> PROSPECTUS OF THE

Camden Commercial Courier. THE Establishment of the COMMERCIAL COURIER was rendered necessary by the inconvenience to which our citizens have been subjected for the want of a public channel of communication which in a commercial community like Camden. is fore return day. After that time all such demands essentially necessary, and consequently the COU-will be placed in other hands for collection. The RIERS claim on the public is such as should ensure a liberal patronage. The undersigned have spared no trouble or exbest workmen in order to admit of, and affording satisfaction to its patrons.

In political matters the Courier will take no part; the design being to publish a Paper adapted morning at Three Dollars in advance, or Four Dollars if not paid until the expiration of the year.

Persons wishing to become subscribers must address a letter (POST PAID) to L. M. JONES.
