Danger of a Cough.
Pneumonia, grippe, cold, bronchitis and nearly every other dangerous sickness of this kind is usually the development of a slight cough. Too many people are usually laid up and too many die from diseases where they could so easily knock that first cough in the head. Murray's Horehound Mullein and Tar cures colds. It just drops the bottom out of cough. Every druggist has it for 25c a bottle. Remember "Murray's" and take no other. Regular 50c. size.

Lands for Rent.
I have for rent one, two to six horse farms on the Witte Place. Also pasturage of the best kind for all, man or beast.
Renters wanted of the better class. Others taken if the necessity arises. I can pasture however, man or beast without respect to quality.
Thos. J. Smyrl

Lost or Stolen.
A "CLIPPER" Bicycle was taken from my premises on Friday night, the 28th. ult. Reward will be paid, and no questions asked if same is returned to the office of The People. If not returned, the party will be looked up and prosecuted to the full extent of the law.

To Cure a Cough.
The coughs so prevalent these days usually develop before you realize what has happened. Now the best thing to do is to take the most reliable cough cure you can get. None better than Murray's Horehound Mullein and Tar. It is made of the purest ingredients and can be given to infants as well as grown people. Above all else it CURES. You will find it in all druggists. 25c. a bottle—extra large bottle.

SPECIAL NOTICE.
This is to state that we want all the patronage that we can get for "The Peoples Restaurant," but we want to say further that we insist on perfect order being maintained by the patrons of it while on our premises. Since opening up this restaurant there has been two disgraceful exhibitions of disorder by representatives of what is known as the better class of our citizens. We happened to be on the premises at one time, and owing to the respect and regard that the young men concerned entertained for us, succeeded easily in stopping it. In the last case we happened not to be on the ground, and we have been given to understand that "Rome was made to howl." This kind of conduct may go on the Bowers, but it don't go here, and this will give fair warning that on the next occasion of disorder in our restaurant, Mayor Garrison will take a hand in it.
It is mortifying to say the least of it, that young men, gently bred, should at times act like hoodlums and toughs. It has been said that a gentleman, if a gentleman, will be a gentleman always, so prove it boys.

BREVITIES.

—Just about the handsomest little turnout in the way of a pony and carryall, is that of little Sara Wolfe. It was presented to her by her father, Mr. D. Wolfe on the occasion of her recent birthday.

—We flatter ourselves that we have enough reading matter of an original nature in this issue to satisfy any reasonable reader of a country weekly. If, however, "our folks" (H. T. J. please take notice) are not satisfied, kindly advise us.

—It will be noted that most of our reading matter is contained on these two pages. This is not at all a disadvantage to the advertisers whose ads. appear on them. Almost every word in The People is read by all, and the location of an ad. in it is of small consequence.

—Our brain pan may not be as capacious as that of Ben Tilmans, in as much as we haven't met with the success, politically that he has. It may not be up in volume or quality to that of Judge Parker, but what there is in it is being expended in the interest of our people. Stand by us, people, and we will stand by you.

—Which is the better policy: digging out ditches or filling them up? We pause for a reply. The policy of our present council seems to be to dig them out, and to throw the soft, mushy matter taken from them into the center of the roadway, thinking perhaps, in sweet ignorance that it would assist in making a firm foundation for ye Saints of the Lord to travel on.

—Let everybody read Sam and Jake this week. We confess to having written it under difficulties, but we think you will find it to be about the richest piece of dialect matter, including the prelude that you have seen lately. All will understand that these two characters are purely imaginary, but that does not affect the fact that we teach a certain lesson in each and every mention of SAM AND JAKE.

—That "modern Ananias" we had occasion to exhortate a few weeks ago could last week have come down and called us "another" without a word of protest on our part. Main street was simply horrible. Why is this thus? What is called a skim-coating of sand and gravel upon the already splendid street foundation we have, would make Main street of the city of Camden the finest thoroughfare in any city in the state.

—We are much pleased to present for consideration of our readers the full page ad. of Mr. M. Baum. Mr. Baum is the ranking merchant in point of age in business, and we think carries perhaps the largest stock. During the long period that he has conducted business here, we have had many seasons of business depression, but this firm continued in the even tenor of its way, and is now stronger, financially than even in its palmiest days. Read Mr. Baum's ad. carefully. It is well and plainly written, and he means exactly what he says.

—We are glad to note the return of quite a number of our Northern guest of last season, and of other seasons. Personal mention of them will be found in another column. While we must acknowledge that we are thoroughly unacquainted, we can meet, appreciate, love and admire individuals from every section, and when a Northerner or, more properly a Yankee comes among us, fraternizes with us, and we know that he understands us, then he is as good a fellow in our opinion as the other fellow.

—There is a woeful dearth of legal advertisements in our columns. Why is this thus? Is it because of the small circulation of The People? Hardly, we think. We will match live circulation with either of our two contemporaries. Is it because of prejudice towards the editor and owner of this paper? Perhaps that has something to do with it but we hope not, as we have done more favors than dis-favors to this class of the advertising public. We will take the large and tolerant view that they do not love Caesar less, but they love Rome more, and let it go at that.

PERSONAL.
—Mr. H. C. Singleton of Bishopville, is with us for a short visit. We are glad to see him again.
—Dr. L. B. Paltz, of Port Kent, N. Y. has returned to the center of civilization, (Camden) accompanied by his friend, Dr. Gray.
—Mr. D. G. Fletcher, of Westville, was in the city on Saturday. Dave has fallen off some in flesh, but has made up the loss in grace and beauty.
—Mr. W. J. Rawlins, accompanied by his charming wife, attended the Burns-Braillesford wedding last week. Mr. R. has returned to his home at Rock Hill, leaving Mrs. Rawlins with us for a brief visit.
—Messrs. J. L. Stokes and R. Lee, two of Camden's finest, spent Sunday at Lugoff. Mr. Stokes is said to have returned very much enthused over the pleasure of his trip. We have not had a report from Mr. Lee.
—Mr. T. Edmund Krumboltz, the popular proprietor of the Hotel Kirtwood, was with us a day or so last week. The object of his visit, we understand was for the purpose of completing arrangements for the early opening of his splendid tourist hostelry.
—Mr. Ben. Ticknor, co-proprietor of the Court Inn was also here for a day last week, presumably on the same errand as that of Mr. Krumboltz. We regretted not to have met either of the two gentlemen this time, but hope to see more of them in the near future.
—Bro. J. J. Myers of Providence was with us again on Monday, and for an hour or so, at our office, gave us the benefit of some of his experiences and observations of men and things. Mr. Myers is a visitor of whom we never grow tired. A man of broad thought, ripe judgement and possessing in our opinion true religion as taught by the meek and lowly Savior, he is one among the few men with whom we can with pleasure discuss theological questions.

PERSONAL.

—"Uncle" Elos Touchberry completed his 80th year of pain, pleasure, sorrow, and all the other aches and pains, and joys and pleasures that go to make up life on the 7th inst. We congratulate him on reaching this green old age, and hope that he may be spared to witness many more birthdays as pleasant as his last.

Society Notes.
The past week has been one of the liveliest that Camden has experienced in many a day.
For the first time in years Sumter and Camden joined forces in celebrating the marriage of their son and daughter, and the guests from the Game Cock city, among whom were: Dr. and Mrs. H. M. Stuckey, Mrs. N. G. Osteen, Misses Monetta Osteen, Jessie Moise, Messrs. Edw. Haynesworth, W. S. Graham, G. A. Lenoir, W. H. Clarke and W. R. Burgess, were given a warm reception in spite of the forbidding elements.
On Saturday at noon Misses Margaret and Mary Burnett entertained the Acorn Club at decidedly one of the most enjoyable Club-Meets of the year. The ideal fall day and the convenient hour of the day brought forth four tables of six hand euchre players, matrons and maids. The guests of honor being Misses Lizzie and Minna Richardson, of Clarendon and Mrs. Alton Miller, of Columbia.
The entertainment was truly Japanese, the house one mass of chrysanthemums, the place cards and score cards, dainty hand painted Japs, while the refreshments were served by Misses Alice Corbett and Kate Lenoir in full Japanese costume, most attractive Gensia girls, with their waiters laden with dainties, such as only a Southern housewife knows how to prepare. The prize was afterwards awarded to Mrs. William DePass, and was the finest of Japanese china tea trays. Miss Minna Richardson cut the consolation.

Church Meeting.
The members of the Camden Baptist church are earnestly requested to meet at their house of worship on next Sunday, 13th inst., at twelve o'clock for the purpose of considering matters pertaining to the church, and a full attendance is desired.

Do You Want a Wagon or Buggy.
L. SCHENK & CO. are sole agents for these parts for the well known, the tried and true makes—
Old Hickory, Russell and Blue Grass.

We think they are the best wagons on this market. If they are not, we know for a certainty they are better than many and as good as any. We have sold wagons for years and ought to know. Take note that we buy in carload lots and our prices therefore are popular.
While on the subject of vehicles, it may be well for you to know that we have a new and roomy ware-house where we are prepared to show all grades of BUGGIES. We are agents for the famous COLUMBIA buggy. It is a good one. If it does not suit you we have others that will. And as for HARNESSES—we can please all sorts and conditions of men. Take a look, it will be to your advantage.

Yours respectfully and for honest business,
