

SELECTED POETRY.

Palmetto Land. (From the Charleston Mercury.)

Oh! I love, I love Palmetto Land, I love her gallant soldier's hand...

Chorus—Oh! bear me to Palmetto Land, My swan, my loved Palmetto...

Oh! I love my little gallant State, The object of deep Northern hate...

Chorus—Oh! bear me to Palmetto Land, Carolina.

HURRAH FOR OLD VIRGINIA. (From the Richmond Dispatch.)

Oh, have you heard the joyful news? Virginia does Old Abe refuse...

When the fact was known in Washington, Old Abram said, "My mistress's done..."

And quickly wheeling into line, Is the good old State of turpentine...

And fight with old Virginia, And fight with old Virginia...

"The Stars and Bars" we ring on high, For Southern homes we'll fight and die...

And fight with old Virginia, And fight with old Virginia...

And fight with old Virginia, And fight with old Virginia...

And fight with old Virginia, And fight with old Virginia...

And fight with old Virginia, And fight with old Virginia...

And fight with old Virginia, And fight with old Virginia...

And fight with old Virginia, And fight with old Virginia...

And fight with old Virginia, And fight with old Virginia...

And fight with old Virginia, And fight with old Virginia...

And fight with old Virginia, And fight with old Virginia...

And fight with old Virginia, And fight with old Virginia...

And fight with old Virginia, And fight with old Virginia...

THE SECRET OF FORT SUMTER.

—A few days ago in Cincinnati an inquest was held on the body of Oswald Walter...

Walter was twenty years of age, a simple of school education. Happening to be out of employment at the time, he believed the prediction of the fortune-teller was about to be verified...

LITTLE OR NOTHING.

EFFECT OF DEER WITH A NEW ACCIDENT. One of the Argonauts (Ga.) editors, a man of peculiar physical appearance, and of indomitable energy and perseverance...

He was practicing this new accomplishment the other day, when it occurred upon the ceiling of a room, which was in an adjoining apartment, that the wretched animal ran hogging from the room and threw itself from a second story window...

So we learn from a report of the occurrence published by an anxious contemporary of the antique editor.

Ye Doctors—Ride again ten miles through the rain, shake yourselves out of two phials, ride back again, if you don't happen to get stuck in the mud...

A CARD To the Southern People.

WRITE all articles commencing to move in the right direction, to establish the independence of the South from the North in a commercial point of view, it is also very necessary that our Manufacturing Establishments should all be supported. All well advised men.

The undersigned begs leave to inform the people of this State, and all others who may be interested, that they have in Charleston, S. C., one of the Largest Sash, Blind and Door Manufacturers in the U. States.

either North or South, and that they are now in possession of all the facilities for manufacturing work of this description as cheap as can be made anywhere. We keep constantly on hand a large assortment of Ready Made work of regular sizes.

Mouldings of Innumerable Patterns, and Stair Newels, Bannisters and Piazza Balustrades.

In short, they are fully prepared to furnish at short notice any material for inside finish of buildings at prices which none can complain of if they desire good and substantial work. We ask the Southern people to give us the preference, and call on us before they purchase from agencies established here by Northern people who will subscribe a portion of the very money which they make selling such goods in our Southern cities, for the purpose of helping our slaves to run off. We can make the same kind of work they sell, for the same money, and we are Southern men every one of our firm—besides we are manufacturing here at home, and our people must give us the preference to keep us in work, or such an establishment as ours cannot last. Send in your orders—they will be faithfully filled, and attended to promptly. We now have on hand 12x30, 12x18, 12x16, 12x14, 10x12 and 8x10 Sashes Ready Made.

Blinds of all the above Sizes. Also Doors ready made.

Also Doors ready made. 20x30x60
