PERSONAL

—Maj. J. S. Hilton of DeKalb, was with us on Tuesday.
—We regret to report that Mr. E. F. Nettles Sr., is not improving from his recent attack of paralysis.
—Mr. R. M. Adams left on Tuesday for the Jamestown exposition. We wish him a pleasant trip and safe return.
—Ye editor took another flying trip to Columbia last Sunday. He wasn't exactly looking for his affinity, but came pretty close to finding her at a certain house on Richland street. Those eyes and lips haunt us still.
—Hon. I. C. Hough, our popular Clerk of the Court accompanied us on our recent visit to the capital city. He seemed to enjoy himself, although we didn't allow him to do much talking while he was in our company.

Teachers' Examination.
The next regular Teachers' Examination will be held Friday, October 18th, at the Court House beginning at 9 o'clock a. m.
All who wish to teach this winter had better take this examination as this is the last until next Spring.

Bitten by a Spider.
Through the blood poisoning caused by a spider bite, John Washington, of Boqueville, Tex., would have lost his leg, which became a mass of running sores, had he not been persuaded to try Bucklen's Arnica Salve. He writes: "The first application relieved, and four boxes healed all the sores." 25c. Guaranteed at F. Leslie Zemp, Camden Drug Company and Zemp & DePass, druggists.

THE FAMOUS SPARROW CANDY.—Call at Crosby's Ice Cream Parlor.
News.
We would be glad to have our people send us in all news of interest in their various sections. Items such as marriages, births, deaths, improvements in property, visitors, removals, picnics, church meetings &c., are all matters of interest. It doesn't matter whether your grammar, punctuations or spelling is correct or not. We will fix that. What we want is the news.
"Pneumonia's Deadly Work" had so seriously affected my right lung," writes Mrs. Fannie Connor, of Rural Route No. 1, Georgetown, Tenn., "that I cough continuously night and day the neighbors' prediction—consumption—seemed inevitable, until my husband brought home a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery, which in my case proved to be the only real, cough cure and restorer of weak, sore lungs." When all other remedies utterly fail, you may still win in the battle against lung and throat troubles with New Discovery, the REAL remedy. Guaranteed at F. Leslie Zemp's, Camden Drug Company and Zemp & DePass' Drug stores.

Another Fire.
Mr. L. M. Waters, who lives in the eastern section of the county, had the misfortune to lose his house by fire last week with all its contents. The loss is severe, and we extend sympathy to him in his trouble.

Everybody Going to The State Fair
Advices for Accommodations Show Greatest Fair Gathering Ever Known.

With good crops and good fellowship existing throughout the State the crowds at the State Fair will be bigger and livelier than ever before. And Columbia will be in better shape to receive her guests than ever before. More boarding houses and homes have been listed than ever and the bureau of information is in position to take care of everybody.
As for the fair itself, it will be greater, grander and more enjoyable before. No better Fair ever known in the South than the State Fair at Columbia this year—Oct. 28 to Nov. 1. There will be more to see, more to do, more to profit by than ever known anywhere outside of the national expositions. The agricultural, stock, poultry and implements exhibits will more than repay anyone's visit to the Fair.
Besides these marvelous exhibits for which over $500,000 premium money will be paid, the races will attract thousands of people. Just think of purses for these races aggregating nearly $4,000. And some of the best trotting and running horses in America will race for these purses.
In the way of amusements, it is almost impossible to chronicle all the contests, shows and social functions scheduled for Fair Week. The big football games between Citadel and Welch Neck on Wednesday and Clemson and University of North Carolina will be held on Thursday, Oct. 31. Field athletics and other contests will be held nearly every day.
Theatres and the Midway will give pleasure for everybody, children and grown people. Tell your friends to meet you at the State Fair.

THE dwelling on LaFayette Avenue recently offered for sale by this office has also been disposed of—the Second on that Avenue in thirty days.
This week I am featuring a special property, and in order to enable my clients to clearly understand what it is, I will utilize my entire space in this issue in its description.
The Ancrum Lot on Fair street consisting of the site of the recently burned "Ancrum House" and the orchard on the north has been cut up into Six Lots, each with a frontage of sixty feet on Fair street and with a depth of 300 feet.
These lots are now offered for sale.
The first two on the north the orchard and the last three on the South will be sold for $350 00 each. The third lot from the North with buildings is offered for $450.00.
Every lot has either growing fruit trees or fine shrubbery. They slope off to the back and are well drained.
Fire Hydrant just in front affording the best of protection
All Taxes falling due this fall will be paid by the Sellers
If cash is paid—no cost for papers.
Five lots at $350.00 each—One at $450.00.
Cash or on very easy terms.
