CAMDEN COURIER.

CAMDEN, SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 4, 1837.

If the past summer has placed our community under any obligation for the unprecedented health which it has enjoyed, it certainly becomes us alike with our sister towns to set apart a certain day as a day of thanksgiving, humiliation and prayer.

The amount of specie on board the Susquehanna, is reported to be from 25,000 to 300,000 Dollars.

It is stated that the Steam ship Victoria, belonging to the BRITISH AND AMERICAN STEAM NAVIGATION COMPANY will be ready for sea in a few weeks—her tonnage will amount to nearly two thousand tons—the Engines are said to be of five hundred horse power, and her time from England to New York the short space of fourteen days.

Several Americans is said to have been imprisoned at Matamoros, as the Mexicans, who imputed to them the escape of Mr. Wharton, the Texian Minister to the United States.

The contemplated insurrection which was to have taken place at Bayou Rapide, near Alexandria, on the night of the 7th ult., was arrested by the confession of one of the negroes who, two days before, devolved to his master the intended plot. About 50 negroes were immediately captured—nine have already been hung, the balance are in safe keeping, awaiting their trial. Arthur Tappan is charged with having instigated it.

Fifteen casks of specie arrived at New-York, from London, on the 22d of last month. The export now scarcely exceeds the import.

ANOTHER BRILLIANT VICTORY.—It is stated by letter writers from St. Augustine, that Powell with 70 or 80 of his young warriors were captured by Gen. Hernandez, some time about the 20th of last month—no doubt after they had given themselves up, which, it may be presumed, the approaching cold weather induced them to do, considering the greater part of them were either under or in arms. Several have also been captured by major Ashby, who took them prisoners at Fort Peyton, where it is said they came to enquire for Powell. Between 60 and 70 negroes who came in about the same time have also been captured, some of them is said to belong to Col. Rees, of Stateburg.

Our last Mobile paper mentions an improvement in the health of the city, which, for several weeks past, has been uncommonly sickly.

The following is an extract of a letter taken from the Express head of the southern Patriot of Tuesday last. It purports to account for the reported capture of the Susquehanna, which from its plausibility must entitle it to some credit.

“PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 27, 11 A. M.

THE SUSQUEHANNA.—Half an hour ago, the captain of a low black schooner applied to our worthy Mayor, and informed him, that having heard upon his arrival here, of the reported piracy and capture of the "Susquehanna," that he was the pirate; that having a full cargo of OYSTERS, and being in view of the Susquehanna, he was hailed by the ship at the very hour the two pilots reported the capture, and that he had the gratification, not to take the Susquehanna, but to sell the passengers twenty bushels of oysters, and to wish them a prosperous voyage. You may depend upon this report; it is correct. It is a joke that turns out very well, but must have occasioned a great deal of uneasiness, particularly in your city. We hope that your pilots will be in future more circumspect, and not take OYSTER BOATS for pirates!"

The above is from one of our New-York correspondents, dated yesterday, (the 26th.) Should you wish to make it public, you have our permission.

Yours, &c. COBBETT & Co.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26, 1837.

The rumor of this place is—that the CABINET is already dissolved. The President and all the Secretaries are off on a tour—no body knows where. The arrangements are said to be as follows:

- Buchanan, of Pennsylvania, Secretary of State.
Wright, of New York, Secretary of the Treasury.
Pointsett, of the War Department.
Joseph Seawell Jones, of North Carolina of the Navy.

Kendall where he is—and a North Carolina man by the name of Badger, Attorney General.

This charge will no doubt take place, Georgia, New Jersey and Ohio, have dissolved the CABINET, and not the President.

Yours, &c.

The following from the Philadelphia Ledger was called forth by a toast given at a meeting in Pennsylvania, in derision of what, its author was pleased to call "Yankee interlopers."

Nor does the embattled field or the mountain wave, red with the blood of mortal strife, alone proclaim the praises of New England. Whenever industry sows and reaps its harvest—wherever enterprise forces its daring march—wherever ingenuity beats down obstacles that defy physical force—wherever the indomitable spirit of improvement converts the wilderness into the garden, and rears the domicile of civilization upon the hunts of the wild beast—wherever learning sheds its holy light, and morals and religion, hand in hand, point the way to peace on earth, and happiness beyond the bounds of mortality, there is the New Englander rejoicing in his name, and proudly pointing to the school house and church of his father land, as the temples in which he learned to cultivate and develop the higher attributes of his nature. Go to that little spot of our Union covered by the six New England States, and see what a paradise its hardy, enlightened and honest children have reared amidst its stubborn rocks and chilling blasts. Go to the bright skies and teeming soil of the West, and see how beneficent nature rewards the industry, enterprise, perseverance and skill of the "Yankee interloper." Go to the quiet, orderly and prosperous Ohio, and see what the "Yankee interloper" has done under his reign of liberty and law. Go to the universities, colleges, academies, pulpits, schools, court houses, medical laboratories and manufactories of every State in the Union, and see what the "Yankee interloper" has done and is doing, to sustain the reign of intellectual improvement. Go to your patent office, and among its seven thousand inventions, you see in four-fifths of them, the proofs of Yankee ingenuity." Go to the marts of your commerce from Passamaquoddy to New Orleans, and see the Yankee merchant, the Yankee lawyer, the Yankee physician, the Yankee clergyman, the Yankee teacher, the Yankee editor, throwing his ample stores of industry, enterprise, learning and integrity into the common stock of improvement.

From New Orleans.

BY EXPRESS.

By the arrival last evening of brig SAM HOUSTON, Capt. Hineley, from Velasco, we have been favored with the "Matagorda Bulletin" of the 11th inst., which confirms the suspicions in regard to the loss of the Texan schr. Velasco, Apleman, which sailed from this port for Galveston 25th ult.—the particulars of which will be found below, and confirmed by one of the passengers, arrived here in the brig.

Matagorda was perfectly healthy, and business was fast resuming its usual activity.

By arrivals from the Pass, we learn that the schooner "Amanda" bound from Galveston to New Orleans, was wrecked on the morning of the 4th—passengers and crew all safe. The Amanda left Galveston on Saturday, Sept. 13th—put back after being nine days out, in distress,—and again sailed, Monday Oct. 2d. Schooner Velasco, from New Orleans to Galveston blown off in a gale, is probably lost. Some bodies, pieces of timber, chairs, stoves, barrels &c., supposed to belong to her, have drifted ashore.

Previous to the last storm she was in the offing, and at the earnest persuasion of numbers of her passengers, they were landed on the peninsula, from which place they were brought to town by a boat despatched and manned by our citizens for the purpose—those who remained on board have, without doubt, perished. The Velasco might have made the Bay, and thereby have saved many lives and much property; but as her passengers were for Galveston, neither captain nor supercargo, we are informed, could be prevailed upon to enter. Would it not be well for vessels clearing from the United States for Texas, to have their papers so arranged, as that they might have their choice of ports on arrival off the coast. It frequently happens that vessels come to Matagorda to dispose of their merchandise, after having visited the eastern ports. Any and every description of goods might now be sold here at any price.

By the arrival yesterday, of the Texan brig, Charles Edmonston, (formerly the Mexican brig Phoenix,) Capt. Greason, from Galveston Bay, whence she sailed on the 13th instant, we learn that the late gale was very severe along the coast of Texas, on the 5th inst., destroying buildings, public works, and vessels, in every direction, among which is the new and commodious fort on Galveston Island, together with the whole of the private dwellings, warehouses, stores, &c. on that beautiful spot, leaving nothing but the customhouse to remind the stranger of the place where a flourishing town had been commenced.

THE "HOME."—The following is a list of names, as far as known, of those whose remains have been found and interred near the scene of the wreck.
Mrs. Flinn and child, Mrs. Crawles, Miss J. Roberts, Miss H. Stowe, Mrs. A. Nott, Miss Levy, Mrs. J. M. Roll, Mrs. John Boyd, Mr. Matthews, (the mate of Home) Mrs. M. R. Prince, Athens, Ga. Mrs. J. R. Spratt, Benton, Ala., L. S. Benedict, James Paine, Mobile, Mrs. F. H. Croon, Newbern, N. C., Mrs. Hussey, Charleston, John, a Dutchman, one of the crew.
[The above are buried at Mr. Howard's, on Ocracoke.]
In addition to those named above, there have been found, and interred at Six mile Hammock, the bodies of six females and one man; names unknown.
The remains of Mr. R. Graham, are buried on Beacon Island, and those of a young lad, (believed to be a passenger,) and a man, one of the crew, on Portsmouth.

Commercial.

ONE DAY LATER FROM LIVERPOOL. The ship Victoria, Capt. Candler, brings intelligence one day later than was received by the Orpheus.

LONDON, Sept. 26.—Considerable anxiety prevails among the mercantile interests connected with the trade of America, for the arrival of the packets from the United States, now overdue, as they are expected to bring some accounts of the proceedings of Congress relative to the currency affairs of the Union, upon which many imagine that the early and final settlement of affairs in that country mainly depends.

The sales of Cotton this week here and at Liverpool, have amounted to 27,800 bales, at improving prices. Strong efforts have been made to depress the market for this article, on the ground that the recent improvement cannot be maintained, as the great bulk of the recent sales were on speculation. Although the supplies of the new crop from America will in all probability exceed by 200,000 bales those of last year, still we are glad to state that the consumption is on the increase.

LIVERPOOL, Sept. 29. The Cotton market is quiet, but in prices there is no change since Friday. The sales on Saturday and to-day are 2500 bags each day.

ROYAL COLLEGE OF SURGEONS, LONDON.—The original Hygienic Vegetable Medicine, prepared by W. Miskin, Esq., Member of the Royal College of Surgeons, Licentiate of Apothecary's Company, Fellow of Bolt Court Society Surgeon to the Royal Union Pension Association, Lancaster Place, Waterloo Bridge, and perpetual pupil of Guy's and St. Thomas's Hospitals, London.

This valuable medicine, the result of twenty years' experience and unparalleled practice of the proprietor, patronised by the faculty and nobility, is now introduced to the notice of the American public, at the earnest solicitation of a number of gentlemen of long and high standing in the profession. It is hoped, as a preliminary step, to check the evils and fatal consequences arising from the use of the numerous deleterious nostrums foisted upon the public by the aid of fabricated proofs of miraculous cures, and other frauds, by a set of mercenary, unprincipled pretenders, so totally ignorant of medical science that it is impossible the monstrous delusion can any longer go down with the intelligent people of this country. These pills, mild and agreeable in their nature, should be kept in every family in cases of sudden illness, for by their prompt administration, cholera, cramps, spasms, fevers, and other alarming complaints, which too often prove fatal, may be speedily cured or prevented. In fact, all those who value good health should never be without them. They are sold in packets, at 50 cents, $1, and $2 each. By every respectable druggist, bookseller, and vender of medicine in the United States and the Islands, with copious directions, together with testimonials of professional ability from the following eminent gentlemen; Sir Astley Cooper, J. Abernethy, Jas. Blundell, M. D., W. Back, M. D., J. Aston Key, A. Frampton, M. D. and numerous others. The originals may be seen in possession of the general agent, by whom the medicine is imported into this country, and to whom all applications for agencies must be made. JNO.
