

SUPPLEMENT TO The People

CAMDEN, SOUTH CAROLINA, NOVEMBER 24, 1904

Mount Zion Section.

Nov. 21.—Mr. W. T. McCoy of Charlotte, N. C. spent a few days of last week with his parents in this section.

Mr. B. A. Watkins and sister, Miss Mary, of Clyde Darlington Co., spent Saturday night and Sunday with relatives here.

Bro. W. S. Walters preached a very interesting sermon at Mt. Zion last Sunday evening. He has only one more appointment to finish the year here and we regret to lose him as his time is taken up at other places.

Mr. A. P. Skinner of Wisacky was with us a few days last week.

We are sorry that Reporter took the view of our comment on the box snpper that he did, but the hit dog always hollers. We made no disparaging remarks about the young ladies or men of the Sandy Grove community in our letter, but on the other hand were in sympathy with them and our expression "utterly disgusted" was borrowed from one of the near residents of the church.

We are aware of the fact that there are just as high toned ladies and gentlemen in the Sandy Grove section as any where and Reporter must also remember that there are other neighborhoods besides his. This is rather a large country and like myself Reporter has never had an opportunity to see much of it and consequently thinks his is the only pebble on the beach.

We did not say in our letter that anyone was drunk, and did not mention the young ladies of the Sandy Grove neighborhood or any other neighborhood, as that paragraph was intended to cover the entire country. If Reporter's muscle is equal to his perceptive ignorance he can easily secure a job that would make Sampson, were he living better with envy.

Better wait till warmer weather sonny as there is danger of the frost biting your tender sensibilities and then you would not be able to throw bombs at me and my "intimates."

Christy Bros.

The singing is a feature with Christy Bros. minstrels. In this particular department it ranks with any minstrel organization traveling. Geo. Christy is the possessor of a deep bass voice, and won several hearty recalls. The work of the chorus was excellent, and the sextette, closing the first part, made a neat musical climax. John Christy and Fred Christy were prominent features in the olio. The former does good work with the bones, and the latter is a monologist of more than average ability. Much attention was centered in the work of Brothers Christy. Their act is full of life and go from start to finish. The company gave a fine performance and are sure of a big house on their visit here Wednesday.—Columbia Record.

See this minstrel at Camden Opera House, November 24.

"THE BATH ROOM FOR MINE!"

is the cry this weather. To make the luxury of a bath thoroughly enjoyable see to it—rather let us see to it—that the tub and all its adjuncts are in excellent order. We make a specialty of sanitary plumbing, understand the installation of the very latest devices and will not ask you too much for our work.
