WALLACE REID
IN GREAT FILM

That there are thrills concealed in the prosaic motor truck, as well as the graceful lines of the racing automobile is proven by Wallace Reid's latest picture, "What's Your Hurry?" which will be on view at the Pastime theater next Monday.

As "Dusty" Rhoades, auto racer, the breezy star wins a speedy tussle on the track, but fails to impress Patrick MacMurran, whom "Dusty" hopes to have as a father-in-law. Pat is the manufacturer of Pakro trucks. "Dusty" tries to demonstrate his worth as publicity man for the Pakro, but only succeeds in getting more deeply "in wrong." However, when a big irrigation dam threatens to yield under the strain of a raging storm and to bring disaster upon the valley below, "Dusty" not only shows his own mettle but also brings Pakro trucks to the fore.

TAKES TRIP
TO ALABAMA

Governor Thomas G. McLeod, with members of his staff, including Col. M. R. Smith of Conway, left last Thursday morning, July 26th, from Columbia via the Southern Railway, for Camp McClellan, Anniston, Alabama. Enroute to Anniston, they stopped one hour at Spartanburg and one hour in Atlanta. The governor's staff appeared in service uniform on this trip.

The governor and his staff arrived in Anniston, Alabama the same evening at 8:11 o'clock. They were met at the train by the Adjutant General Robert E. Craig, and Colonel T. E. Marchant, and other officers, where they were immediately driven by automobile out to Camp McClellan, a distance of six miles from Anniston. Here the governor and his staff members were immediately assigned to tents and allowed to pick their orderlies.

The next morning after a hearty, good breakfast, the governor and the adjutant general, accompanied by the governor's staff, immediately got busy on their inspection trip, first inspecting the long range one pound guns, then to the trench mortar (ordinally called a heavy short cannon). This trench mortar shoots a twelve pound bomb. It is very effective, and deadly to the enemy.

Then next to the machine gun company. After a careful inspection of these guns, the officers put them into action, and the general opinion was that these guns were the most deadly of all. The score of the shots excellent.

The rifle range was next. The Springfield rifle was used, the targets being at a distance of six hundred yards. Again some excellent shooting, the bull's eye often being hit. Our adjutant general tried his hand, hitting the bull's eye twice out of five shots. The general is a good shot.

They next made an inspection of the kitchen and other departments, where they found everything in excellent and sanitary condition.

The governor and his staff reviewed the National Guard at four o'clock on Friday afternoon. The South Carolina National Guard is composed of about twelve hundred men, one regiment, a fine specimen of manhood, they are rated and the records at Washington will show South Carolina to have the best regiment in the South. The adjutant general paid a beautiful tribute to these young officers and men, of which he said he was particularly proud. In turn after the review, General Craig, in his usual clever way, presented the Commander in Chief, Governor Thomas G. McLeod, who was well received by all. Governor McLeod made an able address and praised the officers and men to the highest, saying that he wanted the people of South Carolina to know that they had good protection by having the best regiment in the South.

South Carolina has no cavalry, but at this time had a corps of Engineers and artillery in camp at Camp Bragg,

ANDERSON IS AGAIN LEADER

S. S. Anderson has no doubt again led the county in the production of fine watermelons, selling his entire crop on the local markets, and not shipping any of them to other markets.

He had one and a half acres planted in melons this year. He has raised a total of from one thousand five hundred to two thousand watermelons on this ground this year. He has not disposed of the entire crop as yet, but he has sold many wagon loads by wholesale to leading Conway merchants. He will continue to sell on this market as rapidly as the melons are ripe and ready.

His melons this year are not quite so large as in former years but many of them weigh fifty pounds or a little over, and they have been so fine that merchants have been anxious to get hold of them, and customers of those merchants who have handled the Anderson watermelon this year have no complaints to make.

A story of how to make motor trucks famous and how to win your sweetheart when her father objects.—Wallace Reid in "What's Your Hurry?" at Pastime, Monday.

and Fortress Monroe, in training.

General Pershing left Camp McClellan the day before the arrival of the governor and his staff.

There was in camp at Camp McClellan at this time cavalry from North Carolina, Tennessee and Georgia, also the United States reserve corps, in training. The Mississippi infantry had only recently left.

Besides the National Guard, South Carolina had at Camp McClellan, two motor transport companies and one ambulance company.

Camp McClellan was named after General McClellan, and is a beautiful location for a camp. It is only six miles from Anniston. The camp contains nineteen thousand and five hundred acres of land. It is owned by the Federal Government, and was used extensively in the training of soldiers during the World war. It is surrounded by the Chococolo, Turkey, Blue and Sweet Water Mountains. At this time of the year the officers and soldiers use double blankets for cover at night. It is rather warm in the day time.

No Worms in a Healthy Child

All children troubled with Worms have an unhealthy color, which indicates poor blood, and as a rule, there is more or less stomach disturbance. GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC given regularly for two or three weeks will enrich the blood, improve the digestion, and act as a general Strengthening Tonic to the whole system. Nature will then throw off or dispel the worms, and the Child will be in perfect health. Pleasant to take. 50c per bottle.

SHOWERS FOR MR. AND MRS. C. D. GASQUE

At the conclusion of the program of the Epworth League on Tuesday evening the Leaguers surprised their president, Mr. C. D. Gasque, and his bride with a miscellaneous shower.

Miss Bessie Dusenbury, the leader for the evening called on Dr. J. C. Atkinson for a short talk and in a very fitting manner he commented on the work of the League and commended the president for the splendid service he is rendering and congratulated him on having gone after and having secured for a permanent member of the League, one of the former faithful members who has been on leave of absence since April. With appropriate remarks he led up to the fact that there would be a "gentle shower" during the evening, Misses Bessie Dusenbury, Elise and Irma Lewis, who had slipped out during the talk, entered with their arms laden with bundles, which the Leaguers had left in the vestibule of the church, and piled these in the laps of Mr. and Mrs. Gasque, who, when they regained the power of speech, thanked the Leaguers for their kindness and pledged themselves to render even better service to show their gratitude.

Pimples

BLOOD impurities are pumped by the heart into the face. That is what causes that grainy appearance, that muddiness, sallowness, pimples, blackheads, acne, red spots, and that impossible "something" which no face cream, massage, or face powder can cover up or beautify! The foundation for a beautiful skin simply is not there, and no face treatment can give it to you. But increase your red-blood-cells,—and quickly the ruby tint of purity begins to glow in the cheeks, the complexion becomes venus-like and immaculate! Try it. It will do it every time. S. S. S. builds the red-blood-cells you need for a beautiful complexion. Begin using S. S. S. at once, and give yourself what you have been working for, for years.

S. S. S. is sold at all good drug stores in two sizes. The larger size is more economical.
