Local News.

The family of B. G. Collins returned from the mountains yesterday.

Rev. W. A. Wright, has just closed a series of meetings at Pisgah church with five accessions to the church and several conversions.

Rev. H. H. Holmes of Poplar, pastor of the Rehoboth Baptist church preached his farewell sermon on the 16th inst.

A wild cat was killed in the fowl house of Mr. Fred Floyd, while in the act of destroying several of his fowls on the night of the 2nd inst.

S. Blakely of Georgetown has reopened the barber shop vacated by Franklin and is prepared to serve the people with entire satisfaction.

We return thanks to J. Wilson Roberts for the largest pear of the season. It weighed one and a half pounds plus. Also Ana Royals for half a dozen very fine pears.

The young men and boys of the Gideon section have organized a Debating society with W. S. Cooper, as the present president which we hope will have a tendency to cultivate the oratorical and intellectual powers of the young "Gideonites."

Delinquent subscribers will please remember that we will call upon them in a few days, probably along with the tax collector, and we hope all will make an extra effort and pay up all arrearages to THE HERALD. If you can't pay all please help us what you can.

W. N. Chestnut, a boy about thirteen years old, was chopping down some bushes and heard a rattle shake singing his rattles, and searching in some brush, discovered and promptly dispatched his snake-ship. It had twelve rattles.

Elisha Tyler became boisterous and bellicose on Tuesday afternoon and stabbed his mule on which he was sitting several times. He finally got on the ground and produced a stampede among the on-lookers by his promiscuous slashing with his open knife. He took up in jail.

The largest crowd for years was in town on Monday. Considerable intoxicants were afloat somewhere, as we saw several persons under their baleful influence, and the most mortifying part was, they were mostly young men, just blossoming into manhood. The major portion of the crowd were decent and well-behaved. In the afternoon there came near being a serious row, but the prompt interference of the Sheriff and his deputies soon quieted the belligerents. Some of the more active ones were lodged in jail and others dispersed in the surrounding crowd and disappeared. The horse swapping brigade did a lively business.

The notorious case of Col. J. H. Morrow, of Washington, D. C. charged with an unmentionable and unusual crime in this clime was tried in Columbia last week consuming several days. He was ably defended by Ex-Judge Melton, who used all his eloquence and legal acumen in vain. The case was ably managed both by the prosecution and the defence. The jury was out about thirty minutes when they returned with a verdict of guilty and Judge Wallace sentenced the gallant Colonel to six years in the penitentiary. The punishment is hardly commensurate with the offence of which he was convicted. As the solicitor properly remarked in closing his speech to the jury, such a crime as this is unusual in the South, and, we think, the punishment should be exemplary to prevent its importation. The victim of this man's lustful passions and vile practices was a beautiful and unprotected girl in Columbia laboring daily for a livelihood, whose almost forlorn condition should have appealed to this old man's humanity and manhood for protection and guidance. He whose relation should have been paternal has acted seducer and traducer.

CASKET Br bk) Tozer, from Huelvia, Spain, for Wilm. N. C., loaded with iron pyrites, went ashore night Sep 13 on Frying Pan Shoals. The crew, consisting of ten persons, were all saved and landed at Cape Fear Life Saving Station by the crew of that station. The weather was very thick and stormy during the night, with high seas. The vessel and cargo are a total loss.

The Cotton Plant, organ of the Alliance, has been leased to J. W. Bowden, the leader of the Third Party in South Carolina. This is significant and, we suppose, means the paper will now openly champion the Third Party, what it has been doing covertly. If the principles of the Populists commend themselves to his judgement and he desires to see their adoption as the governing policy of this Government it is the editor's right to advocate them. But how can he consistently advise the people to vote that ticket after pledging themselves to vote for the Democratic nominees, when he refused to participate in the recent primary election so that his hands and vote would be unfettered? If he conscientiously felt that participation in the primary would bind him to vote for the nominees, why does not the same act on the part of the people bind them? The Cleveland electors are as much the nominees of the Democratic party as Gov. Tillman. They were nominated by the same Convention under the same rules and were anomalously pledged to cast the electoral vote of South Carolina for Grover Cleveland. If a man votes at all who participated in the primary he is bound by all rules of honor to vote for the Cleveland electors nominated by the September convention.

At the Spring term of the court J. William B. King pleaded guilty to the charge of retailing liquor without license and was brought before the court on Tuesday for sentence. The sentence of the court was six months in the penitentiary, or one hundred dollar fine. Promptly upon the publication of the sentence a pardon from the Governor was produced signed October 3rd. The Judge at the Spring term did not fix the sentence, on account of the health of Mr. King, but left that for the Judge at this term, and Mr. King's friends took advantage of this delay and procured a pardon from the Governor before the sentence was fixed. This may be right and proper but it does seem irregular. The Governor's prerogative is simply to remit the penalty imposed for the commission of a crime against the State. No penalty had been imposed by the court, and the question arises, what did the Governor remit or pardon, the guilt, or the penalty? There was no penalty fixed, except in anticipation. Does the Governor's prerogative allow him to pardon anticipated penalties? then his prerogative trenches perilously near the Roman Catholic dogma of indulgences. The health of the prisoner may have influenced the Governor's action in this case and on that account may have made it an exceptional one. It will be noticed that the Governor's pardon reads William J. B. King and not J. Wm B. King. This was perhaps done by the careless reading of the Governor's private Secretary and will not invalidate the remission.

Mutterings of dissatisfaction have been heard in different quarters about the disposition of the funds raised by mortgaging the W. C. & C. railroad by the former administration. A meeting of the stockholders and Commissioners of the Townships was held at Chadborn in 1890 when the matter of extending the road to Lumberton was discussed and the advantages of the extension were so plainly presented that the authority to mortgage the whole road for $4000, per mile to raise the funds to make the extension was readily and willingly granted. Only one regular meeting of stockholders has been held since the mortgage was given and then the extension to Hub was incomplete and the report of the treasurer was necessarily incomplete. The bonded indebtedness of the road is not known to the subscribing Townships. The road including the extension as now completed is 50 miles and $4,000 per mile would raise $200,000, but whether this has been done or not is unknown here. Work on the extension was discontinued at Hub and the whole road sold to the Atlantic Coast Line.

Some of the Commissioners for the Townships are anxious to have an accounting or a report as to the mortgage indebtedness of the road and how the money raised by mortgage and otherwise was disposed of and called a meeting of the commissioners last Monday night. They met in R. B. Scarborough's office and after discussing the situation formulated the following plan of procedure: Resolved: That we as representatives of the Townships voting bonds in aid of the construction of the Wilmington Chadborn and Conway railroad, employ R. B. Scarborough as our agent to act in concert with Butters, of Hub, an expert accountant to examine the books of said Company and report the result of their examination to us early as practicable.

Revival Meeting. A meeting of days conducted by the pastor, Rev. D. D. Cox, closed on the 9th inst at Cane Branch Baptist church. Other brethren assisted the pastor. On the eighth day an experience meeting was held and it was soul strong to hear the testimony and religious experiences of old soldiers of the cross, and also some of the young soldiers. They seem to be steadfast in the faith of Jesus Christ the Lord of all. May the Lord continue to bless those around Cane Branch and give them more faith that they may never forget the text from which the pastor urged them to think on their ways and turn to God: Oh! it was heart-breaking to hear our pastor beg and urge the mourners who came to the altar so many times, and some so near and dear to him and that he had begged to jump in their Saviour's arms, and they would not until the last opportunity, and oh! how it made the pastor and members rejoice to see them jump before it was too late.

The result of the meeting shows, 4 restored, received by letter 1, baptized 12, total 17. After the baptizing the congregation reassembled in the church and listened to an interesting and instructive sermon by Rev. H. H. Holmes. The applicants were then received into the Church. The congregation then took the parting hand some probably for the last time this side of long eternity. May God bless our pastor and his labors more abundantly than hitherto. J. F. STEVENS, JR.

Court Proceedings. Court is in Session and is moving along very smoothly. Judge Witherspoon presides with dignity and suavity, exercising the functions of his high position with gentleness and firmness. The officers of the court are prompt in their duties and thus accelerate the discharge of business. One notable feature of this court is the number of cases growing out of absolutely insignificant causes, but with sufficient legal merit to warrant their trial in the higher court. One case of "malicious mischief" grew out of the cutting of a shoe worth perhaps twenty five cents, yet the law makes the malicious injury of the personal property of another, regardless of its value, a penal offence. Some way ought to be devised to relegate such cases to the jurisdiction of Trial Justices and save the enormous expenses of trial in the upper court.

The following cases have been disposed of: The State vs John T. Allen, Larceny—sheep stealing. Not guilty. The State vs Elisha Tyler and Amelia Tyler, selling domestic wines contrary to law. Not guilty. The State vs H. F. Chestnut and Sallie West, Adultery. Not guilty. The State vs Joel E. B. Grainger, privily stealing from the person. Not guilty. W. H. H. Grainger, Thos. W. Williams and Joel E. B. Grainger, riot and assault. Guilty as to W. H. H. Grainger and Joel E. B. Grainger. The latter sentenced to penitentiary 18 months. The State vs Virgil Moore, forgery. Continued. The State vs Thos. Parker, practicing physic contrary to law. Not prosed. The State vs Joshua Nichols, malicious mischief. Guilty. 7 dollars or 15 days in jail. The State vs Anthony T. Ward, malicious trespass. Guilty. 10 dollars or 30 days in jail. The State vs J. C. Ellerbe assault with intent to kill. Guilty of assault of high aggravated nature. Sentence 2 months in County jail or pay $20. Paid. The State vs Wheeler Gowans Burglary and Larceny. Guilty, 2 years and 6 months in Penitentiary. The State vs Gabriel Singleton Practicing physic contrary to law. Guilty.

What the Electropoise will do. It will completely exterminate the germs of disease, and effect a permanent cure where drugs and stimulants are powerless. The following letter from a prominent clergyman will be of interest to sufferers: The Electropoise has worked wonders in my household. I introduced it to Mrs. Cuthbert last March as a remedy for rheumatism, and since then she has had little sick and crutches and is able to attend to all of her household duties. Another member of my family by using it is better than she has ever been, and I myself find it an admirable tonic when tired out after overwork on the Sabbath. I have invested in this instrument because of our experience and expression of opinion. Very gratefully, Rev. LUCIUS CUTHBERT. Consultation and advice by mail, or in person, without charge. Atlantic Electropoise Co., ATLANTA, GA.
