FARMER DIES

The father of W. E. Sessions, the well known grower of truck in the Homewood section, passed away last week. The interment took place at the Thompson cemetery near Maple last Saturday. . . . .

LOSES TIRE BRACKET

On the way to Mullins last Sunday Policeman Holt of the Conway force lost the tire bracket from the rear of his car together with a casing, that the bracket carried. . . . .

The supports of the bracket came loose and the part was lost some where along the route. He will be glad for somebody to find this missing part and send it to him here. . . . .

CONVENTION HELD

The annual convention of the Horry County Sunday School Association, was held on last Friday at Hickory Grove Baptist church. . . . .

W. M. Goldfinch of the Conway Methodist church presiding. The object of the meeting was to try and bring the county up to the banner standard of the State Sunday School Association. . . . .

Galivants Ferry was awarded the attendance banner, as her delegates traveled 25 miles to attend the convention. . . . .
 Leon C. Palmer of Spartanburg, represented the State association. . . . .

WHISKEY RAID SUNDAY NIGHT

There was a whiskey raid on August 13th made by J. K. King, of the rural police, assisted by A. M. King, upon premises of Tillman Grainger in Bayboro township. . . . .

The officer found three quart of white whiskey commonly called by the name of monkeyrum at a tobacco barn where Grainger had cured tobacco during Sunday and Sunday night, until the officer had been notified to the effect that Grainger had distributed a quantity of whiskey in that community and which had produced some drunkenness. . . . .

The officer states that he found two men beastly drunk and also three others who had all that they could carry, and he found evidence he said that showed they had been furnished by Grainger. . . . .

Three automobiles had been ditched in that community. There had been a general row on the public highway of the county participated in by both white men and negroes. . . . .

The policeman was called into that community at about 9 o'clock on Sunday night. He had kept one eye open for Tillman Grainger for some time as it appears. On this occasion when he was called to the place by reason of the row and the ditching of the three automobiles (which had something to do in sending for an officer) he was doubly anxious to find out where the supply of moonshine had come from. . . . .

King acted in this instance under a search warrant which he applied for and held in readiness for some time. Grainger gave bond for his appearance at the court where he stands charges of storing and keeping in possession, and doubtless also for other counts which are usually included in a whiskey warrant such as selling and making a nuisance. . . . .
 News of the disturbance which led

BOUND OVER FOR SELLING

Guss Graham, son of C. M. Graham, was given a preliminary several days ago in the court of magistrate W. H. Chestnut, on the charge of selling whiskey. . . . .

The warrant was sworn out by V. D. Johnson of the rural police force. . . . .

The witnesses against Graham were: Daniel Montgomery, W. B. Cooper, Monroe Benson and Haskell Flowers. . . . .

Daniel Montgomery and W. B. Cooper testified at the hearing that they bought whiskey from Graham. Monroe Benson did not prove a very good witness for the State. He evaded the questions put to him and was finally excused. Haskell Flowers left a day or two before the hearing for the purpose of joining the navy, it was reported and his testimony was not forthcoming. . . . .

The magistrate bound Graham over to the court of general sessions and he was out under bail for his appearance at the next term in September. . . . .

MAN REFUSES TO TELL NAME

The Town of Conway met a tough case last Friday when a nameless negro man, or rather boy was brought in by one of the town policemen charged with vagrancy. . . . .

Night policeman J. A. Holt found this negro wandering round the town without any definite aim in view. He refused to give his name. . . . .

The negro was asked to tell his name several times but he was determined in his refusal to give out this information. On the records of the town and in the chain gang whither he was sent for thirty days, he will doubtless appear as John Doe. . . . .

On last Saturday morning he was placed in an automobile and taken out to the public works where he will serve out his time. He will no doubt still continue to conceal his name. . . . .

It may turn out that he is wanted in some other county for some high crime or misdemeanor. He was a very sullen looking object as he was carried off to the gang. . . . .

the calling of the officer and later to the searching of Grainger's premises, his arrest and bail, reached Conway on last Monday morning at an early hour. . . . .

Tell the news to the Horry Herald.

GIVES HIMSELF UP TO SHERIFF

R. T. Elvis, an industrious farmer of the Dog Bluff section, was in Conway last Monday morning to surrender to the sheriff of Horry County. . . . .

He told a lurid story of how he had to protect himself from attacks made on him by Tollie Turbeville. He shot Turbeville, finally, and hit him twice, sufficient to make Turbeville desist from the attacks. . . . .

Elvis said that he was at his home on R. F. D. No. 1, Galivants Ferry, S. C. last Saturday afternoon. Tollie Turbeville came there with a bottle of whiskey in his pocket. . . . .

Turbeville attacked Elvis while the latter was in his bed sick. Turbeville was ordered away by both Mr. and Mrs. Elvis but he resisted them in their pleadings to be gone and was finally forced to leave the place. . . . .

Turbeville left. He is supposed to have gone to his home for a gun. He returned to the Elvis home with the gun later on and began to make threats of violence against Elvis, and perhaps members of his family. . . . .

Elvis says that on this occasion he was compelled to use a weapon in self defense and in defense of his home. . . . .

He shot Turbeville three times. Once he missed his mark. Twice he hit his mark. While it is not believed that either of the wounds can prove of any serious nature, yet they were severe enough to cause Turbeville to decide to quit in his efforts to hurt Elvis. . . . .

Turbeville is said to have had a stick drawn on Mrs. R. T. Elvis at the time the shots were fired at him by her husband, R. T. Elvis. . . . .

Early on last Monday morning Elvis came to Conway and placed himself in the hands of the sheriff for arrest and making of bail. . . . .

At this writing it is not known what legal steps will be taken by Turbeville, or whether any steps of any nature had been taken by him; but it is thought that a warrant for assault and battery of some kind will be sworn out and the case set down for trial at the next term of the court of common pleas. . . . .

Efforts to obtain a statement from Turbeville or some of his friends failed. . . . .

BUYS NORTON RESIDENCE

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Dusenbury have purchased the Norton residence from Mrs. Mabel Norton Goodyear. They have had the place under lease from Mrs. Goodyear for the past two years. The property is located in the heart of the main residence section of Conway and is the place where the late Dr. Evan Norton lived. . . . .

LORIS MEMBERS PLEDGE SELVES

There was an enthusiastic gathering of tobacco growers at Loris last Friday to listen at a good speech from E. C. Epps, of Kingstree, one of the directors of the Tobacco Growers Co-operative Association. . . . .

At the close of the meeting the members passed the following resolution and this was signed by all of those whose names are below appended: . . . . .

Resolved: that we the members of the Co-operative Marketing Association of Horry County, wish to express our thanks and appreciation to our director, Mr. E. C. Epps, Kingstree, S. C., who addressed a meeting of the tobacco growers at the warehouse at Loris on Friday afternoon, and we further resolve to pledge ourselves to see that this marketing contract which we have signed shall be carried out. We further pledge our loyal support to our local manager, Mr. J. J. McKenzie, to assist him in every way in seeing that the tobacco to which we are entitled shall be delivered to the

SICK AT HOSPITAL

Mrs. Isaac Dawsey was taken to the Mullins hospital about two weeks ago suffering from a bad case of appendicitis. Her husband is a tenant on the farm of A. P. Johnson near Conway. . . . .

At last accounts Mrs. Dawsey was not doing so well. She was not recovering from the effects of the operation as rapidly as was wanted. . . . .

Her husband went over to Mullins last Sunday to see her. . . . .
