THURSDAY, AUG. 4, 1887.

A terrific tornado passed over Fargo, Dakota, Monday night July 25, doing considerable damage in the doing considerable damage in th way of blowing off roofs, chimneys, carried over three-fourths of the the fine cotton lands that border the kinds of business. The climate is through southern lines in order to erate army, he says, to escape starvathe way and refused to pay. breaking windows, wrecking fences and small buildings. It was accompanied by a remarkable electrical dispanied by a remark play in which some few persons were of safety from the rapid rise of the development of the magnificent no reason why parties seeking a good points North reached by the Penn-mand. After a short service in the and doubtless will have to be shipped killed.

Moland, Minn. was struck by a tornado about the same time which blew nado about the same time which blew were buit in front of many yards and in that way how deeply the one idea in the control of the idea in the control down several houses and wounded even before the doors and windows of cotton growing was fixed in the community to find all the advantages II. Walters, General Manager of the Some years ago Hedgspeth apfive persons.

A disastrous rainsform passed over Reading, Pa. the night of the 26 in- second, but those who were not so tion mentioned. It is, however, as sojourners.—News and Courier. flicting heavy losses upon railroad and fortunate were compelled to mount refreshing and gratifying as it is hard private property. In a radius of chairs and beds, awaiting the arrival to understand. twenty-five miles the damage is esti- of boats. Many floated out on hasti- What an interest now is manifestmated at $150,000.

United States. Put forth a platform ing, and each and every boatmen has scene of life and activity that is not personalities of the candidates most of principles reaffirming its adherence made from one to five hundred dol- equalled, in some respects, in the admirably. Mr. Carlisle said: to the protective tariff, condemning improvement of national waterways tered. and national aid to education.

It is not a platform on which an intelligent patriotic citizen would call pondent secured a boat and first to stand and appeal to intelligence and patriotism for support, and yet many places there the water is fulthe main design is evidently to catch ter up to the roofs of many small Slavery in Brazil promises soon to be a thing of the past. The Parli- Not only all business has been suspass. It declares all slaves registered bodies, tubs, chairs and all manner and being cared for. Moreover, they can redeem about $200 each. Slaves 50 years about $200 each. Slaves 50 years able to get nearer than within a mile old or more need not thus serve their of the bridge, four hundred feet of any way. It is so easily made that not certain that he would take it. He masters, and if one of a married the Hamburg trestle having been to any great extent. It is marketed tive of the real principles and methcouple happens in some way to free Washed away. Neither the Charleston, himself, the other also becomes free. lina trains went out this morning. as The registered number of slaves the bridges were deemed unsafe, but in the empire is about 1,200,000.

President Cleveland is overwholmsirous of a Presidential visitation, no trains are running. and we further hope he may be big enough physically and psychically to fill their ideal of a whole President.

Charleston is discussing the expediency of getting a grand excursion Out of some four hundred houses in to the "city by the sea" sometime in hardly half a dozen inhabited. Batable their country cousins to make the water is from 5 to 20 feet deep. by unscrupulous parties, who sold an enjoyable trip to the city.

The News and Courier says: Citadel did a very sensible thing in We then proceeded out to Greene appointing Col John D. Wylie, of street above the Enterprise factory, Lancaster, its next annual orator," which has water all over the ground said a gentle man to a reporter yes. floor, and the stores in the neighterday. "Col. Wylie did as much as borhood are covered, in two instanany senator to forward the re-estab- ces over the counters. lishment of the Academy, of which he is an alumnus. I chanced in Columbia at the time the question of reestablishment was being agitated. The House had passed the bill, but the contest in the Senate was ex- the morning and at 2 o clock to-day a do more. They should provide this should provide the shipment of the ed, That all wines sold under the From the same Trial Justice bills tremely close and was, I believe, highest point is registered. The fruit, so that the freshness may be provisions of this Act shall be put up have been received, including some vial. eventually settled by the casting vots of the Lieutenant-Governor. There was a Senator from one of the upper coast counties, tall and ungainly in form, quizzical in language, and delen enough to allow the street cars to continuous transportation to all marline was made in ninety-five of Vocal and Instrumental Music. livery, but with a sound sub-stratum run over seven-eights of the line, but kets. They can well afford to do each and every bottle of wine sold by looking into the facts would have hours, an averaga of twenty-five miles manded an attentive hearing when on all the others streets the water is this, as the more accommodations and them. he rose to speak. He had voted so. yet quite deep. liminary skirmishes, and but for Col. considerable damage to the houses on larger the crops will be, and conse-shall, upon conviction thereof, be lidly against the Citadel in the pre-Wylie would have so continued to upper Greene street. vote. The night before the third reading of the bill Wylie went to the hotel of the Senator and reasoned horness and pulled it and the buggy But while t with him untill the wee sma' hours. So persuasive was Wylie that on the next day to the astonishment of all the sturdy Representative of the upper coast county voted for the re-esernor saved the day.

The description in the above paragraph suits the Senator from Horry water surrounds it to a depth of fif to a development of the wonderful with the exception that he was not teen feet. tall of stature. We are informed that it was not simply the persuasive arguments of Senator Wylie that oper usual business activity. ated the change of his vote on the succeeding day but one of his consti- thousands of dollars to repair the Break our people away from the ertuents, who is an alumnus of the Ac- streets alone, so badly have they been roneous idea that cotton is the only ademy and a special friend of the washed. All the sewers are broken. money crop we have, and the work ter strongly urging him to change front and support the Academy, and that was the main factor in bringing out the final a orable vote.

The damage done to the many residences and stores (County prove the turning point? Hadvance of the sickly season render. Or this soro, and the reporter count to the many residences and stores (County prove the turning point? Hadvance of the sickly season render. Or this soro, and the reporter count of the many residences and stores (County prove the turning point? Hadvance of the sickly season render. Or this soro, and the reporter count of the many residences and stores (County prove the turning point? Hadvance of the sickly season render. Or this soro, and the reporter count of the many residences and stores (County prove the turning point? (Coun

ANIMPROMPTU VENICE.

Augusta, July 31.-Augusta

The Picturesque But Pitiable Plight of Augusta.

ly constructed refts. A number of ed in melon-growing. What an inand vetoing pension bills. It favors 2 o'clock, it reached its gaeatest from place to place by every train, do. If nominated he will be elected, liberal pensions for soldiers and sail- height, thirty-five feeet. Since then and actively compete with each other no matter who may be his opponent. ors and large expenditures for the o'clock to-nigh one inch fall is regis-

THE SCENE IN HAMBURG

Shortly after 2 o'clock your correscrossed the river into Hamburg. In dwelling houses, and there is not from abroad are all alike filled with he has been subjected throughout his first floor is not submerged.

ment of the empire is now consider | pended, but the entire population ing a bill providing for the final have moved with their live stock over stages of emancipation and it will to Schultz Hill. Many hogs and cows werd drowned, and wagon under the Act of 1881 to be free. of household goods may be seen But they must serve their masters floating around on the water. None washed away. Neither the Charlotte, at a time when planters have little ods of the partisan Republicanism this afternoon both trains went out after delayng some hours.

The Charlotte, Columbia and Aued with invitations to visit different cities in the South and West. Hope the bridge three miles below the city of the bridge three miles and the city of the bridge three miles and the city of the bridge three miles below the city of the brid has been entirely washed away, and WATER IN THE SECOND STORIES. I then rowed up the river to the eastern portion of the city. There, was new and our planters inexperithat neighborhood there are now October. No doubt it would pay eaux were being paddled through the merchants handsomely, and en- the lower floors of many houses, and We then rowed up through Broad street from the Planters' Hotel to Reopening the Citadel Academy. the extreme upper end, and there the water is flooding all the stores, not one having escaped, and is in the "The Alumni Association of the first floor of many dwelling houses.

The Augusta Deluge Over.

August 1.→The ing through in torrents.

harness and pulled it and the buggy | But while the money realized from Court. ashore, letting the horse go down.

tablishment of the Citadel, and his his lately completed work washed have made a break from exclusive Act. away. It is feared that the whole cotton planting as a money crop, buildings is undermined but nothing Other agricultural experiments are definite can yet be learned. The now sure to be made which will lead an end, and the city is regaining its ful agriculture there is absolutely no

It is difficult to form an idea of will be fairly begun. Why may not Horry Senator, had written him let- the immense amount of damage done the watermelon culture in Barnwell

A Revolt from King Cotton.

BLACKVILLE, July 23 .- A few beautuiful city Venice. Almost the entire place is one smooth but pretty expanse of water, dotted with boats of water, dotted with boats of water, dotted with boats of water and beautuiful city Venice. Almost the entire place is one smooth but pretty entire place is one smooth but pretty expanse of water, dotted with boats of water, dotted water, dot city without danger of running South Carolina Railway on both sides, equal to Aiken, health unsurpassed overcome expense and delays by nu-tion, and so informed his fellow-priswaters, and then boats were so agricultural resources of this county, place to spend the winter, or to locate sylvania road system. scarce that many had to sleep in the and has talked it and written of it on and invest permanently, either for and consequently glutted some marinstances consigners were swindled melons in many of the markets. But The following is the copy of an these matters have all been overcome Act to permit the sale of domestic handled and prices have been very without license: satisfactory all the time. It is estimated that the crop of this season, Senate and House of Representatives which has now been mostly marketed, of the State of South Carolina, now Trial Justice's fee$3,00 will put at least fifty-thounand dol- met and sitting in General Assembly, Constable' fee 5,75 lars in the pockets of out people in and by the authority of the same, Sheriff's bill. commitment 50 this section of our country. Of course That from and after the passage of melon-growing can only be profita- this act it shall be lawful for any per- Clerks charges...... 1,00 bly carried on where the lands are son or persons in this State, without contiguous to railroads, as it will not license, to sell, trade or barter, in There is besides a further bill for The railroads are doing much to pro | mestic wine manufactured by such from jail, for the case was appealed waters have been slowly receding all mote the industry but can and should person or persons from grapes or ber- from the Trial Justice's court and the morning and at 2 o'clock to-day a do more. They should provide cars rys grown within this State: Provid- dismissed.

melon growing is very gratifying in and untold agricultural resources of It is thought now, since the fall has our State. With soil, climate and commenced, that the damage is at every natural advantage for successreason why our State should not be dently written in the city: It will take months of work and the garden spot of our great country.

covering from the ashes. Fine brick stores now meet the gaze on every hand and handsome residences are Carlisle on the Situation.

The Ohio Republican Convention badly, charging as much as a dollar a animation it throws into business cir- ment as a statesman and politician.

the market from all points. The found in the fact that even his most South Carolina Railway is kept busy vigitant and vindictive political opmoving the crop. Buying and sel ponents have not been able to point ling is active every afternoon when to a single instance in which any the cars, which have been loaded all public interest bas suffered on account along the line, have been massed here. of his official conduct. The petulant The farmers, merchants, and buyers tone of the party criticism to which the desire of big profits, and a frag- administration is of itself a confession ment of the spirit of Wall street seems that his course in regard to large and to have turned loose here. The re- important matters is unassailable. sult this season has been greatly So long as he does the right thing at beneficial to our section. The plan- the right time, and in the right way, ters have realized good prices, and all no political capital can be made by who have handled the crop are satis attempts to ridicule or exaggerate fied with the profits realized. The his personal characteristics; and if he crop is easily made, rapidly marketed, is renominated the Republicans will and the universal verdict is that the discover, long before the campaign is not interfere with the cotton crop in nomination if he wants it. But I am 075,000; to this must be added the session of him. the cotton crop need not be decreased is the most perfect living representaelse to do, and brings cash into cir | which characterized administration of culation at a time money is greatly the government for twenty years afneeded. Some of the small farmers ter the close of the war; and if the 108,067, an increase of 2,200,705; past three weeks. Some time ago a tell me that they have already in pock- party intends to make an honest and fermented liquors $21,922,187, an inot as much money as their cotton crop aggressive campagn in support of its crease of $2,245,456; oleomargarine packed in boxes after the usual manwill realize, at one-fifth of the cost, actual political faith it will compel $723,948, all increase. Banks $4,- ner. The eggs were placed in sto-It is safe to say that the watermelon ereignty of the Republican party, and gures indicate a decrease in the con- lid was removed the low call of industry has passed the experimental in himself as the impersonation of its sumption of shirituous liquors, and a chicks sounded in his ears. One enstage in this section. It did not power. He therefore claims the al- corresponding increase in the con- tire layer of eggs was found to be prove near so remunertive at first, legiance and active support of every sumption of malt liquors. owing to the fact that the movement professed Republican, and never fornear the bank, the water is running was new and our planters means to later any one and our planters means to bank, the water is running enced and did not understand how to alienated him from a large number of gives any one who opposes him. This Unwarranted Expence to the light fifteen well-developed "ormarket the crop to the best advantage, prominent men in his own party, but he is still stronger inside the party ket while others went unsupplied. than any other man, and if nominated The arrangements for freights had would recieve the full partisan vote; ry to trial frivolous cases at great ex- ment will hatch. not been systematized and in many but he will never again receive such a vote as he received in 1884."

SECSION 1. Be it enacted by the pay to haul them any great distance. quantities not less than a quart, do board for July, and fee for discharge assurances the people have of real- Sec. 2 That any person or persons The water from the canal has done izing profits from their industry, the violating the provisions of this Act quently an increase of business for fined in a sum not more than fifty A dead horse hitched to a buggy the roads, and that, too, at a time dollars, or by imprisonment not more was seen floating down the river this when there is nothing much else for than one month, or both fined and

SEC. 3. That all Acts or parts of Cronly, vouches the following: Lombard's foundry, where the se- itself, yet the result of the experi- Acts, general or special, contrary to A colored man brought several Episcopal Church at Elberon, N. J.

Approved Dec. 26, A. D. 1885.

A Poetical Address.

Columbia Record

The following is the novel address upon a letter put in the Columbia post office on Saturday. It was evi-

Toot! toot! your whistle loud; let her scream! Take me along with a full head of steam. To Fort Scott, Kansas, I want to go, Where in summer gentle zephyrs blow; To B. F. Walls, who is there making brick. Please take me right away, quick!

Important Railroad Matters.

PHILADELPHIA, July 30.-Frank

Traffic Manager of the Virginia Mid- sustained. land railroad, and John S. Wilson, interests of the South.

operator is kept busy sending and re- tion, and the best evidence of his ca- shall be promptly assigned to this ceiving dispatches as to the state of pacity for the place he occupies is service, and it is the intention of all parties interested to proceed at once to get these through lines in opera tion at the earliest date possible.

Interstate Revenue Statistics.

Washington, July 25,—The comchild a preliminary report of the opecost of printing the internal revenue stamps. The receipts from different objects of taxation, as compared with the receipts for the previous year,

County.

county Trial Justices sometimes car- looks as though the entire consignpense to the county, which could be settled without expense, the below is given. The case was one, that of State vs. James Bredlow, brought beand this season's crop has been well wines manufactured in this State fore Trial Justice Brown, in the case of alleged larceny of a pocketknife, the value of which was probably about canal bank is washed away for thirty better preserved, and guard against in bottles, casks or demijohns contain- cases which were dissmissed before -Columbia Register.

" board for June 1,80

A Steep Story Densely Verified.

(Wilmington Messenger.) Mr. John Watters, superintendant

imprisoned, in the discretion of the of the fibre department of Acme cond level canal broke, is in fearful ment is much more far-reaching. the provissions of this act be, and the hens to that embryo city for sale. He seats visitors who have no pews condition, some portions of the building being badly washed, and much of nected with it is that our farmers they may be in conflict with this a little yellow fowl, came into posesssion of Mr. Walters. Dutifully she tribution box. Mr. Childs is very laid a nest of eggs and persevering- proud of his office and will not acly she hatched a brood of chickens, cept any other in the gift of the litand with maternal care she nursed the church. and hovered over her brood.

on until a full cock's plumage adorned that hen. She emerged into a full fledged black-broasted to full fledged black-breasted brasswinged red cock, with glossy flow-the hen-rooster to Capt. Strudwick, an office. In advance of the sickly season render of Hillsboro, and the reporter could Fidelity to The Old Flag.

Washington, July 29.—The sec-There were present at the intere- intention, and finally reached his old can be found.

or piazzas, but these were quickly minds of our planters, it is almost they could wish. We will welcome Atlantic Coast Line; E. B. Thomas, plied for a pension on the ground of A disastrous rainstorm passed over overflowed. Then those whose incomprehensible to note the change all who wish to come among us to se- General manager of the Richmond disability contracted while in the Fedand Danville railroad; Sol Haas, eral service. This fact was fully

General Freight and Traffic Agent aided, directly or inerectiv, the ene- any other country. Physicians say of the Pennsylvania railroad. Three mies of the Government in the late that from the equator north, and The Messenger has the greatest through freight lines are so arranged war shall be permitted to draw a from the arctic regions south, nervthose who own boats have acted very dustry it has become. What life and confidence in Speaker Carlisle's judg- to cover all the important southern pension. Hedgspeth's brief connec- ous diseases reach a climax in the territory reached by the roads out of ion with the Confederacy made him temperate zone, the zone in which Eumet in Toledo, July the 27, renominated Foraker for Governor, endorsed Laboratory for Governor for Governor for Governor for Governor for Gove John Sherman for President of the extortionate rate as they feared drown- low on the railroad have exhibited a lilities of the next campaign and the Line and the third via Wilmington, some favorable and others unfavora- the increased activity, the nervous Norfolk, Richmond and Portsmouth. ble and others unfavorable, have strain under which the American Each of the companies interested will been written upon the case by dif- people live. In Europe nervous disbusy cotton months. Buyer and sol- "I think the renomination of Mr. furnish its quota of ears and lines as ferent officials of the interior depart- eases classed under this head are but As predicted in this correspondence, icitors for commission houses from all in the matter of the civil service law in the matter of the in the case, which are very volumi- It is partly due to our climate, but Vice-President Thompson has all nous, include a strong protest by principally to American enterprise. ready directed that cars to be provid- Commissioner Black against the pay-

Blind Tom.

Baltimore, July 30,-Judge Bond Court today, decided that Thomas Wiggins, known all over the world Queen has evidently concluded that es "Blind Tom" the pianist, shall be it is more blessed to receive that to delivered on or before August 16 in- give presents. Hence many tears. missioner of eternal revenue, Miller, to the custody of Mrs. Eliza Bethune, to day submitted to Secretary Fair- who represents Charity Wiggins, the mother of "Blind Tom," and that Jas rations of that service during the fis- W. Bethune, who has had charge of cal year ending July 30, 1887, from him, shall at the same time pay to which the following facts and figures Mrs. Bethuse the sum of $7,000 for are taken: Total collection from all past services. The case has been in sources of internal revenue for the the Courts for several years, and has fiscal year just ended, were $118,835, attracted considerable a, ention from This is $1,635,888 more than the fact that Tom was been held as a the collection for the previous fiscal chattal by the Bethunes ever since year. The cost of collection to be his musical genius has made him valbut the beauty of is that it does But the But the beauty of is that it does But the But the But the beauty of is that it does But the But the But the beauty of is that it does But the But the But the beauty of is that it does But the But the But the beauty of is that it does But the But the But the beauty of is that it does But the But the But the beauty of is that it does But the paid out of the appropriations made uable. The suit was brought in the Chickens Hatched by the Heat.

Indianapolis, July 20.—A novel was as follows: Spirits $95,829,332, a sight was witnessed here vesterday as decrease of $3,262.946; tobacco $30, the result of high temperature of the hatching out and in a few minutes after the eggs were brought to the phans" picked their way through the shells. Another layer began to As a specimen of the way in which hatch out about noon and it now

Sioux City Sinking.

Curcago, July 29.—A special from Sioux City, Iowa, says:

"The Missyuri River continues to cut the bank in front of this city, CREEK, MORAL AND MENTAL PHILOSOseveral hundred feet of valuable Phy. property having gone out of sight in the last twenty-four hours. Illinois Central, Sioux City and Pacific and Milwaukee Railroads have joined in an effort to stop the cutting, and are working three hundred men. Engineers say they can control it in time.,'

Sick-headache, wind on the stomach, Little Liver and Kidney Pellets. 25c. per

The Atlantic Coast Line sent this or forty feet and water is still pour- loss from excessive. heat. They ing not less than one quart, and that the Court of General Sessions, yet week the first watermelon train should also reduce the freights and a label containing the name of the considerable expense caused the trough from Valdosta, Ga., to Bos-On Broad street the water has fal- arrange for schedules of rapid and person or persons manufacturing and county by going through the form of ton, with 15,000 melons on board. shown the baselessness of the actions. per hour, at a cost of about fifteen cents per melon. It is pleasurable to note any convenience extended to tillers of the soil. Truckers in this section might observe this item and govern themselves accordingly.

According to an old custom Manufacturing Company's works at George W. Childs is acting, during the summer, as sexton at the little

When the chicks were weaned the hen grew sick, nigh unto death, and began to moult. The process kept on venience and loss to the farmer and in

Just fame is accorded to a Kening tail.

M1 Walters regretted he had sent and has never been a candidate for years ago the man who would have rapidly filling up the open lots. The Thompson, vice president of the Penn-retary of the interror to day devied ted States Marshal Gross returned South Carolina Railway is making sylvania railroad had an interview the claim of William Hedgspeth, ex- from Taylor County to-night, where ventured to suggest to the farmers alterations and amendments to yesterday with the managers of several private in this country to collect the railroad Augusta, July 31.—Augusta along the railroads in this county meet the large fall business which eral important railway lines leading. The case is an uncommon one, and eral Court to collect the railroad

Coercing a Country.

Confederate army he carried out his out of the county before purchasers

Far better than the harsh treatment of medicines which horribly grips the patient and destroy the coating of the stomach Dr. J. H. McLeans Chill and Fever cure. Sold at 50 cents a bottle.

What is neurasthenia? It is more The law provides that no one who common in the United States than

Some cruel wag spread the report that Queen Victoria would give six guineas and a silver cradle to every child born in her dominions on Jubilee Day. About four hundred sitting in the United States District People made application for the precious gifts for their darlings, but the Two balloons have been purchased for the military school at Tientsin, China. The larger one is capable of holding sixty or seventy persons, and the smaller thirty persons. An instructor has already arrived at Tientsin, and after five months practice trial trips will be made.

Charles Bohn, of Indiana, sold his wife to J. H. Bunch, a blind pensionsioner, for $300. Wonder who was cheated in the transaction.

Exposure to rough weather, getting wet living in damp localities, are favorable to and bladder. As a preventive, and for the cure of all kidney and liver trouble, us that valuable remedy, Dr. J. H. McLean's Liver and Kidney Balm. $1.00 per bottle CONTRACTOR DESCRIPTION OF THE PROPERTY OF THE

ADVERTISEMENTS

FAIR BLUFF

MALE AND FEMALE INSTITUTE,

With Military Department for Boys and Calisthenics and Fine Arts for Girls.

REV. J. A. SMITH GRADUATE OF DAVIDSON CO LEGE, PROF. OF LATIN AND

CAPT. W. L. FLOYD, GRADUATE OF S. C. MILITARY ACADEMY, PROF. MATHE-MATICS AND MILITARY TACTICS.

MISS LOULA AYERS, GRADUATE billiousness, nausea, are promptly and of Chowan Female Institute, Teacher agreeably banished by Dr. J. H. McLean's of Calisthenics, Higher English, Mu-SIC AND FRENCH.

> MRS. MARIA LOUISA SMITH, SAVANNAH, GA. HIGH SCHOOL, TEACHER

TUITION AND BOARD REASONABLE-CITADEL CAP AND UNIFORM $16.75.

SESSION OPENS ON THE FIRST MONDAY IN SEPTEMBER 1887. FOR OUR LARGE

CIRCULAR, ADDRESS CAPT. W. L. FLOYD, FAIR BLUFF, N. C.

july 21 Notice to Creditors.

M. T. Floyd, Administrator of L. H. Floyd, deceased, Plaintiff aganist Cathcrine E. Coleman, Sarah E. Coleman, Hugh J. Floyd, et al, Defendants.

Complaint for Judgment and Relief. In obedience to an Order of the Court n above stated case made by Judge J. H.

ed, are required to prove their demands before the Clerk of this Court, on or berore the 10th day of September next, or this notice may be plead in bar of their

JOHN M. OLIVER, C. C. P. july 21

THOS. F. GILLESPIE. Attorney at Law and Trial Justice.