Death.
Mr. J. A. Lewis, an old and highly esteemed citizen died at his home on the old Factory Hill on Tuesday night. Apoplexy was supposed to be the cause of death. He had been out on the pond, hunting, and brought in a duck. On reaching home, he fell in the yard, was carried into his house, and died three hours later. Mr. Lewis was a quiet, inoffensive man, and we regretted sincerely to learn of his demise.

No-To-Bac for Fifty Cents.
Guaranteed tobacco habit cure. Makes weak men strong, blood pure. 50c. All druggists.

—The Woman's Exchange will open on Dec. 15th, at the residence of Miss Cornelia Mickel on Main St.
Old cut Glass, China Furniture &c. requested.

—What is your name? Ours came pretty close to being "Mud" the other day as we slipped up on one of our horrible sidewalks. Oh! for that skim-coating of gravel when the weather next breaks.

—A little slang in a newspaper, if indulged in in moderation does not lower the moral tone of the sheet in which it appears, but on the contrary, lends spice to it. We hope our friends will excuse its occasional use in our columns.

—Don't forget friends, that the Supreme District Deputy of The National Fraternal Union will be with us on Wednesday of next week to remain until Saturday. Any man of 18 to 55 years who doesn't carry insurance for the benefit of his family, stands in his own light if he doesn't take advantage of the opportunity to secure his family against want in a thoroughly reliable institution. To go further, we will say that the man who doesn't take out a policy, does not deserve to have a family at all.

Our Fire Alarm System.
Two or three weeks ago we called attention to the fact that our people did not understand the fire alarm system now in use here, and requested information on the subject. As, with every request that we have made of council, the request has been ignored. We want to say to these people that the sometime remarks made by us are not dictated in a spirit of ill-feeling towards any member of the Council, or collectively, but we do want some attention paid by them to matters mentioned by us which vitally affect the interests of the city.

Take for instance, the constant ringing of the alarm bell on Tuesday evening. No one knew what it meant. Everyone was on the qui vive. It developed later that somebody was merely testing the apparatus. In lieu of definite information on the subject, we would most respectfully suggest to the members composing our city council that in future tests of what should be a perfect test of what should be a perfect system, the alarm bell should be muffled with a blanket, either dry or wet.

Trespass Notice.
All parties are hereby warned and notified not to trespass upon the lands of Mrs. A. L. Barnes, situated in lower Kershaw in any manner whatsoever, either by hunting, fishing, or entrance upon the same for any purpose whatsoever without permission. Any violation of this notice will be followed by an action at law, and the offender punished to the full extent of the penalty provided for the offense committed.
Signed
W. E. Arledge, Lessee.
