"THE FLOWER SHOP."

Great interest is being displayed in the coming of "The Flower Shop" which will be opened local play-peers at the School Auditorium Thursday and Friday, Oct. 28th and 29th, at 8:30 o'clock. Charles Hilliard, the author and producer, arrived in Conway Saturday afternoon, bringing the costumes and effects used in the beautiful spectacle, and is rehearsing the cast, both afternoon and night, to insure a smooth, snappy performance. The American Legion is lending enthusiastic support, feeling sure of general appreciation for sponsoring so big and important attraction. Conway is one of the last towns in South Carolina to see "The Flower Shop" and with a string of successes and box office records to its credit it, two full houses are expected here.

We have a Car of Cotton Seed Meal on hand we will exchange for Seed or we will sell cheap for Cash. Mishoe & Prince, Gurley, S. C. ad

JOHN N. PIERCE CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY.

On Friday, October 22, John N. Pierce celebrated his 97th birthday, he being the oldest man in the Conway section. A number of invited guests were present to enjoy the dinner, which consisted of everything needful to satisfy the inner man.

The table was spread out under the oaks, with autumn leaves and beautiful fall flowers for decorations. His only near relatives present were B. V. Pierce and wife and Miss Lena Pierce and Mrs. G. Cartrette and family. The invited guests were Capt. and Mrs. C. S. Causey and Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Anderson of Conway, Mr. and Mrs. J. King, Mr. and Mrs. G. Cartrette, and Miss Velma and Pierce Cartrette, and Mrs. Charley Anderson of Poplar, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Waller and Mrs. Frances McCracken of this section. This was the most enjoyable occasion of the season and all present wish Mr. Pierce many congratulations for such a ripe old age and wish him many more to come. —One Present.

TERM OF COURT DOES NOTHING

Except to Meet and Call the Jurors Names and Then Adjourn

ATTORNEYS SICK PARTIES ARE ALSO

No More Civil Court Before the Spring of 1921—Criminal Next February.

The Court of Common Pleas convened here on last Monday morning with Judge T. S. Sease presiding. A long roster of cases had been set for trial at a recent meeting of the Bar and it was expected that it would be necessary to hold the Court almost throughout the week in order to dispose of these cases. The Judge did not arrive in Conway until in the afternoon last Monday and the Court was not called to order until 2:30 o'clock. After the jurymen had been called and thirty-four out of thirty-six answered to their names, then the Judge called the cases on the roster and found that none of these set for Monday were ready for trial.

It developed that several of the attorneys had been sick and were unable to go into their cases. In a few of the cases the parties themselves had been sick and could not attend in Court.

Judge Sease remained in Conway and opened the Court on Tuesday and yet there was no case ready for trial, and he left Conway on the afternoon train last Tuesday.

There will not be another term of the Civil Court before about next April. The next term of Criminal Court will be in February, 1921.

Ed. L. Smith, of the Cooper-Smith Co., has been sick at Mullins, for a week, but he is now back in Conway and better.

M. W. Wall, formerly of Conway, but who is now located in North Carolina, spent the first of the week with friends here.

BAILEY CHESTNUT TAKEN BY POLICE

When he Comes Into Conway Loaded up With Home Made Booze

CUTS JAIL BEDS DAMAGES WINDOWS

Heavy Fines are Imposed by Authorities When Defendant is Tried.

The peace of Conway was disturbed last Sunday night when Bailey Chestnut came in under the influence of intoxicants, bringing with him his own son, the son having in his thigh a severe cut measuring many inches in length. The man brought the boy to the doctor, then knocked about the streets after cutting at the walls of the building in which the doctor's office is located.

Bailey was taken to the county jail by the chief of police to spend the remainder of the night. In the jail Chestnut cut up two mattresses, slashed the coverlets, broke out the window panes, and pulled out the sash. Only the iron bars prevented his going out to freedom before day broke. In the town court the first of the week he paid fines, which in amount would seem to be adequate to the damage he did.

He could give no satisfactory account as to how his boy got cut. The chief of police took a bottle from his inside pocket partly filled with home made booze. Judging by the results this booze must have been strong.

Holiday's big sale is still on at Aynor. Watch this paper for advertisement next week. Call any day and get your choice of the many bargains. adv
