

DEAD BROKE.
The City had to go without
Their Christmas Money.
CHICAGO, Dec. 26.—Chicago is approaching bankruptcy. Comptroller Wetherill refused to pay any of the city employees before Christmas, as has been the custom for years, and it is said that it is by no means certain that there will be sufficient money on hand to pay them at the end of the month.

GOT HIS FREEDOM.
A German's Long Term in the Alabama Penitentiary.
BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Dec. 27.—Governor Jones has pardoned Charles Moineke, a German, who has for 17 years been a convict in the state penitentiary. He was convicted of the murder of an old man—Albert Lyons, of Russell county, Alabama. Lyons was shot while going to a well for some water after dark one night.

IS SHEEHAN A DEFAULTER?
The Brother of New York's Lieutenant Governor Charged With Embezzlement.
New York, Dec. 28.—A special to The World in announcing an alleged shortage in the accounts of John C. Sheehan, former city comptroller, says:

Lieutenant Governor Sheehan refuses to talk of the publication in New York of the story that his brother, Police Commissioner John C. Sheehan, of New York city, defaulted while comptroller of this city. The lieutenant governor may make a statement later. Timothy Mahoney, who succeeded John C. Sheehan in the office of comptroller, and who, it is said, discovered Sheehan's alleged default, is not in town at present.

A Joke That Was Unfortunate.
MUSKOGEE, Ind., Dec. 27.—A good many horses have been stolen in the vicinity of Yorktown recently, causing a great deal of excitement. As a practical joke the friends of John Rudy, a dry goods clerk, had him arrested at a church on Monday night by a bogus sheriff. The warrant charged him with horse stealing, and by procuring a crowd he gathered and threatened to lynch Rudy. He broke away and ran home, a distance of five miles, and is now a raving maniac.

More Silver Found in Texas.
SAN ANTONIO, Dec. 27.—Advices have reached here of a great discovery of silver near the town of Shafter, Tex., where extensive mines are already being worked. The find is located near the Rio Grande river, in Pecos county, and is in a district which contains several old abandoned mines which were worked a century or more ago by the Spaniards. Two prospectors, named Frank Darring and Theodore Willing, were the discoverers of this new mine.

A Race Riot in Florida.
JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Dec. 27.—A special to The Times-Union from Wildwood, Fla., says: A difficulty between a white man and a negro culminated in a riot in which two white men were shot by negroes—one seriously, the other slightly. The negroes congregated some distance from town and the white men were shot from ambush. The names of the wounded men could not be learned.

SHOT HIM TO DEATH.
A Wounded Officer Held His Assailant and Killed Him.
GAINESVILLE, Fla., Dec. 26.—At 11 o'clock policeman John Bennett arrested Ben Adkins, colored, for disorderly conduct. Adkins resisted and stabbed Bennett, who would not shoot in the crowd. He ran back in the open street, the negro still following and stabbing, until Bennett fell to the ground, when the negro jumped on him just as he fell.

He Makes Serious Threats.
CHICAGO, Dec. 27.—The police are hunting for a crank who threatens, it is said, to kill Phil Armour, the millionaire and pork packer; blow up with dynamite the Armour institute, and murder Dr. Ganssauls, its president and pastor of the Plymouth Congregational church.

Twenty-Two Fine Horses Created.
KITTANNING, Pa., Dec. 27.—Fire destroyed the stables on the Keystone stock farm, owned by Bowser brothers, of Manor township. Twenty-two horses were cremated, some of which were the finest stock in Pennsylvania.

A Beautiful Altar Dedicated.
LOWELL, Dec. 27.—Bishop Lawrence has dedicated the new marble altar, a memorial to the late James R. Francis, the distinguished engineer, in St. Anne's church.

Governor Stone Pardoned White Caps.
JACKSON, Miss., Dec. 27.—Governor Stone pardoned Alex. Reeves, Martin and Rowan Moak, Dan Simmons, James Robertson and Reuben Leonard, sentenced by Judge Christian for two years last May at Brownsville for White Capping, and J. P. Tyson, sentenced for one year from Copiah county by Judge Christian, for the same offense. The governor went to the prison in person and made them a kindly talk, telling them they owed it to themselves, their family, to him and to Judge Christian, who had recommended their pardon, to lead correct lives. The prisoners were very much touched. They thanked the governor, and promised never to get in trouble again. They are poor, illiterate people, with families dependent upon their daily labor.

Group Up in the Cogwheels.
WASHINGTON, Ga., Dec. 27.—Jim Harris, a negro, came to an untimely death here Saturday night. He was one of the night hands at the oil mill of the Excelsior Manufacturing company. While attending to his duties his coat became entangled in the machinery. Before he could release himself he was drawn into a set of cogwheels and torn into pieces, his legs, arms and head all being crushed. Death was instantaneous.

Fall River Dividends.
FALL RIVER, Dec. 27.—The list of yearly dividends of the Fall River cotton manufacturers, just issued by G. M. Hafford & Co., stock brokers, shows that the capital of $24 companies is $20,878,000, and that dividends totaling 7.90 per cent and amounting to $2,347,000 had been paid during the year.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 27.—The bark E. O. Clark, Captain Ira B. Holmes, which sailed from this port Nov. 3 laden with 750 tons of anthracite coal for Key West, has been given up for lost, together with her crew of nine. The ship, which was built for the Greenland trade, was owned by McKay & Dick, of New York.

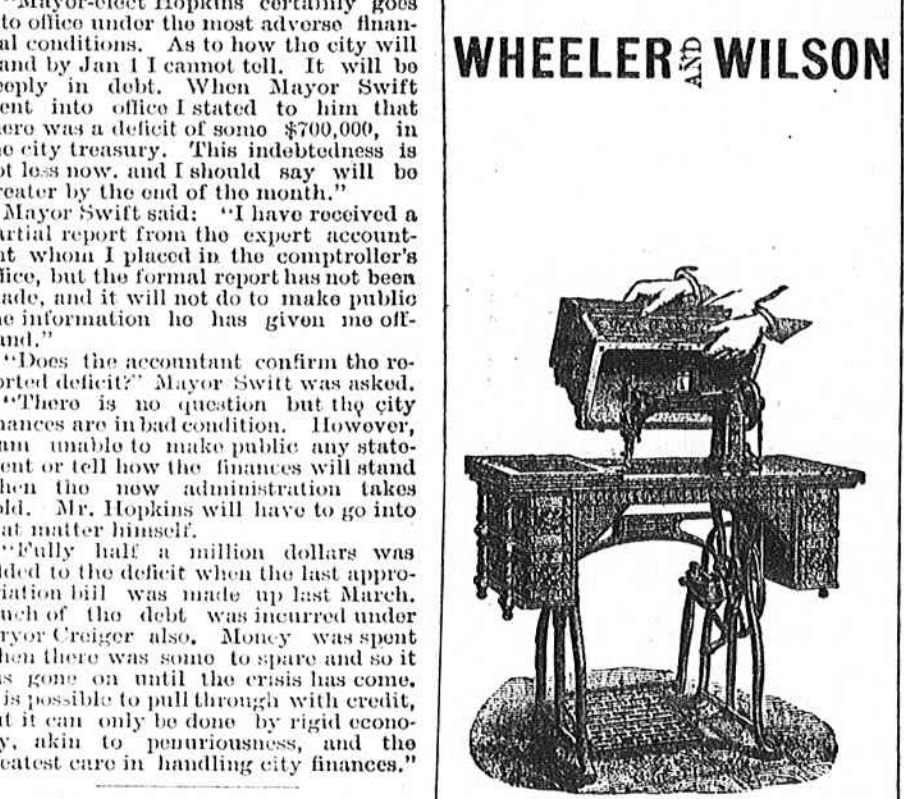

ATLANTA, Dec. 27.—The weather bureau has issued an interesting circular about the weather we may expect for the month of January.

WASHINGTON, Pa., Dec. 27.—While trying to arrest a man named Tonka Provisnik at Olympian, Constable William Davis and Policeman J. Murray were attacked by a mob of Provisnik's friends. Murray was shot and seriously injured, and Constable Davis received a number of fearful wounds from knives.

BURNED THE SQUAW.
Los Angeles, Dec. 28.—A horrible story of the wild law and superstition of the Mojave Indians is told by J. F. Saunders, who has just arrived from The Needles, a town on the Colorado river, on the Atlantic and Pacific road. The Mojave Indians' reservation is about half a mile from The Needles and the aborigines are virtually their own

STILL DISSATISFIED.
Foreigners Do Not Know What They Got in Prizes.
CHICAGO, Dec. 26.—The dissatisfaction of foreign commissioners with the treatment accorded them by the bureau of awards of the World's Fair does not seem to diminish. Chairman Thatcher sent to Chicago last week the list of awards granted to foreign countries. Secretary Dickinson had them conveyed to the several commissioners. When Senor de Lomo, of Spain, received them he wrote a letter to Mr. Dickinson, in which he said, concerning the list:

The document is a worthless and useless list of names copied from our records, and is not the official statement of the foreign commissioners asked for and obtained a promise from the executive committee to receive. I hope it will be the last time I shall hear from the awards. In fact, I will be delighted if it is so. We will leave Chicago, all foreigners declaring that in the matter of awards they are treated and ill treated, and that the exhibitors do not know whether they are prize winners or not, such a long time after all is finished.
