INFORMATION WANTED!

The sympathies of a generous public, are feelingly solicited to the following statement and enquiry. JOSEPH B. RHAME, of Sumter Dist., near Bradford Springs, S. C., left an interesting family in December, 1836, to seek his fortune in the Western States. His letters were received from Macon and Columbus, Ga. up to the 17th December, 1836, from which it appears, he was at that time to embark for Tuscaloosa. After this period, and up to the first of January, 1837, letters were received from New Orleans, and from whence he was to embark as Clerk, on board a ship of war under command of Capt. Williams, bound for Texas. Since this period, no account of him has been received. The apprehension of his family and friends, are alarmingly awakened with regard to what is his destiny. Information, either by private letter to Elen S. Rhame, Reynolds' Store, Sumter District, S. C., or through public prints, will be thankfully received. The Charleston, Columbia, and New Orleans papers, would confer a favor on a distressed family by publishing the above twice, in a conspicuous place, and send their accounts to Reynolds' Store, Sumter District, for payment. Feb. 24.

ROYAL COLLEGE OF SURGEONS.—The original Hagen Vegetable Medicine, prepared by W. Mackin, Esq., member of the Royal College of Surgeons, Licentiate of Apothecary's Company, Fellow of Bolt Court Society Surgeon to the Royal Union Pension Association, Lancaster Place, Waterloo Bridge, and perpetual pupil of Guy's and St. Thomas's Hospitals, London. This valuable medicine, the result of twenty years' experience and unparalleled success in the extensive and highly respectable practice of the proprietor, patronized by the faculty and nobility is now introduced to the notice of the American public, at the earnest solicitation of a number of gentlemen of long and high standing in the profession. It is hoped, as a preliminary step, to check the evils and fatal consequences arising from the use of the numerous deleterious nostrums foisted upon the public by the aid of fabricated proofs of miraculous cures, and other frauds, by a set of mercenary, unprincipled pretenders, so totally ignorant of medical science that it is impossible the monstrous delusion can any longer go down with the intelligent people of this country. These pills, mild and agreeable in their nature, should be kept in every family in cases of sudden illness, for by their prompt administration, cholera, cramps, spasms, fevers, and other alarming complaints, which too often prove fatal, may be speedily cured or prevented. In fact, all those who value good health should never be without them. They are sold in packets at 50 cents, $1, and $2 each, by every respectable druggist, bookseller, and vender of medicine in the United States and the Canadas, with copious directions, together with testimonials of professional ability from the following eminent gentlemen: Sir Astley Cooper, J. Abernethy, Jas. Blundell, M. D., W. Back, M. D., J. Aston Key, A. Frampton, M. D. and numerous others. The originals may be seen in possession of the general agent, by whom the medicine is imported into this country, and to whom all applications for agencies must be made. JNO. HOLBEIN, 36 Waverley Place, N. York, Sole General Agent for the U. S. Sold by J. R. KAIN, Camden, S. C. Oct. 21 25

BY AUTHORITY. LAWS OF THE U. STATES, PASSED AT THE FIRST SESSION OF THE TWENTY-FIFTH CONGRESS. Public.—No. 6. AN ACT to abolish the Circuit Court at Huntsville, in the State of Alabama, and for other purposes. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Circuit Court of the United States, established at Huntsville, in the State of Alabama, by the act of Congress of the third of March, eighteen hundred and thirty-seven, entitled "An act supplementary to the act entitled 'An act to amend the judicial system of the United States,' &c., and the same is hereby, abolished. Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That all the jurisdiction which belonged to the District Court of the United States in the northern district of the State of Alabama, at Huntsville, at and before the passage of the said act of Congress of the third of March, eighteen hundred and thirty-seven, be, and the same is hereby restored to and vested again in the said District Court; and every act of Congress upon which the jurisdiction of said District Court depended at and before the passage of the said act of Congress of the third of March, eighteen hundred and thirty-seven, is hereby revived, so far as such act or acts gave jurisdiction as the same existed at the time aforesaid, in the said District Court. Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That all cause at law or in equity, pending in the said Circuit Court at Huntsville, shall be transferred to the said District Court at Huntsville, and shall be proceeded in and be determined by the said District Court in the same manner as if they had been originally commenced in the said District Court; and it shall be the duty of the clerk of the said Circuit Court to deliver to the clerk of the said District Court the original papers in all such causes, together with the record of all the proceedings had in the said Circuit Court: Provided, That the first term for the trial of the causes hereby transferred, shall be the term of the said District Court which will be commenced on the third Monday in May, eighteen hundred and thirty-eight. Sec. 4. And be it further enacted, That the terms of the said District Court shall be held at the said town of Huntsville twice in each year, on the third Monday in May, and the fourth Monday in November, annually. Sec. 5. And be it further enacted, That appeals and writs of error shall lie from the said District Court to the Circuit Court of the United States at Mobile, in the State of Alabama. Sec. 6. And be it further enacted, That all process, bail bonds and recognizances returnable to the Circuit Court of the United States at Huntsville aforesaid, shall be returnable and returned to the District Court next held under this act, in the manner as if so made returnable on the face thereof, and shall have full effect accordingly. JAMES K. POLK, Speaker of the House of Representatives. RH. M. JOHNSON, Vice President of the United States and President of the Senate. Approved, Feb. 22, 1838. M. VAN BUREN.

Public.—No. 7. AN ACT to amend an act entitled "An act for the appointment of commissioners to adjust the claims to reservations of land under the fourteenth article of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty with the Choctaw Indians." Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the commissioners provided for in the act hereby amended, or a majority of them, shall have full power and authority to adjourn their sessions to such place or places, within the State of Mississippi, as in their judgment the interest of the Government and the claimants may require such sessions to be held. Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That in case of the death, resignation, or absence of any one of the said commissioners, the remaining two commissioners shall have full power and authority to proceed and execute the powers given by this act, or the act hereby amended. Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That the said commissioners shall have all the power of a court of record, for the purpose of compelling the attendance of witnesses, administering oaths, touching matters depending before them, preserving order, and punishing contempts; and shall have power to make all needful rules for the regulation of the proceedings before them, as well as to employ one or more interpreters, and one or more agents to collect testimony for the United States. Sec. 4. And be it further enacted, That for defraying the contingent expenses of the said commission, the sum of five thousand dollars be, and the same is hereby appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated. Sec. 5. And be it further enacted, That the said act shall be, and remain in force until the first day of August next. Sec. 6. And be it further enacted, by the authority aforesaid, That the compensation to be made to the district attorney for his services, shall be equal to the compensation allowed to a commissioner under the act hereby amended. Sec. 7. And be it further enacted, That nothing contained in this act, or the act which this is intended to amend, shall be construed as to embrace the claim of any Indian, or head of a Choctaw family, who has removed west of the Mississippi river. Sec. 8. And be it further enacted, That it shall be proved to the satisfaction of the commissioners that any claimant has accepted, or shall attempt to substitute the name of any other Indian as aid for his own, or has attempted or shall attempt to give his testimony, to substitute the name of any other claimant the child of another Indian, the name of such claimant, so attempting to make such substitution, shall be stricken from the list of claimants. APPROVED, Feb. 22, 1838.
