Husband Kills Boarder.

Hagerstown, Md., Special .- A sensa tional murder occurred in this city at 6 o'clock Thursday morning, when Frederick Easton, a horse dealer, shot and instantly killed Lorenz Kline, in cold blood at the home of the former. where Kline was a boarder. Easton claimed that he found Kline and his wife together. After the shooting, Easton was lodged in jail. Easton conducted a boarding house, and Kline boarded with the family. He had been 11 sick for several days, according to the statement of Mrs. Easton and several of the boarders. Mrs. Easton stated that early Wednesday morning Kline called her to his room to administer some tablets, feeling drowsy she reclined on the bed and fell asleep. Her husband, who occupied a front room. on awakening and failing to find his wife in bed, went to Kline's room and found the two asleep. He went out of the house quietly, and crossed the street to the brewery and asked William Andrews, the fireman, to lend him his pistol, saying he wanted the weap on to shoot a mad dog. Securing the pistol, he went back to the house, and entering the room occupied by kline and his wife, advanced to the bed, and leaning over his wife, shot Kline in the left side of the head. The bullet entered above the left temple and passed through Kline's head, being imbedded in the right of his skull which was fractured. The bulet afterwards was removed by physicians. Mrs. Easton was aroused by the report of the pis-Totals.. 208 178 240 146 tol, and jumped up and ran from the room. Easton did not attempt to attack his wife and made no remark to her.
