worldly amusement, it is time to call a halt and see where you are drifting. Our view of the case is that the young ladies are responsible to a large extent for the way that the young men conduct themselves. If they would absolutely refuse to associate with the "rowdies" or any but those of gentlemanly manners, it would cause a reformation partial if not complete.

If signs are infallible we may have a marriage to report soon. Guess what young man called on some girls and did not hitch the horse and had to go off walking.

Married.

There was a beautiful home wedding in Lancaster today, Tuesday. At 10:30 o'clock this morning, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Johnson, one of their lovely daughters, Miss Margaaet N. Johnson, was married to Mr. Francis L. Zemp, Jr., of Camden. The ceremony was performed by Dr. J. H. Boldridge, pastor of the Baptist church in the presence of a number of invited guests. The bridal couple left on the Southern's southbound train, for their future home. There was an elegant reception at the Johnson home last evening, which was largely attended and greatly enjoyed by all present.

The above notice is from the Lancaster Enterprise, and we take the occasion to extend congratulations to the young couple. We know and love the groom, and feel assured that Frank with his eye for beauty and discriminating taste in the general excellency in women has made no mistake in his choice in a wife, while Mrs. Zemp is to be congratulated in her choice of a husband.

Mrs. Flora Mae Williams was united in marriage to Mr. Vernon Crump yesterday afternoon at 6:30 o'clock, at her residence, 304 East Uintah street. The simple, impressive ceremony of the Episcopal church was performed by the Rev. Arthur N. Taft, in the presence of a few intimate friends.

The bride is from Chattanooga, Tenn., and came only recently to Colorado Springs to be with a friend who is here to enjoy the benefit of Colorado's glorious climate. Mr. Crump, who also recently came to Colorado is from Portsmouth Virginia. They met for the first time in Colorado Springs only a few months ago. Both are prominent in the exclusive circles of their southern homes and possess a host of friends who are being surprised this morning with the graphic communications informing them of the rapid and victorious campaign of Dan Cupid.

After the marriage ceremony a most delightful dinner was served at the Antlers hotel. Those who enjoyed the happy and merry occasion with Mr. and Mrs. Crump were Mr. and Mrs. Robert N. Blair of Philadelphia, Miss Huitas Bane of Chicago, Mrs. Esther C. Smith and Mr. James C. Robertson of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Crump will reside indefinitely in Colorado Springs.—Colorado Springs Gazette.

We publish with pleasure the above account of the marriage of our friend, Colonel Vernon Crump. He is a valued subscriber, and we were pleased to learn that he has got into the same pleasant kind of trouble that we got into about sixteen years ago. We wish him and his bride a long and happy life.

That all is not gloom or gloomy in "the Lost Territory" is shown by the record of four marriages last week in that miscalled section of our county West Waterce.

At Columbia, on the Morning of Oct. 26th, Mr. Geo. Watts to Miss Annie Rabon.

On Oct. 27th, Mr. Willie Hinson to Miss Jesse Kelley.

On Oct. 28th, at Columbia, Mr. Benj. Bowen to Miss Eva Kelley.

On Oct. 30th by Judge Newton Kelley, Mr. Jerry Branham to Miss Mamie Branham.

All these couples have the best wishes of The People for a long and happy life. If our space permitted, we would give them all a longer notice.
