

Local Matter.

For Sale. One Milch Cow, a good one for sale. Weighs about 1,000 pounds Price $45.00. Apply to, Henry Savage, Camden, S. C.

Sickness. Mr. Bunion Hall, the youngest son of our friend, Mr. J. M. Hall is quite sick with an attack of bilious fever. He will, we hope have a speedy recovery.

For Sale. One Fine Buggy Horse, a good traveller and in good condition for sale. Apply to J. W. Smith, Camden, S. C.

Thanks. The members and congregation of Ebenezer church hereby extend thanks to all those who so kindly assisted in paying for the erection and furnishing their new house of worship.

Religious. Rev. J. F. Kelly requests us to make the standing announcement that services will be held by him at the Society Hill Mission on the first and third Sundays of each month. This Mission is located near K. S. Villepigue's.

An Old Time Remedy. Murray's Horehound Mullen and Tar has in it the parent of drugs. All of which were used by our parents and grand-parents. It is a combination of no put together that it cures a cough right off. Nothing is better for a cough. It is a most reliable cure and all cases of coughs. Ask your druggist for it. They all have it. Get a bottle now and have it ready. Costs only 25c. a bottle—extra large bottles—regular 50c. size. Remember to ask for "Murray's" and take no other.

Lands for Rent. I have for rent one, two to six horse farms on the Wittee Place. Also pasturage of the best kind for all, man or beast. Renters wanted of the better class. Others taken if the necessity arises. I can pasture however, man or beast without respect to quality. Thos. J. Smyrl

Wanted Quick. Two Printers of approved capacity wanted quick at this point. One A Job Printer who knows his business, and both Good compositors. Moderate wages paid at the beginning, with advance, or raise given as the occasion warrants. Address, W. A. Schrock, Pub'r, Camden, S. C. Our exchanges will please copy the above. We will reciprocate.

Birth. Thanksgiving day is, or should be a day of rejoicing, and feasting, and the giving of thanks. From an outside source, we learn that it was observed in fitting form by our friend C. A. Bowen of West Wateree on last Thursday. "Unto us a child is born." Mr. and Mrs. Bowen are to be congratulated on the arrival of a fine daughter on that day. May future Thanksgiving days greet them with no worse luck.

Continued Prosperity. It is evident to all that prosperity still continues. All our contractors and builders have their hands full of work. No laborer who desires work is without it, and the only blot on the page recording industrial progress amongst us is the silence of the mill whistles which used to break into our beauty sleep. We hope and believe that this blot will soon be erased, and that the hum of the spindle, the rattle of the carpenter's hammer, and the cheerful drone of the planing machine will again join in unison in making Camden a hive of industry.

The National Fraternal Union. The District Deputy Organizer of this splendid fraternal insurance order will be with us on Wednesday, Dec. 14th to remain until Saturday of that week. We cannot too strongly urge those of limited means to take advantage of the opportunity to protect their wives and children against want and suffering by taking out a policy in this absolutely safe organization during that week. We already have a good council of the N. F. U. here, but we want more members in order to make ours the banner council of South Carolina. Pending the arrival of Mr. Hastings, the Deputy, if you want any information on the subject, call at our office. We will take pleasure in handing you the literature that will at a glance convince you that this society carries the very best plan of fraternal insurance. The plan is a simple business proposition. You pay for what you get. You get nothing except that you pay for. Think over this matter, friends.

DeLoache-DeLay. On Tuesday morning, the 22d, inst., at 10 o'clock, at the residence of Mr. Arthur H. DeLay, the brother of the bride in this city, Miss Annie Ross DeLay and Mr. Benjamin Patterson DeLoache were joined in holy wedlock in the presence of a select party of the bride's friends. The ceremony was exceedingly impressive and beautiful and was pronounced by Rev. Chas. N. Van Houten, pastor of the first Presbyterian church of this city, of which the bride is a communicant. The bride was gown-ed in a superb traveling suit which fitted faultlessly and with easy and graceful liming heightened the poise of her queenly figure. She carried a large cluster of magnificent white chrysanthemums as did also, her little niece, Esther, who supported her as flower girl. Mrs. DeLoache is the daughter of the late Capt. William DeLay of Oxford, Miss., who enlisted as a private in the famous 1st Miss. Rifles, Col. Jefferson Davis, and who after valiantly participating with that regiment in all its battles, in Mexico, rose to the rank of captain and who was, in the Confederate war, a captain in the 16th Miss. Infantry and distinguished himself for gallantry on many fields under the immortal Lee. She possesses all the charming graces of lovely Southern womanhood and has a host of friends who know her genuine worth and sweetness of character. Mr. DeLoache is a farmer of large holdings in his native state, South Carolina, near Camden, where the happy couple will reside. The bride was the recipient of many expensive presents, including handsome cut glass and sterling silver tableware and many beautiful and costly articles of bric-a-brac. Mr. DeLoache, with his fair bride, left on the 11:10 Frisco train for their home. They carry with them the congratulations and best wishes of the entire community in which the Journal heartily joins.—Tupelo (Miss.) Journal.

Our Roll of Honor. We really have not the space this week to give our usual mention of advertisers, but cannot refrain from mentioning the following as among those on our Roll of Honor: Nathan Levy, Camden Drug Company, E. S. Nettles and Son, Geo. Schiadaressi, Hirsch Bros & Co., David Wolfe, "The Hub," A. D. Kennedy, O. M. Fort, W. Geisenheimer, P. T. Villepigue.

To Cure Constipation Forever. Take Cascara Candy Cathartic, 10c or 25c. If C. C. C. fail to cure, druggists refund money.

SHOP EARLY for X-Mas. Don't wait until everybody is in a rush if you want the best service and choicest Holiday Gifts. See our large assortment and we are sure to please you. Send the children to see the Toys and Dolls next week and we will delight them. A Store full of TOYS. F. Leslie Zemp's Special prices on X-Mas Tree orders for schools and Sunday schools.

Mr. Fred ... extended absence at the Summer carnival is again with us. We are glad to see him again.

Mr. T. S. Myers, with Mr. W. Geisenheimer, is making a record as a sewing machine agent. Go it Buster. You are one of the best in town.

We had the pleasure of enjoying the company of Mr. H. Clark of North Carolina and elsewhere a couple of hours on Tuesday night.

Mr. A. R. Hanberry, and Miss Eva Hanberry of Denmark, and Mrs. W. W. Coney of Midway visited the family of Mr. W. C. Hough last week.

Col. Mizson, (The Old Colonel) accompanied us to Camden from Bethune on last Friday night. As a pitter the Colon I can't be beat. How about that dance, Colonel?

Mess. Mannes Baum and Dr. I. H. Alexander are still improving. We are sincerely glad, for the absence of these two gentlemen from our streets, and from their business creates a distinct void.

Our old friend John Geizer, of Rock Hill was in the city on Tuesday night. His brother from Atlanta came in yesterday morning. The city not being big enough for both of them, John pulled out.

Nr. Sol. Rittenburg of Sumter was with us again on Tuesday. He is trying to make a deal in the way of real estate that may pan out a veritable gold mine should the deal go through.

Our old-time friend, Mr. F. L. Zemp Jr, and wife spent last Sunday with the parents of the former. Mr. Zemp is located at Sumter, and we hear is doing well. We wish him continued success.

Dr. J. T. Cottrell requests us to state to his numerous correspondents that the reason he has not answered their letters is, that a horse the other day, took a generous slice out of his right fore finger.

Mr. L. W. Boney, representing the Brown Carriage Company of Cincinnati spent a few hours in the city on Saturday in the interest of his house. We have not heard that he sold Schenk & Co., but suppose he did as this firm is always alive to bargains.

We regretted to miss the sight of the familiar face of our old friend, Capt. Moses Hough at Bethune the other day. While Bethune always seems like home to us, we always expect to meet Capt. Moody there, and are disappointed always when we don't meet him.

We had the pleasure of meeting an old acquaintance on last Monday. Mr. D. A. Stuckey of Bishopville. Mr. Stuckey had not been in God's country in more than eleven years. He was much pleased to grasp the hands of numerous old friends, and is gratified at the progress of the city since he was last with us.

We had the very great pleasure on last Friday of making the acquaintance of Professor Setzler of the Bethune High School. He has the purest and sweetest voice for singing that we have listened to lately. As to his foot for dancing, we can't say, but as we have that, we would make a good team.

Mr. A. C. Day, representing the Laurenceburg Roller Mills Co., of Laurenceburg, Ind. an extensive Flour Mill plant, was with us on Monday night. Mr. Day will make this one of his regular points, with headquarters at Columbia, S. C. Our people will probably hear more from him through our columns a little later.

Our Friend, Yulius Weinberg, Car, or Watch Inspector for the Southern Railway, has just returned from an extensive tour of inspection. He reports cars, or watches as in more or less good condition. We are glad to have our young friend back with us after his hazardous journey, and are also glad to record the fact that he has returned to us prettier than ever.

Who brought on the War? We did. Those who heard the remarks of the Smith substitute at Bethune on Friday will please back us up in this statement.

Change in Hotel Management. The Workman House changes hands to-day, it having been leased by Mr. Frank A. Robertson of Birmingham, Ala. We wish the new proprietor of this popular hostelry much success. He is pleasant, and seems to understand his business.

To Cure a Cough. The coughs on prevalent these days usually develop before you realize what has happened. Now the best thing to do is to take the most reliable cough cure you can get. None better than Murray's Horehound Mullen and Tar. It is made of the sweet ingredients and can be given to infants as well as grown people. It cures all else. It cures. You will find it at all druggists. 25c. a bottle—extra large bottle.
