Death.
Mrs. Mary Lyles departed this life on Dec. 27th. She has been a resident of our city during the greater portion of her life. She leaves one son, two daughters and several grand children. Our sympathy goes out to the bereaved ones.

Religious Notes.
There will be preaching at the Methodist Church next Sunday morning by the new pastor Rev. C. C. Herbert.

We are glad to learn through columns of a contemporary that our Presbyterian brethren and sisters will soon have a new pastor. Rev. J. M. McConnell, to whom a call was recently given, has accepted the same and will soon take charge of the pastorate here.

Mr. Reeves of Tennessee who was recently called to the pastorate of the Camden Baptist Church, has declined the call. We want a preacher at this church badly as we are of the Baptist persuasion ourselves.

If this meets the eye of any subscriber in anyone of the twenty three States into which we go, knows of a preacher who can preach the Gospel, and might accept a rather comfortable job, please send us his address.

With the Baptist pulpit supplied and Bro. Herbert occupying the Methodist, and Bro. McConnell the Presbyterian, and Bro. Gordon the Episcopal pulpits, Camden may again lay claim to being a religious community.

Chemical Study Course. The most wonderful medical discovery of the age, prevents and relieves the most distressing and deadly diseases, liver and bowels, cleansing the entire system, dispels colds, cures headache, fever, habitual constipation, and indigestion. Please buy and try a box of C. C. C. to-day; 10, 25, 50 cents. Sold and manufactured to cure by all druggists.

Sure Cold in Head.
Kermath's Chamberlain's Laxative Gelatine, easy to take and quick to cure cold in head and sore throat.

PERSONAL.

Mr. Hazel Jones and wife are also with Mr. Nelson. Mrs. Jones was formerly Miss Pearl Nelson.

Mrs. Witherspoon, of Sumter, accompanied her friend Mrs. Jones to spend Christmas with us. We hope she enjoyed her visit.

Mrs. A. S. White is, we are glad to learn, rapidly recovering from her recent injury.

Christmas without "Cash" Nelson in the city would be like a wagon wheel without a hub, so he is here.

Mr. Charlie Jones, from near Savannah, is spending the holidays with Mr. C. Nelson and family, on DeKalb Street.

Mr. Harry Schlosberg is spending a few days at Timmons-ville. On business of course. Harry is nothing if not a hustler.

Mrs. Henrietta Myers, who is now living in Columbia, has been quite ill, but we are glad to report that she is much better.

Mr. T. J. Dabney, of Lancaster is spending the week with his brother, Mr. G. W. Dabney and friends. We were glad to meet him again.

Mr. Hough, of _____ is spending the week with the family of his father, Mr. W. C. Hough, on DeKalb Street. Mr. Hough is accompanied by his family.

Mr. O. F. York, who is employed by the Southern Railway, has been transferred from this to the Danville division. We regret to lose him.

Mr. John McDowell, who represents the mercantile agency of R. G. Dunn & Co., is spending the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. McDowell on DeKalb Street.

Mr. J. E. Baggott, of Orlando, Fla., remembered the editor by sending a dozen fine oranges from the "Flowery Kingdom." Thanks, Brother Baggott, may you live long and prosper.

Mr. A. C. Somers, our popular harness maker, is spending the holidays with his family at Wadesboro, N. C. We wish him a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. He will return to us about January 1st.

Mr. H. L. Ledford of Sumter, a son-in-law of Mr. B. F. Haile is taking Christmas with Mr. Haile's family. Mr. Ledford is one of our subscribers and has his life insured for the unexpired term of one year.

BREVITIES.

—That Christmas Turkey. How good it tasted, but Oh! my. —That Turkey didn't come from DeKalb, either.

—Don't fail to read our editorial addressed to our subscribers.

—Our merchants are, or should be happy. Their trade was never better despite the low price of cotton.

—The pistol and the cannon crackers were tabooed on Christmas, but what about that superlative abomination, the shooting stick?

—See the extraordinary announcement in Nathan Levy's big ad. These opportunities to secure real bargains in clothing, and Gent's furnishings are not often presented at this season of the year.

—We are requested to announce that religious services will be held on the second Saturday and Sunday nights in January at the home of Mr. James Branham near Cantey, S. C. by Rev. D. C. Jenkins.

—The reputation of Nathan Levy, The Clothier as a man good for his promises in established. If he says twenty percent off in prices, for thirty days, he means what he says and that settles it. Read his ad.

—Nathan Levy, The Clothier leaves us next week for New York to purchase what he calls "the swellest" line of Spring clothing and furnishings for goods that has ever been seen in the city. His big ad. in this issue explains itself. Read and profit by it.

The Best All-Around Tonic—Can't be Beat.
Columbia, S. C., November 28, 1904.
Gentlemen: I have taken one bottle of Iron Blood and Liver Tonic, and I have just bought the second bottle. It has done me a great deal of good. I am stronger and feel better in every way, my appetite is good, and I digest my food. As an all-around tonic Dr. James' Iron Blood and Liver Tonic can't be beat. Yours,
W. B. TAYLOR,
Columbia, S. C.

Just the Thing for Weak Pale Children.
Columbia, S. C., November 2, 1903.
Dear Sirs: I have been giving Dr. James' Iron Blood and Liver Tonic to my little daughter. She was pale and weak, and had no appetite. She has been benefited by your tonic a great deal, and is much stronger, eats well, and looks healthier. I cheerfully recommend Iron Blood and Liver Tonic as a splendid medicine.
Yours respectfully,
J. J. PANDCOCK,
