PROSPECTUS

T this particular time, when we have severed every political tie which bound us in vassalage to an oppressive North; when we have plucked our stars from the hateful and contaminating atmosphere of fanaticism, and placed them in the clear blue of our own Southern sky, that they may shine encircled with a halo of truth, adorning our own bright sunny land with their glorious lustre: when we have erected a new Republic, declared our independence to the world, it peculiarly becomes us as a people, so withdraw that patronage, hithertone liberally bestowed upon those who have proven themselves our worst enemies, and extend a helping hand to those with the manner born, who are true to our institutions frue to our principles, and to cur institutions frue to our principles, and to cur native home, we should throw off all that he section whose creed is inimical to our dearest rights; and whose people, we can not longer we have plucked our stars from the hateful rights; and whose people we can no longer contemplate with the pure and hely love of brotherhood.

The intelligence of a people is ever estimated by the character of their literature. We have intellects which will pale before none! Authors, whose graceful pens drop inklets of gold, and strew shiring pearls of thought. Let us, then, turn our faces from the North, and seek literature for old and young within our own borders—establish Hierary enterprises of our own, and foster and maintain them. Believing that it is the desire, nay, intention, of our people to do this, we propose to estab-

Southern Juvenile Periodical, and thereby fill a vacuum which has existed since the demise, years ago, of the sweet lit-tle tiltose Ind. We, therefore, confidently appeal to all to aid in establishing the enterprise upon a firm and substantial basis. Be-lieving that we appeal not in vain, we shall at the first, or during the month of May, commence the issue of "THE PORTFOLIO," a monthly periodical, devoted to Track, Virtue and Temperance;" which shall not only become an agreeable and amusing companion for the young, but, by the observance of a 1 gh moral tone, seek to instruct the rising mind, and teach the youthful heart. We will spare no pains to make THE PORT-FOLIO the juvenile paper of the South. It will be nearly printed in clear type, upon fine book paper, quarto form, of good size; and among its many attractions will contain a "I'romenade," in which our fair, friends are invited to walk with us into every Southern heart and home that is open to us: a "Joker's Budget," which shall unfold rare wittleisms: a "Little Farmer," and "Dairy Maid's Apartdevoted to the "Brigade of Infantry," where our smallest friend can shine.
