HAD FINE RAIN

This section of the county was visited by a fine rain last Wednesday and at a time when things were getting very dry.

The tobacco was beginning to burn to some extent on the bottom leaves, but the showers of last Wednesday and Wednesday night revived the drooping plants and also greatly improved the corn and peas throughout a large section of Horry County.

GETS MUCH WORSE

The drinking fountain at the court house has gradually grown into bad repair and now is much worse than nothing so far as being sure of getting a supply of cool water.

It leaks. It refuses to spout. It gives such a flat stream that one cannot drink from the top of the flow but must suck down against the lips of the affair and run the risk of getting whatever germs may be clinging there.

The Quinine That Does Not Affect The Head
Because of its tonic and laxative effect, LAXATIVE BROMO QUININE (Tablets) can be taken by anyone without causing nervousness or ringing in the head. E. W. GROVE'S signature on box. 30c.

GET GOOD PRICES

Sales were going on Wednesday at the auction warehouses, beginning at 10:30 a. m. opening day.

Prices were ranging from eight cents up to fifty on the primings. Things were looking good.

LOSES A BARN

John T. Proctor lost a tobacco barn and a full curing of leaf tobacco last Friday night about 11:30 o'clock.

The fire had been drawn and things left in apparently safe condition some hours before that when the work was knocked off.

The barn was seen in flames later on in the night and it was totally destroyed.

CURIOUS CITRON

A curiosity in the melon line comes from the farm of Joe M. Vereen, of Vina, S. C. It is two perfect citrons both growing from a single stem. The citrons are well developed and about the size that is usually attained by them when planted in good ground. No one has been found who can remember seeing two produced from one stem.

Vereen has one of the finest crops he has ever produced on his place. It consists of corn, tobacco, watermelons and other crops.

NEW MONEY BONDS

A new style of bond to be secured by mortgage of real estate, is now on sale at the law blank department of the Horry Herald. It is according to a form used in a law office in Conway for about fifteen years. It is a good form and will answer your purpose better than the ones you are now using.
