HE Proprietor of this establishment gives bury via Lincolnton to Ashville. &c; (a sage pa-sing there every day in the week but one)-The country around is brok n and proverbially healthy, and besides the mi eral properties of the a turn the s in r attention of invalids and others towards t. is place. Its proximity to the lower country-the che-pness of living-the excellence of the neighboring society-the abundance of game-the rich field afforded to science-especially to Mineralogy and Botany, are facts not to be overlooked by the travelling world. But it is in the Mineral quaities of the Springs that the great attractin towards t is spot consists. The Proprietor has no exaggerated lists of cures to present to the public, for he has just taken possession, nor would he deem it a compliment either to the good taste or sagacity of the public, to present such if he had them. But he has the as-urance of some of the most scientific Physicians and Chemists, to the rare and valuable properties of these Springs. In 1824 Professor Olmsted (now of Yale College] made a strit analysis of this water, and pronounces its foreign ingredients to be Sulphuretted Hydrogen, Sulphate of Lime, Sulphate of Magnesia, Muriate of Lime.
