The War in the West. "A dispatch to the Louisville Bulletin, dated Jefferson city, September 23d, says that news had been received there that night that the Abolition garrison at Lexington had surrendered on Friday afternoon to the Confederate forces, under General Price, on account, as it is alleged, of the want of water. Ben. McCulloch on Monday last, was marching towards Lexington.

A reign of terror prevails in Louisville. Many of the best citizens have been arrested and thrown into dungeons. The Legislature endorses all the atrocities of Lincoln's soldiery. Col. McKee, of the Louisville Courier, has made his escape. Andy Johnson is reported to thority will be conferred on him to have been arrested by some Confederate give free transportation by Railroad partizans in Kentucky.

Polignae, of France, has received an appointment upon Gen. Beauregard's staff, with the rank of lieutenant colonel. He is a grandson of the famous Prince Polignae who was imprisoned at Ham for his fidelity to Charles X. He is reported to THE PORTFOLIO WILL BE FURNISHED be in close communication with Louis Napoleon, and upon terms of intimacy with Count Morny. It is to him we are indebted for the insertion in the Paris journals, last spring, of various friendly notices of the Confederate Government. He comes highly recommended by our friends in Paris. He is about thirty years old, and exceedingly plain and unpretending. His family has enjoyed the title of Prince for five hundred years. -Richmond Dispatch.

EXECUTIVE OFFICE,) COLUMBIA, September 3, 1861.

To the Managers of Elections. N ISSUING WRITS RECENTLY TO THE Managers of Elections, the fact was verlooked that our State Constitution was changed by the two acts from which extracts are quoted below, and but one day was allowed for holding the polls, instead of two, as formerly; Managers of Elections will therefore take notice, and hold the election for one day only, and count and return the votes as required by law. It will be seen that the acts below are intended to regulate our State election, but the Constitution of the Confederate States gives Congress the power, if they think proper, to establish a uniform day in the States for holding the elections of Members of Congress, and the Act of Cong. 288, fixing the first Wednesday in October next, says that the election is to be conducted according to the forms estab-lished by each State. F. W. PICKENS

An extract from an Act to alter and amend the tenth section of the first article of the Constitution of the State of South Carolina. "Senators and Members of the House of Representatives shall be chosen on the TUES-DAY AFTER THE SECOND MONDAY IN OCTOBER, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, and on the same day in every second year thereafter, in such manner and at such times as are herein directed," &c.

Extract from an Act to alter and amend the law in relation to the method of counting votes in all elections by the people.

"That hereafter, in all elections by the peo ple, the managers shall proceed to count the votes publicly, immediately after the final closing of the polls at the precinct where the votes have been taken, make out a certificate of the result, which shall be signed by the Managers, or a majority of them, and taken to the Court House, or place nowfixed by law for counting the votes, on the day next subsequent to the day of the said election, on or before the hour of four o'clock, P. M., by one or more of the said Managers," &c.
