

Poetry.

The Thoughts of Heaven.

No sickness there—
No weary waiting of the fume away;
No fearful shrieking from the midnight air;
No dread of summer's bright and forest day.

Precision in Business.

On a certain Saturday night the clerks of the Bank of England could not make the balance come out right by just one hundred pounds.

A Mother's Words.

A youth of eighteen or nineteen years sat at an open window—a look of painful perplexity in his face, apparently occasioned by a letter he held in his hand.

Children's Department.

My Dear Little Readers—

Do you think the Junior Editor has forgotten his little friends, that he has not written to them so long?

A Little Gentleman.

"So many of the little boys we meet are rough and rude, that it is really pleasant to find one now and then who is a real gentleman.

House, Farm and Garden.

The Earth Cure.

MR. EDITOR: I have noticed with interest in the Watchman and some other papers commendatory notices of the "earth cure" and have adopted it, at least in part, as a sanitary measure in my own household.

PIANOS! PIANOS!

Gold Medal was Awarded at the late Fair in Baltimore to CHAS. W. STEIFF.

BRITISH PERIODICALS.

The London Quarterly Review, The Edinburgh Review, The Westminster Review, The North British Review, and Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine.

Gleanings.

Snubbing a President.

General Grant Refuses to Eat His Breakfast at a Fashionable Restaurant because He can't get a Private Room.

A Washington telegram, of Thursday, to the New York Herald, says: The White House is in a topsy-turvy condition just now, and their servants, in imitation of their master and mistress, are taking a little recreation.

Parents' Department.

PARENTS: Though you may shrink from the work which we have mapped out before you, because of its greatness, yet it is not so difficult, relying on the proffered help of the Holy Spirit, as many suppose.

Parents' Department.

"You ought to acquire the faculty of being at home in the best society," said a fashionable aunt to an honest nephew.

A Parable.

"O, dear! I am so tired of Sunday!" So said Willie, a playful little boy who was longing for the Sabbath to be over, that he might return to his amusements.

General Grant Refuses to Eat His Breakfast at a Fashionable Restaurant because He can't get a Private Room.

A Washington telegram, of Thursday, to the New York Herald, says: The White House is in a topsy-turvy condition just now, and their servants, in imitation of their master and mistress, are taking a little recreation.

General Grant Refuses to Eat His Breakfast at a Fashionable Restaurant because He can't get a Private Room.

A Washington telegram, of Thursday, to the New York Herald, says: The White House is in a topsy-turvy condition just now, and their servants, in imitation of their master and mistress, are taking a little recreation.

General Grant Refuses to Eat His Breakfast at a Fashionable Restaurant because He can't get a Private Room.

A Washington telegram, of Thursday, to the New York Herald, says: The White House is in a topsy-turvy condition just now, and their servants, in imitation of their master and mistress, are taking a little recreation.

General Grant Refuses to Eat His Breakfast at a Fashionable Restaurant because He can't get a Private Room.

A Washington telegram, of Thursday, to the New York Herald, says: The White House is in a topsy-turvy condition just now, and their servants, in imitation of their master and mistress, are taking a little recreation.

General Grant Refuses to Eat His Breakfast at a Fashionable Restaurant because He can't get a Private Room.

A Washington telegram, of Thursday, to the New York Herald, says: The White House is in a topsy-turvy condition just now, and their servants, in imitation of their master and mistress, are taking a little recreation.

General Grant Refuses to Eat His Breakfast at a Fashionable Restaurant because He can't get a Private Room.

A Washington telegram, of Thursday, to the New York Herald, says: The White House is in a topsy-turvy condition just now, and their servants, in imitation of their master and mistress, are taking a little recreation.

General Grant Refuses to Eat His Breakfast at a Fashionable Restaurant because He can't get a Private Room.

A Washington telegram, of Thursday, to the New York Herald, says: The White House is in a topsy-turvy condition just now, and their servants, in imitation of their master and mistress, are taking a little recreation.

General Grant Refuses to Eat His Breakfast at a Fashionable Restaurant because He can't get a Private Room.

A Washington telegram, of Thursday, to the New York Herald, says: The White House is in a topsy-turvy condition just now, and their servants, in imitation of their master and mistress, are taking a little recreation.

General Grant Refuses to Eat His Breakfast at a Fashionable Restaurant because He can't get a Private Room.

A Washington telegram, of Thursday, to the New York Herald, says: The White House is in a topsy-turvy condition just now, and their servants, in imitation of their master and mistress, are taking a little recreation.

General Grant Refuses to Eat His Breakfast at a Fashionable Restaurant because He can't get a Private Room.

A Washington telegram, of Thursday, to the New York Herald, says: The White House is in a topsy-turvy condition just now, and their servants, in imitation of their master and mistress, are taking a little recreation.

General Grant Refuses to Eat His Breakfast at a Fashionable Restaurant because He can't get a Private Room.

A Washington telegram, of Thursday, to the New York Herald, says: The White House is in a topsy-turvy condition just now, and their servants, in imitation of their master and mistress, are taking a little recreation.

General Grant Refuses to Eat His Breakfast at a Fashionable Restaurant because He can't get a Private Room.

A Washington telegram, of Thursday, to the New York Herald, says: The White House is in a topsy-turvy condition just now, and their servants, in imitation of their master and mistress, are taking a little recreation.

General Grant Refuses to Eat His Breakfast at a Fashionable Restaurant because He can't get a Private Room.

A Washington telegram, of Thursday, to the New York Herald, says: The White House is in a topsy-turvy condition just now, and their servants, in imitation of their master and mistress, are taking a little recreation.

General Grant Refuses to Eat His Breakfast at a Fashionable Restaurant because He can't get a Private Room.

A Washington telegram, of Thursday, to the New York Herald, says: The White House is in a topsy-turvy condition just now, and their servants, in imitation of their master and mistress, are taking a little recreation.

General Grant Refuses to Eat His Breakfast at a Fashionable Restaurant because He can't get a Private Room.

A Washington telegram, of Thursday, to the New York Herald, says: The White House is in a topsy-turvy condition just now, and their servants, in imitation of their master and mistress, are taking a little recreation.

General Grant Refuses to Eat His Breakfast at a Fashionable Restaurant because He can't get a Private Room.

A Washington telegram, of Thursday, to the New York Herald, says: The White House is in a topsy-turvy condition just now, and their servants, in imitation of their master and mistress, are taking a little recreation.

General Grant Refuses to Eat His Breakfast at a Fashionable Restaurant because He can't get a Private Room.

A Washington telegram, of Thursday, to the New York Herald, says: The White House is in a topsy-turvy condition just now, and their servants, in imitation of their master and mistress, are taking a little recreation.

General Grant Refuses to Eat His Breakfast at a Fashionable Restaurant because He can't get a Private Room.

A Washington telegram, of Thursday, to the New York Herald, says: The White House is in a topsy-turvy condition just now, and their servants, in imitation of their master and mistress, are taking a little recreation.

General Grant Refuses to Eat His Breakfast at a Fashionable Restaurant because He can't get a Private Room.

A Washington telegram, of Thursday, to the New York Herald, says: The White House is in a topsy-turvy condition just now, and their servants, in imitation of their master and mistress, are taking a little recreation.

General Grant Refuses to Eat His Breakfast at a Fashionable Restaurant because He can't get a Private Room.

A Washington telegram, of Thursday, to the New York Herald, says: The White House is in a topsy-turvy condition just now, and their servants, in imitation of their master and mistress, are taking a little recreation.

General Grant Refuses to Eat His Breakfast at a Fashionable Restaurant because He can't get a Private Room.

A Washington telegram, of Thursday, to the New York Herald, says: The White House is in a topsy-turvy condition just now, and their servants, in imitation of their master and mistress, are taking a little recreation.

General Grant Refuses to Eat His Breakfast at a Fashionable Restaurant because He can't get a Private Room.

A Washington telegram, of Thursday, to the New York Herald, says: The White House is in a topsy-turvy condition just now, and their servants, in imitation of their master and mistress, are taking a little recreation.

General Grant Refuses to Eat His Breakfast at a Fashionable Restaurant because He can't get a Private Room.

A Washington telegram, of Thursday, to the New York Herald, says: The White House is in a topsy-turvy condition just now, and their servants, in imitation of their master and mistress, are taking a little recreation.

General Grant Refuses to Eat His Breakfast at a Fashionable Restaurant because He can't get a Private Room.

A Washington telegram, of Thursday, to the New York Herald, says: The White House is in a topsy-turvy condition just now, and their servants, in imitation of their master and mistress, are taking a little recreation.

General Grant Refuses to Eat His Breakfast at a Fashionable Restaurant because He can't get a Private Room.

A Washington telegram, of Thursday, to the New York Herald, says: The White House is in a topsy-turvy condition just now, and their servants, in imitation of their master and mistress, are taking a little recreation.

General Grant Refuses to Eat His Breakfast at a Fashionable Restaurant because He can't get a Private Room.

A Washington telegram, of Thursday, to the New York Herald, says: The White House is in a topsy-turvy condition just now, and their servants, in imitation of their master and mistress, are taking a little recreation.

General Grant Refuses to Eat His Breakfast at a Fashionable Restaurant because He can't get a Private Room.

A Washington telegram, of Thursday, to the New York Herald, says: The White House is in a topsy-turvy condition just now, and their servants, in imitation of their master and mistress, are taking a little recreation.

General Grant Refuses to Eat His Breakfast at a Fashionable Restaurant because He can't get a Private Room.

A Washington telegram, of Thursday, to the New York Herald, says: The White House is in a topsy-turvy condition just now, and their servants, in imitation of their master and mistress, are taking a little recreation.

General Grant Refuses to Eat His Breakfast at a Fashionable Restaurant because He can't get a Private Room.

A Washington telegram, of Thursday, to the New York Herald, says: The White House is in a topsy-turvy condition just now, and their servants, in imitation of their master and mistress, are taking a little recreation.

General Grant Refuses to Eat His Breakfast at a Fashionable Restaurant because He can't get a Private Room.

A Washington telegram, of Thursday, to the New York Herald, says: The White House is in a topsy-turvy condition just now, and their servants, in imitation of their master and mistress, are taking a little recreation.

General Grant Refuses to Eat His Breakfast at a Fashionable Restaurant because He can't get a Private Room.

A Washington telegram, of Thursday, to the New York Herald, says: The White House is in a topsy-turvy condition just now, and their servants, in imitation of their master and mistress, are taking a little recreation.

General Grant Refuses to Eat His Breakfast at a Fashionable Restaurant because He can't get a Private Room.

A Washington telegram, of Thursday, to the New York Herald, says: The White House is in a topsy-turvy condition just now, and their servants, in imitation of their master and mistress, are taking a little recreation.

General Grant Refuses to Eat His Breakfast at a Fashionable Restaurant because He can't get a Private Room.

A Washington telegram, of Thursday, to the New York Herald, says: The White House is in a topsy-turvy condition just now, and their servants, in imitation of their master and mistress, are taking a little recreation.

General Grant Refuses to Eat His Breakfast at a Fashionable Restaurant because He can't get a Private Room.

A Washington telegram, of Thursday, to the New York Herald, says: The White House is in a topsy-turvy condition just now, and their servants, in imitation of their master and mistress, are taking a little recreation.

General Grant Refuses to Eat His Breakfast at a Fashionable Restaurant because He can't get a Private Room.

A Washington telegram, of Thursday, to the New York Herald, says: The White House is in a topsy-turvy condition just now, and their servants, in imitation of their master and mistress, are taking a little recreation.

General Grant Refuses to Eat His Breakfast at a Fashionable Restaurant because He can't get a Private Room.

A Washington telegram, of Thursday, to the New York Herald, says: The White House is in a topsy-turvy condition just now, and their servants, in imitation of their master and mistress, are taking a little recreation.

General Grant Refuses to Eat His Breakfast at a Fashionable Restaurant because He can't get a Private Room.

A Washington telegram, of Thursday, to the New York Herald, says: The White House is in a topsy-turvy condition just now, and their servants, in imitation of their master and mistress, are taking a little recreation.

CLUBS.

A discount of twenty per cent. will be allowed to Clubs of four or more persons. Two free copies of Blackwood, or of one Review, will be sent to one address for $12 50.

POSTAGE.

Subscribers should prepay by the quarter in the office of delivery. The postage on any part of the United States is two cents a volume. This rate only applies to current subscriptions. For back numbers the postage is double.

Premiums to New Subscribers.

New subscribers to any two of the three periodicals for 1869 will be entitled to receive gratis any one of the four Reviews for 1869. New subscribers to all five of the Periodicals for 1869 may receive gratis Blackwood, or any of the four Reviews for 1869.

FARMER'S GUIDE.

By HENRY STAPLES, of Edinburgh, and the late J. P. NORRIS, of Yale College, two vols. Royal Octavo, 1,600 pages, and numerous engravings. Price, $7 for the two volumes—by mail, post paid, $8.

P. D. SADTLER & SONS,

OPTICIANS AND WATCH MAKERS. Baltimore 212 Street, BALTIMORE.

BOOK OF WORSHIP.

This edition may supply the place of a Public Edition for the present, till the Public Book, now in preparation, is published. Price in dark cloth, $2 25. Price in leather, $3 25.

F. A. SOUTER & CO.,

DEALERS IN Cooking, Parlor and Office Stoves, of the most improved patterns. Also, manufacturers and dealers in Piano, Sewing and Pressed Tinware, House-Furnishing Goods, &c.

LUTHER'S TABLE TALK.

18 NO. CLOTH. PRICE—$2. WILL be sent by mail to any address on receipt of above price. DUFFIER & CHAPMAN, Book-sellers, Columbia, S. C.

LUTHER'S TABLE TALK.

18 NO. CLOTH. PRICE—$2. WILL be sent by mail to any address on receipt of above price. DUFFIER & CHAPMAN, Book-sellers, Columbia, S. C.